 robbery in the first degree

Court of General Sessions Part I Before Judge Geldersleeve Wednesday January 26th 1881. Indictment for Louis Bresloff, sworn and examined testified. I live at 194 Avenue A near Twelfth St. Where were you on the 18th of the month at the time just before the occurrence which gave rise to this indictment? I was at Fourteenth St. and Avenue A, it was about 10 or 15 minutes past 12 o'clock in the night, I was alone. On the corner of Thirteenth St. and Avenue A on the same side where I was coming from. I saw three young men, the biggest I often seen before, the other two I did not know before. I crossed the square to my place, I live on the other side I live the second house from the corner. I heard one of them follow me but I did not pay any attention to it. Just coming on the corner he made a jump on me, put his left arm around my neck and said, "Hallo, Mr. Bresloff," at the same time he touched the chain and caught hold of that man with the right hand, the big fellow holding him and halloed and with the left hand I caught hold of the vest and the watch. Just at the same time this young man and another crossed over and said, "What is the matter?" and hit me right on the head. This young man and another with him jumped on my left hand side and wanted to raise my hand from the watch pocket. This prisoner hit me at the same time. Then I let the fellow go whom I held by the neck, at the same time the first man tore off the chain and ring. I held this young man and another until the watchman came; they ran away from the policeman; the policeman ran after this young man round the corner, the other one ran across where he came from; the policeman fired three shots at this young man. This prisoner is the one who struck me; the one that got hold of me I saw him several times before; he was the one that threw his arm around my neck; the tall one was the one that got my chain. When I first saw these three persons they were together on the corner of Third tenth St. The chain of the watch was fastened to it by a bar and that is lost; they broke that off. Cross Examined. I was at the second house from the corner when I was struck. The prisoner was in Twelfth St. when he was arrested; the policeman ran after him. I do not think I ever saw the prisoner before that night. One of the young men I saw around my neighborhood the last couple of years - a hard case. I did not run after any of them. I stayed at the spot where I was struck until after I was arrested. I think it happened a quarter past twelve. At half past ten o'clock I closed up my store 194 Avenue St, it is a cigar store. I took the key and put it in my pocket. I went to the corner of Fourteenth Street and Avenue K into John Doff's place; he keeps a liquor store. I stayed there till 10 or 15 minutes past 12 o'clock. I don't know how far the prisoner got away before he arrested him; the officer brought him back to me and asked me "if he was the man who hit me?" I told him, "yes." Edward Magan ~~sworn~~ I am an officer attached to the Eleventh Precinct I was on duty the morning of the 11th on Avenue K from Seventh to Fifteenth Sts. Between 11 and 12 o'clock I heard the cry of "watch." I ran up and the complainant in this case had hold of the prisoner. There was two of them come, and he accused him of being the man with another that had robbed him, saying that the man had grabbed his chain and ran away and this one struck him. As I was about making the arrest, the prisoner started in one direction and the man who was with him in another. I halloed for the prisoner to stop, and he did not do it. I fired my revolver in the air. He made an attempt to go in the hall way, the door was locked. I arrested him standing in the door way. I never lost sight of him from the time I attempted to make the arrest until I finally arrested him. I should judge he ran three or four hundred feet before I caught him. ~~Cross~~ Examined I did not draw my club on the prisoner; he said he did not have any thing to do with the robbery; he was searched in the station house and nothing was found on him.

Louis Bresloff recalled. About two days after Thomas McGlynn, who keeps a junk shop in Thirteenth St. brought me back the chain; the chain was worth about $4.50.

Bella Hannon sworn for the defence, testified I am a sister of the prisoner; he came to New York about three months ago; he came here about two or three days before my mother died. It was three months the 14th of this month since she died; my father is dead seven years; we came down from Peekskill; there are four single sisters and one married. My brother lived always with us; he has always been a good boy home, never drank and never was arrested to my knowledge. He worked in a wire factory in Peekskill. Since he has been here he has worked for six weeks for James Kenney, a city Marshall. My ^{dearest} sister works, but we have not worked since we came to stay. I have been down two weeks since his arrest. I have not looked for employment on account of the trouble. Cross Examined My brother was boarding with Mrs. Dunn, 113 East 118th St. He is a stone cutter and shoe maker by trade. He was employed in the wire factory in Peekskill about a year and a half ago.

Lizzie Haulan, sworn. The prisoner is my brother I have been here a month; he has been boarding in the same house I have been boarding in and my three sisters. I have always known him to be a good boy; we have had a widowed mother. I have always lived out since I was ten years old.
 Cross Examined. There was your brother the night before this occurrence? He came to me at 11 1/2 I could not tell where he was until he came home on Sunday night. The next morning he went to look for work; he left our house Monday morning to look for work to meet a man who promised to get him work. I could not tell you who the man is.
 I came home from work at 2 o'clock and he was getting his dinner. He went to look for the man again to get work. I asked him where he was going? He said he was going to look for work.
 I did not see him again till he got into trouble on Tuesday. He worked at bar tending and he got home late. The proprietor retired from business; he was appointed City Marshal. He was employed six weeks as a bar tender. I don't know who he was with the night he was arrested. I am not acquainted with his associates. I asked him about the matter for which he was arrested. He says he does not know anything about it. He said he only ran over to see what was the matter with the man. He worked six or seven months in a wire works and he stopped home then he was out of employ he came back to New York again. I don't know anything about the return of the watch and chain. He went to see the complainant if he would be light with him for our sake and he told us he got his watch and chain back. I did not see him before he got the watch and chain. Thomas B. Harlow, sworn and examined in his own behalf. Why did you say when before the Police Magistrate that you lived at 225 East Twenty eighth St? I did not think the trouble was as serious as it was at the time. On my arrest I gave in that so that my sisters would not know anything about it. I thought I would get out next morning as I was innocent of the charge. I was never arrested before for trouble of any kind. I was 21 years old last December. I was working for Mr. Kenney up to the 7th of the month; he was appointed Marshal and retired from business. I left him on Friday and this happened on the following Monday night or Tuesday morning, a little after 12 o'clock. Did you have anything to do with the robbery of this man? No sir, I don't know anything about it. Agent Lerman who used to come into the store told me he could get me a ticket to secure an appointment on the one horse cars. I went to a liquor store in Fourteenth St. to see this man to get a ticket for the cars at 11 o'clock. I waited till I guess it was twelve o'clock. The man was going to close up. He said, "I guess you will not see him tonight; perhaps you will find him in Thirteenth St. I walked along Avenue St; the complainant ran against me, and says, "What is the matter? He says, "That man running has my watch and chain." There was a man running up through Thirteenth St. I turned round and looked. I says, "That is too bad." The officer came up and had his club out in a threatening manner. The complainant says, "I want you to arrest this man, he is after striking me, he was with the man that has taken my watch and chain. I says, "You are mistaken"; there was another man standing there. I ran one way, it was for fear of getting struck. I ran away I did not commit this crime. Cross Examined. I was never arrested before for anything for any crime of any kind. How long have you been in New York? I have been off and on in New York a number of years. When I was working in Peekskill I would come to New York. In the summer of 1878 I worked for Reeves and Church in Greene St. between Manhattan Avenue and Franklin St.

 I was boarding in 145 Freeman St. at that time. it was directly opposite the factory. They had no business in the winter time and I was discharged. I went back home and was idle for four, five or six months. I was never arrested before. Is it not the fact that you ^{were} arrested in the summer of 1879 and arraigned in this Court and pleaded guilty to burglary in the third degree and sent from this Court to the penitentiary for eighteen months? No sir. That is your signature (paper shown) I don't know anything about that? Were't you in this Court on the 4th day of September 1879 on a charge of burglary in the third degree in company with one James Sully? No sir. Were't you in August 1879 arraigned before Justice Smith, a police justice in this city for the offence of burglary in the third degree? No sir. Were't you on the 19th or the morning of the 20th of August arrested by officer Shearn of the 16th Precinct? No sir. I know nothing about it. Did't you say to Justice Smith in answer to these questions as follows: "That is your name? Thomas Kaulan. How old are you? 21. Where were you born? New York. Where do you live? 145 Freeman St. Greenpoint (the place that you just now told me that you lived at that time). That is your occupation? Silver plater. What have you to say relative to the charge preferred against you? I am not guilty." No sir. I don't know nothing about that case at all. Did you not in this Court on the 19th day of September 1879 plead guilty to an indictment charging you with burglary in the third degree? No sir. Were you not on that day sentenced by Judge Cowing, one of the Judges of this Court to a term of 18 months in the penitentiary? No sir. Edward Ball sworn. I am the deputy clerk of this Court and was such in September 1879. This is an indictment found by the Grand Jury against Thomas Harlan and James Kully for burglary in the third degree; they both pleaded guilty to an attempt at burglary in the third degree and were each sent to the penitentiary for eighteen months.

James McEann testified. I am an officer in the 17th precinct for nearly five years. I arrested the prisoner on the morning of the 20th of August 1879 with ~~the~~ James Kully. They were sentenced by Judge Cowing to 18 months each in the penitentiary on the 9th of September I think. John R. Hennessy sworn. I am a Keeper in the City prison. I saw the prisoner there 18 or 20 months ago to the best of my recollection. I saw him today in the prisoners box and talked with him. He admitted being down "below" (meaning the Lombs) He wanted to know whether he could withdraw the plea of not guilty and take a plea. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

POLICE COURT—SECOND DISTRICT.

of No. 353 Spring David S. Paige Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 22nd day of September 18 80 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away, from the possession of deponent, by means of trick and deceit and with intent to cheat and defraud, the following property, to wit:

being A quantity of Curled hair, (being the contents of six Mattresses and being in all of the value of Fifty Dollars, the property of deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Charles Harris, now here, from the fact that said Charles then received said hair from deponent to clean and make over, and with the agreement between deponent and said Harris that said hair would be returned to deponent by said Harris on the following day.

That said Harris took said hair into his possession and carried the same away and has not returned said hair to deponent up to the present time, and deponent believes and charges that when Mr. Harris received said hair from deponent as aforesaid he then intended to steal the same. David S. Paige

In the matter of the People against Harris on a charge of grand larceny preferred by me Tucker I will testify that Mr Tucker came to my office with the prisoner Harris ~~on~~ ^{on} about the 28th day of December 1880, and introduced him to me and stated that Harris ^{had} a case for damages for conversion; that he wanted me to try for him. Tucker said that the case was a good one and both Tucker & Harris arranged as my retainers and Tucker advanced part of the case at the time. At this time the prisoner 0050 wore a much used velvet over coat & had it on his person. at the time of our introduction on at least three other occasions Fucker & Harris came to my office together & Harris always had on the same velvet overcoat.

Fucker told me that Harris was a good fellow but poor and that the persons against whom the suit he had had treated Harris very unjustly & wanted me to all I could for him.

their Oath, present:

That Arthur Hessler

late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid on the fourth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ~~seventy-eight~~ eighty one, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, on the day and year last aforesaid, with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud one Max Davis did then and there feloniously, unlawfully, knowingly, and designedly, falsely pretend and represent to the said Max Davis that, a certain instrument and writing, to wit, an order for the payment of money, of the kind known as an order and Bank check, which the said Arthur Hessler then and there presented and delivered to the said Max Davis and which said order and Bank check is in the words and figures following, that is to say:

No. 382 Pacific Bank New York January 4th 1881

470 Broadway
Pay to the order of Arthur Hessler Thirty-five ⁰⁰/₁₀₀ Dollars $35.00 James Garrison was a good and valid order for the payment of thirty five dollars in money, and of the value of thirty five dollars; and that a sum of thirty five dollars in money belonging to the said James Garrison was then in the possession of the Pacific Bank and that said sum of money was then payable and could be paid by the said Pacific Bank

James Garrison on the credit and account of the said James Garrison whenever an order in writing, signed by the said James Garrison authorizing the said Pacific Bank to make such payment should be presented at the place of business of the said Pacific Bank and that a certain order and Bank check purporting to be in the proper handwriting of the said James Garrison and which said order and Bank check was addressed to the said Pacific Bank at the place of business of the said Pacific Bank at number four hundred and seventy in the County of New York Broadway in the City of New York aforesaid and which said order and Bank check purported to be an order upon the said Pacific Bank to pay to the said Arthur Hessler and to any endorsee of the said Arthur Hessler and the said order and Bank check the sum of thirty five dollars in money, was a valuable security, to wit, an order for the payment of thirty five dollars in money, and of the value of thirty five dollars.

And the said Max Davis then and there believing the said false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Arthur Hessler and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said Arthur Hessler one watch of the value of twenty four dollars and a certain sum of money, to wit, the sum of eleven dollars in money and of the value of eleven dollars being in the whole of the value of thirty five dollars

of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said Max Davis and the said Arthur Hessler did then and there designedly receive and obtain the said ~~sum of money~~ watch and the said sum of money being in the whole of the value of thirty five dollars in money

of the said Max Davis by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, and with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud the said Max Davis of the same.

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said order and Bank Check which the said Arthur Hessler then and there presented and delivered to the said Max Davis was not a good and valid order for the payment of thirty five dollars in money, nor was the same a good and valid order for the payment of any sum of money whatever.

And, Whereas, in truth and in fact, there was not then and there the sum of thirty five dollars in money belonging to the said James Garrison in the possession of the said Pacific Bank nor was there then and there any sum of money whatsoever belonging to the said James Garrison in the possession of said Pacific Bank

And Whereas, in fact and in truth, the said sum of money was not then payable and could not be paid by said Pacific Bank on the credit and account of the said James Garrison whenever an order in writing signed by the said James Garrison authorizing such payment to be made should be presented at the place of business of the said Pacific Bank, nor would the said Pacific Bank pay any sum of money whatsoever upon such order so signed by the said James Garrison as aforesaid.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said order and Bank Check purporting to be in the proper handwriting of the said James Garrison was not an order to pay to the said Arthur Hessler or any endorsee of the said Arthur Hessler and the said Order and Bank Check the sum of thirty five dollars in money, nor was the same a valuable security, of the value of thirty five dollars in money, nor was it of any value whatever;

And Whereas, in fact and in truth, the pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, by the said Arthur Hessler to the said Max Davis was and were in all respects utterly false and untrue, to wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid.

And Whereas, in fact and in truth the said Arthur Hessler well knew the said pretences and representations so by him made as aforesaid to the said Max Davis to be utterly false and untrue at the time of making the same.

And so the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say, that the said Arthur Hessler by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid, feloniously, unlawfully, falsely, knowingly and designedly, did receive and obtain from the said Max Davis ~~a certain sum of money, to wit, the sum of~~ the said watch and the said sum of money being in the whole of the value of thirty five dollars in money, ~~in money, and of the value of~~

The People
 Alexander Retherington } Court of General Sessions, Part I vs } Before Recorder Smythe.
 Indictment for burglary in the third degree and receiving stolen goods. James Blavens sworn and examined testified

I live at 329 East One hundred and Seventeenth St. I work for Mr. Kelly at One hundred and Ninteenth St. and Avenue A; he keeps a brown stone yard; he has a little stable there. The bridle was in a little office he had there in the stone yard; he had a desk in there and kept the harness hanging up there. On the night of the 21st of January there was harness hanging up there belonging to Mr. Kelly. I closed the place up myself on the night of the 21st of January I shut up the office; there was a broken window and a piece of tin laying up against it.
 I could not swear I locked the door tight; the door was closed anyway; the bridle and reins could be reached from the window.
 If any one should knock down the tin they could reach the bridle. I know the prisoner; he rode on the wagon with me a couple of times. I saw him on the night of the 21st of January about seven o'clock on the corner of 114th Street and Second Avenue. I did not see him after until he was arrested; the officer arrested the prisoner, and then he (the officer) came down to my house in the morning at half past six. I went up and saw the reins at the station house; they were the reins that was in the building; the name of the officer is Egan. Cross Examined. Kelly's stone yard is at the East River; he has got a horse and cart which I drive. I was driving that horse the day before the harness was taken. I guess I took the harness and put it in the office. I know I always put it in there. I am 18 years old. It was about five o'clock when I put the harness in; we shut up the office at that time. I did not hear the harness was taken until the morning; when I got to the office there was a couple of men there who met the stone. When I got there the piece of tin in the window was lying right over out of the nails entirely. The tin was up against the window when I left the office the night before. There was no one else but me that had the work of unharnessing the horse. I never left the harness out all night after I took it off the horse. Cross Examined. I swear I put the harness in the office that night and I will swear the tin was up that night. There is a lock on the door of the office. I could not say for sure that I locked it that night. John Kelly sworn. I live at 222 East 119th St.; my place of business is 114th St. and East River. I am a brown stone cutter. I use a horse and wagon there. Have you seen a certain bridle and reins which was part of your harness used on this horse since you have been arrested? No sir. You have not been to the Station house to see it? No sir. What was the value of the bridle and reins? Between four and five dollars. That is in the Twelfth Ward. Were there any marks on that? Yes sir, there is a K on my harness, on the blinds. John Lafare, sworn and examined testified. Are you a member of the New York police force? Yes sir. Did you arrest the prisoner here? Yes sir at 114th street and First Avenue about the 21st of last month; it was in the night time. Did you search him, did he have anything with him? He had this harness with him, bridle and reins. Was there anything on the head stall, bridle, any mark or sign? There was a letter K on the blind of the bridle. What did you do with him? I fetched him to the station house. After I had arrested the prisoner I asked him where he got them? I knew the character of the man. I asked him if he got them straight? He said, yes I got them from Stevin; he gave them to me, I don't know where he got them. He asked me to go to Stevin's house with him. I asked him where he lived, and he told me 115th St., but he did not live there; he lived in 117th St. So I took him to the station house, locked him up; the next morning I went down to Stevins' house. I asked him for the key; he saw the reins and bridle in Court and identified them as Kelly's property. I know the prisoner and Stevin. Cross Examined. The prisoner was not drunk; he had no signs of liquor upon him. The prisoner has been convicted a couple of times. Alexander Hetherington, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I live 2253 Second Avenue between 115th and 116th Sts. I had this bridle, head stall and reins; the officer found me in possession of them. I had been drinking that night in a liquor saloon kept by my husband. They were given to me in the Second Avenue between 112 and 113th Sts. I do not remember telling the officer that I got them from Stevin. I recollect telling him they were Stevins because I knew they were Stevins by the initials on the flinds "K". I got them between ten and eleven o'clock. It was a young man that gave them to me. I could not say that I ever saw him before. I say to myself, "This looks like Kelly's bridle. I will go to Stevin's house." I met ~~the policeman~~ on Second Avenue. I told him I was going to Stevin's house and that the bridle was given to me. I have known Officer Egan a couple of years; he has arrested me before. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of Burglary in the third degree. He was sent to the State prison for two years and six months.
