New York, April 27 1887

My dear Sir:

Your petitioners again
humbly crave your indulgence.
The trial of the indictments in above cases is set down for tomorrow. As we are now actually applying for a license, the imposition of a fine at the present time would prejudice our application to an extent, simply terrible to realize.

Will you kindly grant us ten days more of the free air of Spring and add one more to the many favors for I am indebted to you

To Hon. Randolph B. Martine ~~act.~~

Gratefully,
Yours truly

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Vincenzo Patrini

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. My reasons for withdrawing my ~~at~~ complaint against the defendant above named are, because of the fact that I was the assailant in the assault which the defendant is charged with committing.

That such assault occurred on the public street at 34th Street and Seventh Ave New York City. That I struck the prisoner the first blow with my hands and knocked him violently to the ground and in order to defend himself he drew a small pocket knife and cut me in the arm - The prisoner did not attempt to injure or assault me until ^{immediately} after I struck him.
