Part III.

The People of the State of New York, against
P E T E R S M I T H

Before Hon. Fred'k.
Smyth, and a Jury.

Indictment filed

Indicted for Grand Larceny in the 2nd Degree.

New York, November 23rd 1888

APPEARANCES: For the People, Asst. Dist. Atty. A. D Parker.

For the defendant, Mr. C. Goldey.

GEORGE CHRISTAVIETCH, a witness for the people, sworn, testified:-

I live at No. 484 11th Avenue. The defendant Peter Smith slept in the same house with me on the 29th of September this year; out of charity we took him into the house. At that time I had $189. in my trunk which I kept in the room with me. This amount of money had been raised by my friends for me a short time before that when I lost both my hands by an accident. I have no hands now. I lost that money about the 9th of September. At that time this defendant left the house and did not come back any more. About two months after that I met him in the street and I called him into the house. When we got in I said to him "You stole my money" and he said "No, I did not". I said "I am sure you did, and I will have you arrested". Then he said "Yes, I did it I cannot return it now as I have no money now"; he then begged me not to arrest him and said that as soon as he got work he would pay it back to me in instalments of so much a week. Jacob Bergowitch who lived in the same house with me also had a key to my trunk. When I was in the hospital about a year ago I loaned this defendant my key to go and open my trunk and bring me some linene. This he did.

CROSS EXAMINATION:-

There were four others present in the room at the time that this confession was made by the defendant. Jacob Bergowitch said to the defendant "You took the money, after you left that night you went and got married and you have a watch and chain and you have bought other things. We know you got the money".

Q. Jacob Bergowitch was the man who had the key of the trunk? A. Yes sir.

Q. When did you see this $189. before you missed it?

A. The Saturday night before; the bevery night before I missed it. I counted it at that time. Two days before this time I had taken this money to an artificial arm store on Broadway to buy some arms for me, but they were not ready so I brought the money back and replaced it in my trunk and locked the trunk and put the key in my pocket.

FRANK SAFFEN, a witness for the People, testified:-

I live at No. 484 11th Avenue in this city . I live in the same house with the complainant. I heard the conversation related by the last witness in which the defendant confessed to having taken the complainant's money. The conversation as related by the last witness I also heard . It is correct . This man fell on his kness and said "I took the money; dont have me arrested". He said that if we could procure him any work he would return the money in time .

No Cross Examination .

JACOB BERGOWITCH, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:-

I live at No. 484vllth Avenue and lived there on the 9th of September last . I knew that the complainant had this amount of money in his trunk . The defendant came to his house sometime after and he said "Yes, I stole the money, but I will pay you back by instalments". This was after we had all told him that we knew he had stolen it and that if he did not pay it back we would have him arrested .

CROSS EXAMINATION:-

I was the one who counted this money for the ^{com-} ~~defen-~~ ^{plaint} ~~ant~~ at different times as he had no hands . Since the complainant lost his arms we have taken care of him in our rooms .

FRANK P. SMITH, of No. 565 11th Avenue gave similar testimony as the three last witnesses .

D E F E N S E

PETER SMITH, the defendant, sworn, testified:-

I have been in this country about two years. I am a laborer, and live in 34th Street near 9th Ave. I am nineteen years of age . When I returned to this house all of these men who have testified here said "UYou took the money" and I said "I did not take the money" and then they said "Yes, you did take the money" and they hit me and I fell down . The man wit out any arms kicked me . I did not take this man's money . I Odo not know anything at all about the taking of it .

CROSS EXAMINATION:-

I have not bought any watch and chain or things of that kind since the 9th of September . If I had money I would be dressed better than I am now . On the morning that I left this place I told on of these men that I was going and that I would not sleep there any more . I did not tell the complainant I was going . The reason I said that I took the money was because I was afraid they would kill me . They all stood around me and said "you took the money".

FRANK SMITH, and Jacob BERGOWITCh, being recalled testified that they neither hit nor kicked the defendant at the time that he made the confession in the defendant's room .

The Jury returned a verdict of GUILTY of Grand Larceny in the second degree.

Information for Fraudulent Registration.

Mrs. J. Stewart Defendant

City and County of New York, to wit:

James H. Riley of 22 Princeton age occupation Police Officer, being duly sworn deposes, alleges and says:

That he has good cause to believe and doth verily believe and charge that heretofore, to wit: on the 9th day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, the same being a day duly appointed by law as a day for the general registration of the qualified voters of the said City and County, the above-named defendant, at the City and County aforesaid, did personally appear before the Inspectors of Election of the 42 Election District of the 17 Assembly District of the said City and County, at a meeting of the said Inspectors of Election then being duly held for the purpose of the general registration of the qualified voters of the said City and County, resident in the said Election District, at the duly designated polling place of the said Election District, and then and there, at the said general registration of voters, feloniously did fraudulently register in the said Election District, not having a lawful right to register therein, by reason of not being a male resident of the said Election District, as then was, or on the day of the general election to be held throughout the said State of New York, and in said City and County on the sixth day of November 1888, and next following the said day of registration, would be entitled to vote therein, in this, to wit: that he, the said defendant was not then, nor would he on the day of the said general election so next following the said day of registration have been an inhabitant of the State of New York for one year, and of the said County of New York for four months, and of the said Election District for the last thirty days next preceding the day of the said election, and being thereby disqualified by the Constitution and Laws of this State as well from voting at the said election, as also from then and there registering as such voter, all of which the said defendant then and there well knew.

That as your informant has good cause to believe and doth verily believe the said defendant in and for so feloniously and fraudulently registering as aforesaid, did then and there, being examined by the said Inspectors of Election according to the requirements of the Laws of this State as to his qualifications as an elector of the said Election District, and particularly in respect to his residence falsely and fraudulently give and state to the said Inspectors of Election as his then dwelling-place and abode, and cause and procure the said Inspectors to enter in the register of the said Election District duly made and furnished as provided by law for that purpose, certain matters to the effect that his dwelling-place and abode was then the premises and place situate in the said Election District known as number and that he had resided in said State and County and at the said premises and place for such a period of time as then entitled him, or would on the day of said election entitle him to vote therein: whereas in truth and in fact the dwelling-house and abode of the said defendant was not then the said premises and place, and he had not so resided in said State and County and at said premises and place for such period of time as aforesaid.

Wherefore your informant prays that a warrant may issue for the arrest of the said defendant, and that he be dealt with according to law.

the property of Benjamin Altman and Samuel Altman partners and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by Philip Steiner (now here)

for the reasons following, to wit: That on said day the doors and windows, the scuttle leading to the roof and the ventilators in the skylight employee of said firm under deponent's supervision and in deponent's presence and the said property was therein.

the said premises and found ^{lock on the} the ventilator in the sky-light had been forcibly broken and upon a table in said premises the said property was heaped ^{together} ~~upon a table~~ ready for removal. Deponent is further informed by Matthias Hunning (nowhere) that he Hunning on the evening of said day securely locked and fastened the doors windows and scuttle on the roof leading into said premises 530 Broadway, the building adjoining the premises burglarized. That at about the hour of eight o'clock on the morning of the 15th day of November 1888, he Hunning, opened the said premises 530^(?) Broadway and found the ladder used for the purpose of ascending to the roof of said premises, had been moved from its original position and thereafter he Hunning found the defendant secreted in the hatchway of the said premises 530 Broadway on the fourth floor thereof and that the rope used in said hatchway was hanging from said top floor to the floor below where said defendant was found. Deponent therefore charges said defendant with burglariously entering the premises 530 Broadway opening the scuttle leading to the roof and crossing to the premises 530 Broadway and entering deponent's premises and attempting to take steal and carry away said property.
