City Judge, &c

John C. Mc Knight was convicted in the Court of General Sessions on the 22nd day of March 1883, upon an indictment charging him with Robbery.

The undersigned, most of whom have known the young man long and intimately, respectfully beg to urge upon you the propriety of suspending sentence upon the verdict.

Mc Knight's character, we believe, to have been unimpeachable up to the time of the present charge against him. He has been employed as a salesman in the Hat trade, and has served his employers with fidelity, gaining and retaining their confidence and esteem. He has a young wife and child upon whom the humiliation of his imprisonment would be the severest implication. His connections and associations have been reputable. He has already been in confinement for about three months.

Not all of us are familiar with the testimony that was produced against him, yet we are so thoroughly convinced of his integrity, that we are compelled to believe him the victim of suspicious circumstances

We believe that his restoration to his family, and to society, with the guaranty for future good behavior that a suspended sentence would afford, would be productive only of good results.

Minnie Schwartzwald of No. 334 Fifth Street aged 17 years, Domestic being duly sworn and was examined says I was 17 years of age last Christmas, I have been 8 months in the Country.
My elder brother urged me to come here, My father and mother are living ~~at~~ near Posen in Germany, I had no misunderstanding with any young gentleman before I left them.
The gentleman I met Kept Company was my uncle, I never loved any one, I never had any steady company in either Germany or United States, I landed in the Country in the month of May last, I don't know the name of the Ship, It was a Hamburg Steamer,
The officers and crew were German, I was 13 days coming over, A gentleman that used to live in our house came over and I came over with him from the old Country his name is Luminsky, he is a married man, he was alone the gentleman came in the 2nd cabin, I came in the Steerage. I did not get acquainted with any of the crew of the ship coming over; I remember one of the ship crew his name was Spandau he was a passenger. I slept alone in a room coming over there was about 10 or 12 girls coming over with me in the room. Men occasionally came into the Steerage. I don't know any of their names. They were strangers to me. Mr. Schwartzwald and Mr. Spandau never came down there. Mr. Spandau and Mr. Lominsky came down to see me. They did not come down to see me ^{in the Steerage} they saw me on Deck. We talked together often on Deck than we did in the Steerage. I made a mistake when I said the gentleman named did not come down to see me. Mr. Spandau came down once, and Mr. Lominsky came down several times. I cannot say how many times he came down. I was sick and he came to see me. I was sick four days and he came to see me each day. He came to see me in the day time. I never was alone when he came to see me. We were not allowed to go on Deck in the day time. I remember Mr. Spandau's sister ^{she} is the only person I have met since I left the Deck. I know Spandan sister lives but I cannot tell where it is, Mr. Spandan or Mr. Sminsky did not have connection with me coming over on the ship. nobody had connection with me coming over, when I landed in this country I went to my brother's house at 73 Orchard street, I landed in Hoboken N.J. When I got off the vessel my brother came and he went with me to the cars. My brother and some men were examining my baggage. I never had a fall or received an injury either here or in Europe. I have had Cramps when at Home, but I have. The House that my Parents and I lived in took fire, we were all very much frightened in consequence of which I was taken sick and I suffered for three weeks with Cramps in the stomach. I was not delirious during my sickness. I was not ~~conscious~~ conscious during all the time I was in Bed suffering frightfully from Pains in my Head during the time I was sick. I always have Head Aches, I never have been sick in the United States. Since last Monday week I have been suffering from Head Aches. I never have had a fit or fainting spell. When I went to my brother's house his wife & his children was in the house. I

Remained with my brother for 3 months. I don't ~~remember~~ ~~under~~ the house directly opposite my brother's.
 I don't recollect any house opposite my brother's house. I don't know that any house of prostitution are ^{not} opposite my brother's house. I have seen any house numbered 70 on the opposite side of the way from my brother's. When I left my brother's house I went to live out in 42nd street to take care of children in a family named Katzenstein or Butler.

against	Police Justice
John C. McKnight and James G. Keenan.	March 1st, 1883.

Charles K. Lexow, for the people

James Oliver,

Frank K. Keller, for the Defendants.

Minnie Schwartzwald, was now called for cross examination by Mr. Oliver (through the interpreter).

Q You went to live at the butcher's house when at Mr. Katzenstein's last August?

A Yes, sir.

Q You left the butcher's when?

A I remained a month there; then I returned again to my brother in September.

Q How long did you remain with your brother?

A A fortnight; then I went to Mr. Letler who lives in 57th Street between 1st Avenue and Avenue A; he is a Feather

Manufacturer.

Q Did you live in the house with the family or work there in the day time?

A I lived with this man's family, I was nursing the children

Q What month did you go there and when did you leave?

A It was in the month of September I went there and I remained four months; then I returned again to my brother's house, and remained four days.

Q Where did you go to then?

A I went out seeking an intelligence office, to find another place.

Q Well, what intelligence office did you go to?

A It was the office of the Milk business in 5th Street.

Q What do you mean by its being the office of the milk business? What employment office did you go to to seek to get a place?

A I was only seeking an office but I did not find it.

Q What did you say about a place in 5th Street, a milk store?

Dr. St. Albe, the interpreter says:

It was a misunderstanding; I thought she said milk but she says meat; it is a woman who has an intelligence office in 5th Street, that is the place where I went to this woman, and remained a couple of hours; I was still seeking an intelligence office and I went out in the evening at 6 o'clock to find that office, as I had not yet found it.

Q You said you were several days looking for an intelligence office?

A Yes, sir.

Q And where did you go?

A To 52nd Street between 4th and 5th Avenues; I went to go to an office, but I could not find one.

Q What do you mean by 52nd Street between the 4th and 5th Avenues?

A In 52nd Street between the 4th and 5th Avenues, I was riding for the purpose of finding such an office, but I had not yet found it.

Q Didn't you say you were at your brother's in Forsyth Street and you went out four or five days looking for an intelligence office?

A Yes, sir; I have said so; I first took the cars and then I walked in 52nd Street, I went to find an intelligence office there.

Q That is in 52nd street between the 4th and 5th Avenues?

A That is what I just don't know, because I went out to seek for that.

Q For what purpose did you locate yourself in 52nd street between 4th and 5th Avenues? What were you doing on that

A A woman told me that I might go and seek an intelligence office in 52nd street between 4th and 5th Avenues; I do not know the woman's name.

Q Where were you before that?

A I was in 5th Street in the place where this woman told me; she is a German woman.

Q Did you walk up to this woman and ask her for an intelligence office?

A My aunt told me to go and seek an intelligence office in 5th Street; then I went to 5th Street and to the wrong woman, and this woman directed me to go to 52nd street and seek there, then I went; my aunt's name is Davit.

Q How far from your aunt's house is the place where you went to look for an intelligence office?

A Four blocks toward the river.

Q What made you leave your brother's house at night time to look for an intelligence office after 6 o'clock?

A Because I had some business during the day at my aunt's.

Q How do you wish us to understand you, you said you had business at your aunt's during the day, but you left your brother's house after 6 o'clock to look for an intelligence office?

(Counsel for the People objects to the question as being too indefinite; objection sustained).

Q It is true that you left your brother's house after 6 o'clock and went to your aunt's house, and from there went to the place in 5th Street?

A I left my aunt's house.

Q What business did you have at your aunt's.

A I had some sewing at my aunt's.

Q Did you do it?

A Yes, sir.

Q Is that the day that you went to the other woman's in 5th street?

A Yes, sir; and the day I went to 52nd street.

Q Is that the day you left your brother's house after 6 o'clock at night?

A No, I did not leave my brother's house when I was seeking this office, I left my brother's house.

Q What did you mean by saying plainly and distinctly that you left your brother's house after 6 o'clock at night to look for an intelligence office?

A Yes, sir; I said so.

Q What did you mean by it, now you say you did not?

A I said I went to my aunt's; I went to my aunt and I left her house about 5 o'clock, and I went to my brother's house, and near 6 o'clock I started from my brother's house in search of an intelligence office.

Q Where did you go the other days that you spoke about, that you were looking for an intelligence office?

(Question objected to as immaterial and indefinite; objection overruled.)

A I deny that I have said I was several days seeking a place, I was not.

Q (The Court) Are you testifying as to what occurred last Monday week, or as to the time you left the feather place?

A When I left the feather place, that was Saturday; Sunday I remained home, and on Monday evening I went in search of this place, that was the last Monday week; I left the feather place on Saturday, in the month of February.

Q Why did you leave the feather place?

A Because I had spasms of the stomach.

Q How often did you have spasms of the stomach while you were there?

A Twice.

Q How often previous to that, for how long a period?

A This complaint is chronic, I suffered from spasms of the stomach from four or six weeks while in Europe; I cannot say how old I was at the time; when I came out of school I had these spasms in my stomach.

Q Were you eight or nine years of age? Were you so young when you first took them that you do not know?

A I was 14 years of age.

Q Do you wish us to understand that you have been having them for the past 14 years off and on?

A Yes, sir; but I was not all the time sick, but off and on during this time.

Q Now some of those times, did you become unconscious?

A No, sir, I have only the pain in the stomach and can't eat.

Q During those periods of sickness with the stomach, is your head affected?

A No, sir; never.

Q Has not your womb been affected by it for the past two or three years?

A No, sir.

Q Do you know whether your womb is affected or not? Do you know the meaning of the word womb or in what part of your body it is?

A I do not know what a womb is, I do not know in what part of my body it is.

Q Did you ever bleed from your private parts?

A At sixteen my menstruations set in and in the periods between the menstruations I had also bleeding from that part.

Q Before the period of your regular and natural changes, did you have ever bleeding from those parts?

A No, you can write to my parents; I was several times sick and was confined with sickness several times but never lost any blood before that time of sixteen years.

Q How many times did you say you were confined with sickness?

A I was always healthy at home, only for the spasms of my stomach; I was affected and I did not know what it was.

Q What do you mean by saying, "I was confined with sickness several times"?

A I mean by being sick several times, I always mean the same disease, these cramps in the stomach.

Q Does your head now, this moment, trouble you?

A No, sir.

Q Have you a pain in your head now, this moment?

A If so much is said to me I suppose that I will have it.

Q Have you a pain in your head now over your right eye?

A Yes, I have a pain over my right eye.

Q How many male acquaintances, if any, have you made since you came to New York?

A Not one; I have only relatives and I am only speaking to those; I never speak to any unknown man.

Q Is the gentleman who went bail for you a relative?

A He is my cousin.

Q When did you first see this man Keenan?

A I did not see this gentleman at all.

Q Did you ever see him before to-day in your life, anywhere in the world in your life?

A No, sir, never.

Q Never before to-day, now?

A No, sir.

Q Did he ever do anything to you in his life, put his hand upon you or anything?

A No, sir; I do not know him.

Q You say you were in a house on Lexington Avenue where you lost some money and a handkerchief?

A Yes, sir.

(Counsel for Keenan now directed him to stand up and asked the witness, did you ever see him in that house?)

A No, sir.

Mr. Oliver; I have no other questions to ask. I now ask for Keenan's discharge.

Q Could you be mistaken in saying you never saw him before in your life?

A There is no doubt in my mind that I never saw this man in that house.

Mr. Oliver: I have no other questions to ask you.

R E-D I R E C T by Mr. LEXOW.

Q What time of the night was it, that you were in the house corner of 32nd street and Lexington Avenue?

A Half past seven o'clock.

Q Was it dark at that time or light?

A It was a little light, twilight.

Q In what room in the house were you?

A Up stairs, one flight from the street, it was was a front room.

Q Was it dark in that room?

A It was dark.

Q How long after you went into the house were you outside again? How long did you remain in the house?

A Three quarters of an hour.

Q How many people did you see in that house?

A There was no one in the house.

Q Was there a man there?

(Question objected to by the defence; objection sustained).

Q Is there any person present in this room whom you had seen in that house on Monday night a week ago?

(Question objected to; sustained.)

Q Did you go into the house alone?

0002

11

A No, sir.

Q With whom did you go?

A With this big man (McKnight).

Q Now when you got into the house, was there any other man there?

(Objected to; overruled; exception).

Q (The Court) Ask if there was any other person in the house?

A No, sir.

Q Now ask her if she understands the question, if there was any other person in the house, and let her explain her understanding of it.

A I thought that there would be several people there but there was no one there at all.

Q Did you speak in that house with any person other than McKnight?

(Objected to; sustained).

Q When you got into the house, what did you see?

A I saw nothing.

Q Did you see a room?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did you see any chairs?

A There was only one chair.

Q Did you go into any other room?

A No, sir.

12

Q Were you down at the station house on that evening?

A No, sir; they brought me there, a man brought me there.

Q Are there any persons present here whom you saw in the station house?

(Objected to; sustained).

Counsel for the people said he proposed to trace the defendant Keenan there. The court said that from the statement of the policeman there was no doubt but that he had been there.

Q Where have you seen this man McKnight first?

(Objected to as leading; sustained)

Q When you arrived at the corner of 52nd street and Lexington Avenue, who was with you at the time?

A I was alone.

Q From there where did you go before you went into the house?

A I went down 52nd street towards the 4th Avenue.

Q Did you meet anyone?

A Yes, sir; I met that tall man, McKnight.

Q Well now, state what occurred, tell us what took place?

A He commenced to speak to me and I did not understand what he was saying, then he took me by the arm.

Q Well, go on, what did he do and what did you do?

A He took me into the house; I was under the impression that there were people in this house.

that there were people in this house.

Q In what way or manner did he take you?

A He got hold of me by the wrist and brought me to this house?

Q Well, when you got into the house what occurred?

A Then when we came to the house this man unlocked a room and I went to go down, but he still had hold of me.

Q Unlocked the room or unlocked the door, which?

A He unlocked the door and that door led to a room.

Q How did you get into the front door?

A He unlocked the front door with a key.

Q Did he open another door inside of the house?

A Yes, sir; and then he opened a room in the house.

Q Was that room on the same floor, one flight from the street?

A Yes, sir; from the street it was one flight up stairs.

Q Now what did he do then after he opened the door of that that room?

A Then he led me into this room and I was frightened, because I thought there would be people in there.

Q Were there any people in there?

A No, sir.

Q Well, what was then done?

A He commenced to kiss me, and I did not want that.

Q Well, what did you do in regard to stopping it, if anything?

(Objected to)

(The Court) Let her tell the narrative, I will not allow that question.

Mr. Lexow: I desire to show the reluctance of this girl.

The Court: She is telling the story; there is a great deal of emotion in her testimony; she has sensibility, she blushes from time to time; she doesn't require the aid given by this question; she is abundantly able to testify with the aid of the present interpreter; let her tell the story, she tells it very well indeed.

Q When you got into the room what was then done?

The Court: Tell her to state in her own way what took place after he was kissing her; tell her to speak as if she were telling it to her mother.

A Then he went to kiss me and I objected to it; then he sat down on the chair, and he took me on his lap with my limbs apart, one limb to the right and the other to the left; then he put his hands under my wearing apparel, under my dress, and he unbuttoned his pants, I did not know what he wanted to do; then he penetrated my body with a great deal of pain; and while I was hallooing he covered my mouth; and after that was done he opened the house and called up a little man, and I went to step out and he said "no, no." As soon as the small man arrived, he pushed me towards the wall, he threw me to the wall and then went to raise my petticoats and I did not allow it; then he took me into another room, and threw me down upon the floor; then he laid upon me and raised my petticoats; and while this occurred the tall man took possession of my pocketbook and of my handkerchief.

Q Well, what did the little man do to you?

(Objected to; objection sustained).

The court: Let her continue the story.

A He did the same thing as the tall man.

Q Did he penetrate your body?

A He did not do exactly all that the large man did.

Q Did he lay upon you and penetrate your body with his penis?

A Yes, sir; he laid upon me and penetrated with his penis into my body; I could not get up, I was senseless, and they raised me up.

Q What did they do with you?

A Then the little man went to take me again upon the chair and then I halloosed "I don't want"; and the tall man got hold of me by the arm and he returned the pocket book to me and I saw that there was no money in it, and he said

"go on", and I could not walk; then he slapped me upon the back.

Q Well, what occurred after that?

A Then I stopped in front of the house, I could not go further and a boy passed me and I asked him if he could speak German; he saw me crying; then the boy called up several men; these men fetched up the police officer, and I saw that the two men were hidden in the cellar, and I could not go around and so I was led around; the policeman entered the house by the window.

Q Did you go into the house with him?

A They had led me around when the policeman went into the house; I felt bad, I had to be led around and a doctor was sent for.

Q Where did they take you to?

A Into the station house; then the police officer asked me to relate what the man had done, and I said that which they had done; and while I said that I felt so much like fainting that the doctor was called on the scene then they sent a dispatch for my brother, so he might know where I was during the night; I remained over night in the station house on account of my not being able to walk

Q What did the doctor say and do to you?

A The doctor came and examined me, but I do not know what he said; he asked me the question how the handkerchief became full of blood, how it came to be on the handkerchief; then I said to the doctor "I do not know exactly". And when I came home to my brother I discovered on my drawers that they were stained with blood.

Q How did you see any people on the street there when you arrived on the corner of 52nd Street and Lexington Avenue?

A There was no one walking in the street, it was perfectly still and quiet.

Q Describe how he took you and what you did and what he did

The Court: What do you want to know about that?

Mr. Lexow: I want to prove the resistance.

The Court: We have enough of that in the second case; there is enough in the case as far as the rape is concerned; you need not go into that question.

Mr. Lexow: I would like to have it on the record.

The Court: I will allow it.

Q Now I want you to state in what way you went into that inside room from the hall.

The Court: Unless that you intend to prove that this woman is simple, in the sense that the law provides for idiots and persons of that kind, there is proof enough that a rape has been committed.

Mr. Lexow: I desire to show that she went unwillingly into the house and into the room.

The Court: She told us she went in unwillingly, that he put his hand upon her, and she described how it was done. The testimony as to the second assault is sufficient for this examination.

Q Did you have any conversation with Mr. McKnight coming up to the house?

A I had no conversation with him.

Q Did you hear his voice at all?

(Objected to; sustained)

Q When you got to the door, tell me what you did?

(Objected to)

Mr. Lexow: I want to show the degree of resistance which she showed on that occasion.

The Court: I will admit the question on that ground.

Mr. Oliver: It is not competent in law or under the rules of evidence to give it now; it is a rebutting question.

Mr. Lexow: It is for your Honor to say what evidence or acts she displayed on this occasion to show whether she went in with reluctance.

The Court: I have already said that as far as that is concerned, or the alleged crime of rape is concerned, there is sufficient testimony now before us; if the other side rebut that, then you can go all over it again, but we have enough.

08 12

Mr. Tolson: We have enough to connect the second unknown part, if you so call him; but I desire to connect the defendant tonight.

The Court: He is connected with it already.

Q (Mr. Tolson) You have stated that he kissed you, and that you then objected, in what way did you object?

Objected to; objection sustained.

Q (The Court) Ask her what she said and did when she was kissed by the large man who testified went into the room?

A I turned my face away when the attempt was made to kiss me.

Q Did you do anything else, if anything?

A I hallooed.

Mr. Oliver: I think I can honestly now, in view of the uncontradicted statements of this woman, ask for a discharge of the defendant Moran; she denies ever having seen him in the house in Lexington Avenue.

The Court: I do not think we have arrived at the point to discharge your client; it was halfpast seven o'clock at night when she went in there, and she was detained there three quarters of an hour; the officers went in there almost immediately after the occurrence and found three persons in the building.

Mr. Oliver says he would like to ask the witness if she has seen the small man, who had connection with her in the house on that night, since that time until now.

The court: Understand the question clearly, have you seen the man of the second assault since the little man, that is since you left the house?

A. Never.

Q. Are you sure of that?

A. I never saw that man any more.

Q. Would you know him if you were to see him? Do you believe if you were to see him that you would know him?

A. If I saw him again, then I would know.

Q. Did you see him then on that night?

A. No, sir.

The court to a juror: Ask her if on that night when the small man came up stairs or she called up stairs, if at any time when he took her by the arm or threw her down, she saw his face so as to be able to recollect him?

A. No, I did not see his face.

Mr. Keller said he would like to ask the witness one question: I want to ask her if she has a key in her purse to let her out door to wherever she was going, and back again?

00 15

A I had eighty-five cents; they left ten cents in my pocket-book.

The Court: I will not go any further with this examination to-day, because I do not think it proper, she is tired and she is not very strong anyway, she has been nearly three hours on the stand. I will now adjourn the case until the 5th of March at 3 P. M.

A I went up the stoop of this residence, 595 Lexington Avenue, corner of 52nd Street, I rang the door bell, I got no answer, I pulled the parlor window down and raised it up from the bottom, and broke the shutters in and got in through the parlor window; I found this man (Keenan) in the rear part of the house in a closet, the door was open; I found out that there was a friend with him in the house, that there were two there--I asked him where his friend was, and he told me that he did not know; after I got into the place, Officer Murphy came in; we had two small ^{lamps} ~~papers~~ to light and finally they burned out in no time; I asked Keenan if he knew of any light in the house, and he said he thought there was a piece of a candle in the back part of the basement down stairs; and Officer Murphy and I and Keenan went down stairs, found the piece of candle and lit it; I stood at the head of the stairway leading to the cellar; I arrested Keenan and held hold of him while Murphy took the candle and went down into the cellar and brought up McKnight.

Q Did you examine to see if there was anyone else in the house?

A All we searched was the parlor floor, the basement and the cellar.

- A Yes, sir.
- Q Was it dark or light at the time you were there?
- A It was quite dark.
- Q Did you go down or the other officer go down into the cellar?

A Yes, sir; corner of 32nd Street and Lexington Avenue, I do not know the date exactly.

Q Do you know what day of the week?

A No, sir.

Q Well now, state what you did there in your official capacity?

A Word was sent around to the Station House that there was trouble there; I went around and I saw this young lady there crying, she could not talk English, and I called upon a German gentleman to find out the particulars of the case; she told me there were two men in the building; I got the assistance of another officer, a detective, and went into the building.

Q How did you get into the building?

A I went in through the window.

Q Did you make any other attempt to get into the building?

A Yes, sir; we tried to get the door open for 5 or 10 minutes, but no one answered us; we knocked on the door and tried to get in.

Q (The Court) Was there a bell there?

A I do not think there was because we pounded on the door; we got in by the window.

Q Now state what you did?

A We got a light and found one of the men on the parlor floor

Q Which one?

A The little one (~~following~~) (pointing to the defendant Keenan.)

Q Did you have any conversation with him?

A No, I did not, the other officer got hold of him first.

Q Then what did you do?

A The other officer had him and I searched the other part of the house; I went down into the sub-basement and I found this man (McKnight), and I told him to come up stairs along with me.

Q What did you do with him then?

A I took him out and fetched him around to the Station House?

Q About what time was this?

A A quarter past eight or about that time.

Q About how long were you trying to get him to the house?

(Objected to, overruled, exception)

0825

32

A It was not over 15 or 20 minutes.

Q Did you take him directly to the Station House?

A Yes, sir.

Q How long did it take to get there?

A I should think 5 or 6 minutes.

Q Did this girl speak in the English or German language?

A In the German language.

A Yes, sir.

Q Were questions put to her in the German language?

A Yes, sir.

Q Now what questions, in your presence, were given to her?

(Objected to; objection sustained)

A Yes, sir; both of them.

Q Did you see what was taken from them by anyone?

A There was some money taken and a handkerchief.

Q Do you know from whom?

A From that gentleman (pointing to McKnight).

J a c o b T o o k e r, a witness called by the People and sworn, deposes and says:

Q (By Mr. Lexow) Are you connected with the 19th Precinct as detective?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did you ever see this complainant before?

A Yes, sir, I first saw her on the Southeast corner of Lexington Avenue and 62nd Street on the 18th of February; I went to the Station House about 11 o'clock, and the sergeant sent me out to go around to 62nd Street and Lexington Avenue; I went around and found the complainant standing at the steps going down to the basement gate; there were people there talking with her, Germans, and I asked her what was the matter, but I could not understand her.

Q Give us the information you obtained there?

A Officer Lane came along there and I told him the information I got, and I told him to try the parlor windows; he tried the door first and afterwards the windows; he got in through the windows; in two or three minutes afterwards I saw him come to the window with a man with a hat on, the smallest one of these men here (pointing to Kepner) shortly afterwards, five or ten minutes, they came to the basement gate with the two men.

0020

Q You remained outside?

A Yes, sir; there was a ladder leading from the second story window to the stable in the rear; then there was quite a crowd collected, and I sent this girl to the Station House and I told her to stay there until we came around; we went to the Station House, and when we got in there she was asked something or another in German.

Q Do you understand German?

A No, sir; she pointed to these two men when we came in, the biggest one and the other one.

Q About what time was it, officer?

A Well, I got to the Station House about 6 o'clock, and from there we went to 22nd Street and back again; I think it was 8.15 when we got back.

Q Was the complainant in the Station House when you returned?

A Yes, sir.

Q Did you examine the prisoners in the Station House?

A Yes, sir; I searched McKnight and I found on him two or three pocket handkerchiefs, a napkin, $1.50 in money and some keys.

Q Describe the handkerchiefs?

A Two of them we gave back, one of them was identified and had the initials of this girl on it; she claimed it.

0029

35

Q Do you know what initials they were?

A "E. W." I think.

(The handkerchief referred to was now produced, it is marked "E. W."; the money was also produced)

CROSS EXAMINATION.

Q Do you know what the interpreter said to her, or what any person said to this woman, before she pointed her finger at these two men?

A No, sir.

Jacob T. J. J.

Mr. Oliver: I move that that part of the testimony of the witness be struck out, where he says that she pointed to the two men.

The Court: We do not know what she said.

THE DAY WE CELEBRATE!

St. Patrick's Day, March 17th.

THE DAY WE CELEBRATE.

To-day, old songs, old scenes, old friends and old recollections occupy an affectionate corner in the Irish heart, wherever tyranny has consigned us throughout the broad expanse of the universe.

Stripping St. Patrick's day of its religious associations, each successive anniversary is heralded with an indescribable something, that touches a pathetic chord in every Celtic bosom, independent of rank or station.

In the lovely solitude of the Exile's humble garret, as amid the blaze of mirth and revelry, every vacancy of imagination is transformed into some familiar verdant spot of long ago, and reechoed from the neighboring church yard.

Every pastime of youth is re-enacted with an athletic buoyancy of yore unparalleled. The village dance, the hurling, the leaping, the wrestling, etc., all come crowding upon the memory, until the hot tears, responsive to the command of nature, come trickling down our cheeks, and sympathetically remind us that it is all a dream.

There is indeed, some endearing spell surrounding Erin, that chains us to her with such imperishable dissolution through sunshine or storm; and the murkier and darker the clouds of adversity and oppression loom over her, the warmer and stronger grow our love and aspiration to elevate her as a nation among the nations of the earth.

The wanderers from other lands, as soon as the longings of those endearing friends they left behind have given way to the attractions of exile, settle down with resignation to the decree of fate. Bright faces grow up around the newly established homestead, and what before seemed thorny and desolate brightens up with the odorous allurements of flowery contentment. The past seldom ventures obtrusion upon the sunny moments of the present.

To us, victims of an abhorrent craft, wherever allotted by destiny, our hearts still cling with renewed devotion to the motherland that bore us. The sun has lost half its brightness, the fields unadorned with myriads of glittering buttercups, does not possess the same pleasing verdancy; in a word, every artistic effort of nature to induce us from our sad yet joyous recollections are unavailing.

We may encourage and appreciate the harmless enjoyments of youth, even join with them, smile with them, sing with them, but the pleasure is only momentary; it only awakens sorrowful remembrances, and we steal across the foamy abyss that shuts out all we hold sacred to cast one loving look at the dismantled cot by Fergus, Sluir or Bann.

St. Patrick's day goes and comes only to find us the more tenacious to kin, tradition and home-land, from which we can never be alienated.

Is Ireland then indeed all our fancy paints her? Is she worthy of all this mental strain and unrequited devotion? Is she deserving of our "felons' sufferings and our martyrs' blood?"

Oh, yes! She needs not the poet's pen, nor the rosy touches of the orator's eloquence to endear her to us. She is the shrine of every brilliant virtue; the cradle of unselfish patriotism; the nurse of charity, learning and Christianity—in brief, she is the reality of dreams, tears and prayers.

"First flower of the Earth,
And first gem of the Sea."

HUGH CASSIDY.

We call attention to the cut on another page of the large wholesale establishment of Mr. Hugh Cassidy, on the corner of Washington and Gensworth Streets. He is doing an extensive trade through this State and New Jersey, and has considerable trade South and West.

It is needless for us to recommend him to Irish friends in the Grocery or Liquor trade, as he is too well known among them as a true and staunch Irishman.

Mr. Cassidy has branch stores in Brooklyn and Jersey City.

SCHOLES BROTHERS,

132 & 181 First Ave., and 370 Ninth Ave., having put in a fresh accession of teas, sugars, fruits, &c., specially invite the attention of their friends and the public. They are noble examples of Irish tact and perseverance, whose success in their adopted land has not alienated them from home and home-land.

JAMES HIGGINS

Grocer, 1132 Second Avenue, enjoys an enviable trade. He is a splendid specimen of Irish mould and stature. He has the good will and support of a large circle of friends, who speak of him as being a man upright and honorable almost to a fault in his dealings, which accounts for the extensive trade which he is driving in that locality.

QUITE A DROP.

Last Saturday evening a lady called at one of the great cheap cash Grocery and Flour stores of Scholes Brothers, and asked a salesman if he could sell a good barrel of Flour for nine dollars. No man was the reply, but we can sell you a barrel of the best family Flour in New York for $9.90. That's quite a drop from the nine dollars I paid in an up-town grocery store, said the enquirer. After I had made my purchase I was told of your extremely low prices, and here comes a friend of mine who will be glad to SAVE THREE DOLLARS by dealing with you. The above conversation suggests a more prominent announcement than has heretofore been made of Scholes Brothers, specialties, a good bbl of family Flour $5.40 to $5.90; choice $6.40; very best family Flour, $6.90 per bbl. Choice black and mixed Teas, 30c., extra choice 40c., very best 50c. Scholes Bro's Cream Java Coffee, best in the world; Splendid Coffee, 17 and 20c. lb.

Finest selections of Dairy and Creamery Butter, retailed at wholesale prices; and all kinds of fine family and staple groceries at astonishing low prices.

One Milkman who had a Conscience.

A young man who has long driven the milk wagon of one of the oldest established dairies of this country and has supplied milk to its customers for years, yesterday early, came to his employer, and to his great surprise, resigned his situation. He had no other place, had no complaint to make, was attached to his employer, liked the business, and all that, but resign he would. It turned out that this was the cause: "Twelve days the milk, whose duty it is to fill the used cans of that day, poured them full of water as they stood in the wagon, and left them to stand twenty-four hours to sweeten as is the rule. Before daybreak, yesterday the driver brought out his team and hitched up to the wagon containing the cans of water colored by the remains of milk, instead of to a second wagon in which the fresh milk had been placed for him. Obnoxious of his error he drove over his route and served all the customers with milk-colored water. When, later in the day, he discovered his error, he resigned rather than face the battery of the complaints he knew was ready for him. "If I can go up to a cannon's mouth," said he, "and let my eyes again on a house where I served that water." His employer enjoys the joke hugely, and was busy all day yesterday setting things to rights and explaining the error between his gasps for breath from too much laughter. Some of his customers remarked that they had noticed the milk wasn't quite as rich as usual.

A GEM FOR EVERY MONTH.

JANUARY.
By her who in this month is born
No gem save garnets should be worn;
They will insure her constancy,
True friendship and fidelity.

FEBRUARY.
The February born will find
Sincerity and peace of mind;
Freedom from passion and from care,
If they the Anachlyst will wear.

MARCH.
Who on this world of ours their eyes
In March first open shall be wise;
In days of peril firm and brave,
And wear a bloodstone to their grave.

APRIL.
She who from April dates her years
Diamonds should wear, lest bitter tears
For vain repentance flow; this stone
Emblem of innocence is known.

MAY.
Who first beholds the light of day
In Spring's first flowery month of May,
Shall be true to a happy wife
And owes to June her day of birth.

JUNE.
Who comes with Summer to his birth,
With ring of Apsara on her hand,
Can health, wealth, and long life command.

JULY.
The glowing Ruby should adorn
Those who in warm July are born;
Then will they be exempt and free
From love's doubts and anxiety.

AUGUST.
Wear a Sardonyx, or for those
No conjugal felicity;
The August born, without that stone,
Must live unloved and lone.

SEPTEMBER.
A maiden born when Autumn leaves
Are rustling in September's breeze,
A place on her brow should bind,
Cure diseases of the mind.

OCTOBER.
October's child is born for woe.
And life's vicissitudes must know;
But lay an Opal on her breast,
And hope will hush those words to rest.

NOVEMBER.
Who first comes to this world below
With dear November's fog and snow,
Should prize the Topaz's amber hue—
Emblem of friends and lovers true.

DECEMBER.
If cold December gave you birth,
The month of snow and ice and mirth,
Place on your hand a Turquoise line—
Success will bless whate'er you do.

case of
John McHally

filed March

0856

The People
 vs.
 John McHally } Court of General Sessions, Part I.
 Indictment for burglary in the third degree and } Before Recorder Smyth. March 22. 1883 receiving stolen goods. Paul J. Brandt, sworn and examined. My place of business is 1686 Broad way and Fifty Third St.; it is on the ground floor, tailoring business; on the 7th of Dec.
 last I closed up the place, the window with ^{wire} screens and the door with a padlock.
 at 9 o'clock at night. There was property missed the next morning which was there the night before - consisting of pantaloons, overcoats and vests, the whole amount was worth a hundred dollars. The officer aroused me from sleep at 2 o'clock the next morning and I went there. I saw the window in Fifty Third St open; it was pressed through the bolts lying loose on the bottom of the window. Afterwards saw in a pawn shop in Tenth Ave. a pair of military pants which my brother saw and which I identified as a portion of the property which I missed the next morning. They were brought up to the store by my brother and the detective McAdle. I have the pantaloons here (pantaloons produced) You could find the pants in a thousand. There is a certain mark on the back.

0857

Thomas Reilly sworn and examined. I know the prisoner. I saw these pantaloons before in a merchant tailor's store in some place up town. I was brought there by two detectives McAdle and another man; they took me and the prisoner McSally. I had a pawn ticket representing those pants. Where did you get that pawn ticket from? I bought it of John McSally, the prisoner between the 15th and the latter end of last January as near as I can recollect. Where were you when you bought it? I was in 461 Greenwich St. I went to this place with the pawn ticket and I was arrested. You told the officer how you had come by the pawn ticket? Yes sir. The office was kept by a man named Lavery. That is the pawn ticket (shown) I did not see the pantaloons at all when I was in the pawn shop. Cross Examined. I know the prisoner over a year and a half; he generally gathers raps. I don't know anything detrimental to his character; he has a good reputation in the house where he stops. I have never heard any one talk of him one way or the other. I purchased the pawn ticket from the prisoner. How much did you pay for it? I promised him ten cents and I gave it to him inside of a week afterwards. But did you come to buy it, did he make any inducement to you to buy it? He simply came and asked me if I would not buy a pawn ticket. I asked him what it was for and he told me. What did he say? He said it was for a pair of pants. How much was advanced on the pants do you know? Fifty five cents on the ticket. I was lying upon my bed at 461 Greenwich St. when he gave me the ticket. I kept the ticket for over a month before I went to the pawn office. Henry Mc Ardle sworn. I got the pawn ticket from Keilly. He told me he got it from Mc Nally, who could be found in a lodging house near Greenwich St. Mc Nally told me he bought it from McGowan in Sixtieth St. I knew there were two brothers and I asked him which one. He said the ~~best~~ next the eldest. I got both of the McGowans and brought them to the station house. I brought Mc Nally out and then showed the McGowans to him and he said neither of them did it; he then said he got it from somebody in the street. Heard him give this answer to the question which the Magistrate put

0050

0859

"I bought the pawn ticket which I gave Reilly from a person. I do not know his name. I gave five cents for the ticket." I went down to Lavery's. I got the pantaloons the next day after they were stolen; they were stolen on the 7th and I got them on the 8th of Dec. the brother of the complainant was with me and identified the pants. Cross Examined. This pair of pantaloons is the only portion of the stolen property that I have been able to recover. Paul J. Brandt recalled. I saw the prisoner in my place two or three weeks before the 7th of Dec. last; he asked me if I had a pair of pants to give. I told him we did not have anything to give away. John M. Kelly sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I am a junk man employed by Mr. Duffy for over a year; his place is corner of 5th Ave. and 7th St. I bought this pawn ticket about the middle of January from a boy on the hill as I was going round to gather rags and gave him five cents for it. I afterwards sold it to Reilly for ten cents. I know nothing about breaking into the complainant's store and was not with anybody who did it. I was never arrested before for any offence.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny. He was sent to the Penitentiary for six months.
