French Bell and have known him for five years. He was in my employment three years. I brought him from Saratoga to this City about five years ago. He was always a reliable honest trustworthy employee and I have trusted him time and time again with large sums of money and valuable personal property and he has never upon any occa= sion violated his trust. The watch in question was brought to me by the defendant, on the same day that he purchased it, to examine it in order to see if in my judgment it was worth the amount paid for it. I had the watch in my possession for two days and handed it back to defendant who wore it for a week afterwards I saw him every day thereafter for a period of seven or eight days.

This was about seven or eight days prior to his arrest.

I had twenty five dollars of defendants money for safe keeping and gave him twenty four dollars back the day before he purchased the watch. One dollar I had given to him previously.

The watch I fully believe belongs to the defendant and was purchased by him for his own use - and that the defendant never stole or intended to steal the same was dead; I was satisfied by Jimmie Dobson, an acquaintance

Since I heard that my husband and since August last we have been so living together as husband & wife pursuant to said agreement.

About a month before the complaint was made in this action said Bell bought the watch mentioned, and told me I gave him $55 at one time and $20. at another time; and the misunderstanding was that the watch should be mine though he was to wear it; said Bill wore said watch off and on at different times.

That Nov 17, sat. at home when on bed, the watch had been in a bureau drawer; we had a quarrel and I had ^{taken} the watch out of the drawer and told him he should not have it any more, and the quarrel was stopped me another and he got the watch away from me. Then was a good deal noise of the quarrel and an officer came up to our room, and I said make him give me my watch, I don't want him to wear it; the officer asked me if it was my watch & I said yes & I didn't want Bill to wear it that night; then the officer took us around to the Station house.

I don't think that said Bill had any intention of cheating the watch or intended to deprive me of it.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. I have been living with the defendant as his wife he took my watch but he has since returned it to me - he is sick and this request is made by me out of pure mercy. I am not guilty of the charge. I used to frequent a Coffee Saloon owned and kept by a man named Wood. I was the acquaintance of the young man who accompanied me to Wood's store. I asked him when I came by from time to time to cover a few minutes, he brought me to Wood's store. I argued for Mr. Wood of the

Complaining witness. He answered Wood would be in about 15 minutes. I waited 10 minutes - Mr. Wood didn't come. I then priced a ring of the Complaining witness - then a person came in, I asked the Complaining witness if this was Mr. Wood, and he answered No. I said I cannot wait any longer and I left the store. As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. I have found out that the man comes from a good family, and being the first time, he was ever arrested. I think he has been punished enough. If the man is discharged, he will join his family in Europe. I therefore recommend his discharge.
