William Henry

City & County of New York

Robert Cransty being duly sworn says that he resides at 107 Varick Street and is a physician regularly admitted to practice & practicing as such in this City for the last 5 years

That he is the same doctor whose testimony was taken before the grand jury in this case on the 11th day of May 1880.

That he is personally acquainted with the John Horan, whom one William Henry the defendant in this case is indicted with having killed by an indictment bearing date of filing May 28, 1880

Dependent further says that the day before the death of said John Horan, the latter called on dependent at his office to consult dependent That deceased complained of a swelling sensation in his head.

That deceased was at the time ^{very} much intoxicated & deponent examined the head & skull of deceased who complained of having suffered a fall.

That deponent after a careful examination could not discover any injury to deceased in his head, & deponent thereupon questioned deceased in regard to his habits & system ^{generally} to learn if there was any other cause of trouble.

That deceased thereupon stated to deponent that he deceased was habitually intoxicated & had been so for some time past, & that he deceased had from infancy been subject to convulsions which in deponent's judgment from said statement made to him by deceased accounted for the condition which he complained of, & which convulsions were liable to prove fatal at any moment.

Deponent further says that he has been informed regarding certain proceedings against one William Kemp on the cause of deceased dying by reason of a blow alleged to have been given latter by Hays on April 18. 1882.

 That from the statements made to deponent by deceased in regard to his intemperate habits & his convulsions deponent can & does swear that in his best judgment there exists a very grave doubt the injury if any that was inflicted upon him by Hays was the true cause of death as epilepsy commonly of an idiopathic character usually terminates in sudden death, nor can it be said or positively determined that from any post mortem appearances that any fracture was inflicted upon the 18. day of April and any conclusion to the contrary must be by mere presumption.
 Deponent further states that he gave deceased an accented remedy for epileptic trouble & on visiting the house of deceased next day to view his dead body deponent found the medicine untouched and deponent further adds that the intemperate habits epilepsy most ~~commonly~~ induced by an abuse of alcohol ~~stimulant~~ & that such abuse might ~~and~~ would positively have ~~been~~ highly injurious to deceased in any event. & had been strongly prohibited ~~by~~ ^{by} ~~deceased~~ ^{deceased}; which prohibition was neglected by deceased as defendant is informed & believes.
