AND A JURY.

TRIED, NEW YORK, DECEMBER 20, 1893.

INDICTED FOR GRAND LARCENY IN THE SECOND DEGREE.

INDICTMENT FILED DECEMBER 8TH, 1893.

APPEARANCES:

ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY THOMAS J. BRADLEY.

FOR THE PEOPLE.

WILLIAM HECHT, ESQ., and C.J. GOLDSMITH, ESQ.,

FOR THE DEFENSE.

CAROLINE KEIL testified that she lived at 29 Cannon Street. On November 29th she, the witness, saw the defendant on 14th Street, between Broadway and 5th Avenue. It was about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. She had money in a pocketbook in her pocket. She was showing two children the stores, and she felt some one at her pocket, and, looking around, saw the defendant, who ran away. She screamed, and people followed the defendant and he was arrested and brought back. She missed her pocketbook, which contained 45 or 50 cents. She, the witness, identified the defendant, as the man who was standing beside her when she felt a hand at her pocketbook, and who ran away. She, the witness, did not notice whether other men were near at the time. She turned around quickly and saw the defendant who ran away.

In

the witness testified that she saw her pocketbook about five minutes before the alleged robbery, while she was in No.840 Broadway, near 13th Street. She just walked around from there into 14th Street. She, the witness, did not see the defendant put his hand in her pocket, but she felt a hand at her pocketbook, and, turning around quickly, saw the defendant right next to her, and he ran away. There was no other man near her at that time.

CORNELIUS MITCHELL testified that he is a policeman, and was on duty, at 14th Street and University Place, on the afternoon of November 29th, last. When he, the witness, saw the defendant, he was walking, at an ordinary gait, on 13th Street, between 5th Avenue and University Place. A person told him the, witness, that a woman had her pocketbook stolen, and there were "a few fellows" running down University Place, and he, the witness, ran down with them, with the crowd. When the crowd got near the defendant, some of them said, that he stole a pocketbook, and he, the witness, arrested the defendant, and took him around to the complainant, who identified him. He, the defendant, denied the charge made against him.

CHARLES S. TERRY, testified that he is a truckman and rigger, and lives at 41 Spring Street. About 4 o'clock, in the afternoon of the 29th of November, he, the witness, was on 13th Street, between 5th Avenue and University place. While there, the defendant came running around the corner, and almost ran up against him, the witness, who had just about three-quarters of an hour before come out of a hospital, where he had been under treatment for a broken collar bone. After the defendant turned the corner, he stopped, and took a pocketbook from his pocket and a white-handled knife, and examined them, and twice went to the corner and looked around, as if looking for somebody. Then he started towards 5th Avenue, and, when down the block about half way, he threw away something. He, the witness, followed, and picked up two keys, and gave them to an officer, whom he met, at the same time describing to the officer the peculiar actions of the strange man. Then he, the witness, went down 14th Street to 6th Avenue, and saw the defendant near Macy's. The defendant, upon seeing the witness, ran down 6th Avenue to 13th Street, up 13th Street to 5th Avenue, and there he, the witness, lost sight of him until about three-quarters of an hour later, when he, the defendant, was arrested. The officer pursued the defendant over the route just described.

the witness testified that the keys were marked "Captain" somebody, "United States Army or Navy. He, the witness, had never been convicted of crime. He, the witness, is, at present, working for Harden Bros. He also worked for Charles Britton, for three months, and for Joyce, about a year; also for Mosler & Co. for a year. He, the witness, did not see the defendant put his hand in the woman's pocket. He, the witness, first saw the defendant at about a quarter past 3 on November 29th. It was a black pocketbook, with a clasp to it, that he saw in the defendant's possession. It was a steel or tin clasp. The defendant opened the pocketbook and took something out of it, and then put the pocketbook back in his pocket. He stood still, about 2 or 3 minutes, while he did that. Then he started towards 6th Avenue. When the defendant had the pocketbook in his hand he was standing near the corner of 13th Street and University place. The reason that he, the witness, followed the defendant was, because his actions were suspicious. After picking up the keys, he, the witness, looked around for an officer, and, upon finding one, handed him the keys and told him of his suspicions. that the man might be a pickpocket.

THE DEFENSE.

DAVID KAUFFMAN, the DEFENDANT, testified that he is 19 years of age, and had been in this country about three months. He is a tailor, and worked at 141 Eldridge Street. He, the defendant, did not know the name of his employer. It is an English name. He, the defendant, on the day in question, was in 13th Street, going towards Broadway, on his way to 120th Street, where a tailor was wanted. He did not run around into 13th Street. He was lighting a cigar when the policeman arrested him. He did not see anybody running. There were a number of people present when he was arrested. He, the defendant, did not stop in 13th Street and University Place and open a pocketbook and take out something and put the pocketbook in his pocket again. He did not have a pocketbook. He had $1.90 in his pocket. That amount was found upon him when he was searched in the station-house. He had never been convicted of crime.

In

the witness testified that at the time of his arrest he lived at 51 Orchard Street. He was going to 127th Street to get work at I. Bräuenstein's tailor shop.

He, the defendant, got the address from his cousin, Shapiro, who lives at 161 Suffolk Street. He, the defendant, had been out of work 4 or 5 weeks. When he came to this country he had about $200. He, the defendant, had not been on 14th Street on the day of the robbery. He, the defendant, was with a young man named Reitman, on that day. Reitman left him, the defendant, when he, the defendant, entered the car at Houston Street, and he was not with him when he the defendant was arrested. Reitman did not know anything about the alleged robbery, as he, the defendant, at the time of getting on the car at Houston Street, left Reitman. He, the defendant, did not throw away the keys, as one witness testified.

JOSEPH REITMAN, testified that he is 16, and had been in this country one year, and had known the defendant 6 or 7 years, and went with him to school in the "old country." The defendant's character is good. He the witness, remembered that the defendant said he was going to 127th Street, for work, but did not know the way, and he, the witness, showed him to the car ---a Broadway car, at 12th or 13th Street.

In

the witness testified that he and the defendant got on a car at Stanton Street, and rode across Stanton Street to Broadway, and got a transfer ticket, and went to 12th or 13th Street, and got off and went home. He, the witness, testified, again, that he, but not the defendant, got on that car. He, the witness, told the defendant to go to 59th Street with the Broadway car, and then to go to 6th Avenue, and then take the train uptown. He, the witness, never heard anybody discuss the defendant's character.

CAROLINE KEIL, the COMPLAINANT, being recalled, testified that the pocketbook was a brown pocketbook; it was not new. It had the same kind of a catch or lock as the one shown to her in court.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS*Samuel Kaufman*

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. My reasons for wishing to withdraw are that the defendant is the support of a family. Since the arrest he has express sorrow for his act, and informs me that he had been drinking ~~very~~ very heavy at the time and that he did not realize what he was ^{doing}. He has also promised to repair the damage done —

As I do not believe he was ever arrested before I respectfully request permission to withdraw

Court of Oyer and Terminer

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Robert Keenan

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this Indictment accuse Robert Keenan

of the crime of Perjury, committed as follows:

Heretofore, to wit: on Tuesday, the seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three (the same being the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday of the said month of November), there was held a general election throughout the State of New York and in and throughout the said City and County of New York;

And on the day and in the year aforesaid, and at the said election, the said Robert Keenan, late of the City and County, being a resident of the Twenty-sixth Election District of the Eighth Assembly District of the said City and County, and a voter entitled to vote at the said election in the said election district, for the purpose of voting at the said election, did personally present himself at the duly designated polling place of the said election in and for the said election district, the polls of the said election in and for the said election district being then open, and to and before Thomas

McMahon, John A. Murphy and Charles J. Rague, then and there being the Inspectors of Election of the said election district, at the said election, at a meeting of the said Inspectors of Election then being duly held in the said polling place for the purposes of the said election.

And the said Robert Keenan did then and there desire and require of the said Inspectors of Election that he might select a person for the purpose of assisting him to receive and prepare his ballots, and who should be allowed to pass within the guard rail of the said polling place and receive his official ballots, and enter one of the voting booths of the said polling place, with him, and there assist him in preparing his ballot.

And thereupon he, the said Robert Keenan was then and there in due form of law sworn, and did take his corporal oath, by and before the said Inspectors of Election, touching his right to select such person to assist him in receiving and preparing his ballots as aforesaid, they, the said Inspectors of Election, then and there having full and competent power and authority to administer the said oath to the said Robert Keenan, in that behalf.

And the said Robert Keenan being so sworn as aforesaid, upon his oath aforesaid, before the said Inspectors of Election, then and there feloniously, wilfully, knowingly and corruptly, did falsely swear, declare and say, that by reason of defective eyesight he, the said Robert Keenan was then and there unable to receive or prepare his ballots without assistance.

Whereas, in truth and in fact he, the said Robert Keenan was not by reason of defective eyesight then and there unable to receive or prepare his ballots without assistance, as he then and there well knew.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid do say that the said Robert Keenan in manner and form aforesaid, feloniously, wilfully, knowingly, corruptly and falsely, did commit wilful and corrupt perjury; against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

Flouma (alias Bertha) Kobrin, being duly sworn, deposes and says: I reside at 210 Madison Street in the City of New York, and am the wife of Haim-Isaac (alias Issay) Kobrin, to whom I was married in or about the month of July 1890 at the City of Mogilev, Government of Mogilev, Russia, where we lived together for about a year.

In or about the month of May 1891 my said husband left the house saying that he had to go to a neighboring village on business, and has never since returned home, nor have I heard anything of him till about 5 months after he had abandoned me as above. In the month of November 1891 my father-in-law, then residing at Vitebsk, Government of Vitebsk, Russia, transmitted to me at the aforesaid City of Mogilev the annexed letter written to him by his son and my aforesaid husband in his own handwriting, with which I am very well familiar, from which said letter I for the first time learned that he was at the time in the U. S. A., that he abandoned me forever, and that he was courting another young woman. In about seven months thereafter I received from a certain Mendel Parkin, now residing at 11 ~~Brooklyn~~ ^{Pike St.} in the said City of New York, another letter informing me that he was present at the marriage ceremony of my husband to a young lady presumably the one that arrived together with him from Russia and referred to in the aforesaid letter of his herewith annexed. I am informed that soon after his second marriage he moved to Amsterdam, N.Y., where he has been residing ever since. My husband has not sent me any money ever since he abandoned me, nor has he obtained any divorce from me. The issue of our said marriage is one child, named Sarah Gillya, now of 2 years & six months of age. I have been in this country about 3 weeks, and have very little means to support myself and child.

A P P E A R A N C E S.

FOR THE PEOPLE, ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY BARTOW S. WEEKS.

FOR THE DEFENDANT, MR. MARKS

SOLOMON PEYSER, a witness for the people, sworn testified:

I am a real estate agent and collector in this City. I have charge of the premises No. 135 Orchard St., in this City, for the David Meyer Brewing Co., who own those premises. On the 25th of November this year those premises were vacant; previous to that time they had been occupied by a saloon. There were a number of chairs in the basement of those premises belonging to the David Meyer Brewing Co., I was in that saloon on the 23rd day of November at about half past nine o'clock in the morning; I noticed the condition of the trap-door leading from the cellar into the saloon; I returned to that saloon on the afternoon of the 25th of November; upon entering it I found that the trap-door had been broken open and a number of chairs belonging to the firm whom I represent, had been taken out of the saloon; 250 second-handed chairs valued at $.60 or $.65 a piece had been taken from this place. I reported the matter to the police, a detective was put upon the case and I finally located some of the property in a second-handed store in Essex Street. I was able to identify the chairs as part of the chairs that had been taken out of this saloon about the 25th of November.

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

- Q. What had you to do with these chairs? A. They were in my charge as agent.
- Q. What is your business? A. Real Estate Agent.
- Q. Do you represent the David Meyer Brewing Co.? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You did not own these chairs personally? A. No sir.
- Q. You are attached to the Fourth District Court? A. Yes sir.
- Q. In what capacity? A. I am a marshall connected with that Court, that is, I am an assistant to a marshall.
- Q. Your duties allow you to serve summonses and other papers signed by the court? A. Yes sir.

Q. How long have you been connected with the Fourth District Court as a marshall? A. Eight years.

Q. Where were those chairs? A. They were in the saloon on the first and second floor.

Q. Where is the saloon? A. At the ground floor of No. 50 Essex Street.

Q. Have you any authority from that company to take charge of that place? A. Yes sir, I have a letter in my pocket.

Q. Will you produce it? A. Yes sir, here is the letter.

Q. Did you lock this place up? A. Yes sir, I securely locked the door.

being sworn testified

I arrested the defendant, Jacob Krinsky on the 27th of November. I found him standing in Prince Street; I did not say anything to him at first; a little boy came over and pointed him out to me as one of the men who had stolen some chairs from this place in Orchard Street; I went over to him and placed him under arrest; I told him he was under arrest charged with stealing some furniture from this store; he said I didn't take it alone; I said, well you had better come to the station-house any how. All this was said on the way going to the station-house. I charged him with stealing the furniture and he admitted it. He told me he had sold it to a man in Grand St., named Gordon and another man in Essex Street; he said he was not alone in this transaction, that he helped some other men to take the chairs out of the basement; he told me that he got Three Dollars and some odd cents for the chairs which he sold in Grand Street.

CROSS-EXAMINATION.

- Q. This prisoner has spoken English to you? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Where was it you had the conversation with him? A. Going to the station-house and in the station-house.
- Q. He told you that he had stolen these chairs? A. Yes sir, he said he and some boys took them out and took them around to this place in Canal Street; he said that there was a man at a place in Essex Street who directed the boys what to do.
- Q. Did he tell you that some of the boys had stolen these chairs? A. No sir.
- Q. Did he tell you how much he had received for selling these chairs? A. Three Dollars and some odd cents he secured from the man in Grand Street.
- Q. How long have you known Peyser? A. Four or five years I guess.
- Q. You were the officer that made the arrest? A. Yes sir.
- Q. That was when? A. On the 27th of November.
- Q. Since that time have you met Peyser? A. Yes sir, I met him in Court here that is all.

JACOB KRINSKY, the defendant, sworn in his own behalf, testified:

I am eighteen years of age; I have heard the people testify against me in this case; I did not steal the chairs from the premises in Orchard Street. On the 25th of November I met a boy who told me that if I wanted to make some money to go around to No. 50 Essex Street, and there I would find a man who wanted me to do some business. I went around to No. 50 Essex Street and I found there a man who told me that if I would carry these chairs for him to Canal Street he would pay me for doing it; there were two other boys carrying the chairs; I went to the place in Orchard Street, and I took and carried four chairs; the other boys carried the balance of the chairs to this place in Canal Street. After leaving the chairs in Canal St., I returned to No. 50 Essex Street and gave to the man $3.50 which I had received from Mr. Gordon; he then gave me twenty cents and each of the other boys received twenty cents for work that they had done in carrying the chairs. Three Dollars and a half is all the money I received from Mr. Gordon in Grand Street for the payment of these chairs. I do not remember giving him any receipt when he handed me over that money.

CROSS EXAMINATION.

- Q. Do you know the name of the man who gave you these chairs? A. No sir.
- Q. Do you know where to find him? A. Yes sir, in Essex Street, but I do not know the number.
- Q. How many days did you take these chairs out of that place? A. One day.
- Q. What day was that? A. On a Monday.
- Q. Were you there on Saturday or Sunday? A. No sir.
- Q. Was it down in the basement? A. Yes sir, it was in the basement.
- Q. Was there a man down in the basement who handed the chairs up to you? A. Yes sir.
- Q. You used to work in that place as a bar-tender, didn't you? A. Yes sir.
- Q. Did you see any of those chairs down in that basement when you worked there? A. No sir.
- Q. Where were you engaged when you worked there? A. Upstairs.
- Q. What was kept in the cellar when you worked there? A. Furniture.
- Q. That was there at the time you worked there? A. No sir, there was nothing in the cellar at that time, the cellar was empty.

- Q. How many chairs did you take out? A. Four chairs.
- Q. You took those around to Mr. Gordon on Canal Street?
- A. Yes sir.
- Q. Who helped you take the chairs around? A. There were two other boys whose names I don't know, they each received 20 cents a piece from this man who gave me the 20 cents.
- Q. Did you give Mr. Gordon a receipt? A. No sir.
- Q. Do you know how to write your name? A. No sir, I cannot write anything in English, I can neither read nor write English.
- Q. How much money did you get from Mr. Gordon? A. I believe I got $2.70.
- Q. You didn't sign your name in the presence of Mr. Gordon to a piece of paper when he gave you $3.50? A. No sir, I did not.
- Q. Will you look at the paper which is now shown you, and say that that is your signature? A. No sir, I don't think that I ever wrote that, I cannot write in English.

ADOLPH LINDER, a witness for the people,
sworn testified:

I am in the marble business in number 49
Essex Street. My place is nearly opposite the premises number 50 Essex Street. On Sunday the twenty-sixth of November of this year, I saw this boy Jacob Krinsky at about three o'clock in the afternoon. I saw him on the sidewalk. I passed number 48 and I saw him carrying some chairs. There were a few chairs standing on the sidewalk in front of number 50 Essex Street. I did not see any other boys around there at the time. I did not see any man. The defendant was the only person whom I saw handling any chairs on that day.

On Monday, the twenty-seventh of November of this year, I saw this boy, Jacob Krinsky, at about the same time of the day, three o'clock in the afternoon. He was at the same place as he had been the day before. He had two chairs. When I saw him I went after Mr. Peyser, the agent of the premises and told him what I had seen. The boy was afterwards arrested. I positively identify the boy as the one whom I saw taking these chairs out of the premises referred to.

LOUIS GREEN, a witness for the people,
sworn testified:

On one Sunday, I saw him carrying up some chairs. I saw him first at number 47 Essex Street at about half past three o'clock in the afternoon. He called me over and asked me if I wanted to make 10 cents. I said yes. Then he told me to take two chairs and carry them over in Canal Street, to put them on the sidewalk and wait there until he came. I did so. When he came he took the chairs to a store on Canal Street and as soon as he came out he gave me 10 cents. I did not see any other man present. The defendant is the only man with whom I had any dealings in reference to these chairs.

JACOB GORDON, a witness for the people,
sworn testified:

I deal in old furniture on Canal Street. On Sunday, the twenty-sixth of November, I saw the defendant. He came into my place of business in Canal Street between three and four o'clock. He brought in eight chairs. The chairs were not in good condition; that is, the frames of them were in pretty good condition. He said that he wanted $5.00 for them, I told him that they were not worth it - $5.00 - but if he would come with them to-morrow, I would see how much I would give him for them. I told him they were not worth more than $3.50. He sold them to me.

I asked him if he was willing to give me a receipt for the money and he said all right I will give you a receipt.

A gentlemen next door is a notary public, and I took the defendant in there and had him write out the receipt which I now produce before the jury. I am positive that the written signature to this receipt was written by the defendant in my presence and in the presence of the Notary Public. It simply says that the defendant has received from Jacob Gordon, the sum of $3.50 for eight chairs.

I have never seen the defendant before and knew nothing about him.

The Jury returned a verdict convicting the defendant of the crime of grand larceny in the second degree.

Of the City and County of New York.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

Against

WILLIAM H. KUBIE.

THE GRAND JURY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK, by this indictment accuse William H. Kubie of the crime of omitting and neglecting to perform a duty required of him by the election law as a poll clerk, at an election, committed as follows:-

Heretofore, to wit: on Tuesday the seventh day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, (the same being the Tuesday next succeeding the first Monday of the said month of November) there was held a general election throughout the State of New York and in and throughout the said City and County of New York, and on the day and in the year aforesaid, and at the said election, the said William H.
Kubie late of the City and County aforesaid, was a poll clerk of the ^{twenty-sixth} ~~said~~ election district ^{of the Eighth Assembly District of said City and County}, duly appointed, qualified and then and there acting as such and then and there kept one of the poll lists of and for the said election district, and was present in the polling place thereof during the said election.

And on the day and in the year aforesaid, divers voters of the said election district, to wit: Eugene

White, Edward J. Scanlon, Walker Colbert, John T. Hall, Robert Hopkins, Antonio Lafronia, John Morris, John Murray Henry Oake, Alexander Phillips, Joseph Jefferson, Jesse V. Jackson, James H. Hall, Martin Higgins, Henry Stannard, Maurice Ward, Robert Keenan, Patrick Roche, John Wilson, and divers other persons to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, received the assistance of other persons in the voting booths of the said polling place in the preparation of their ballots, such voters having sworn before the Inspectors of Election of the said Election District to certain reasons for requiring such assistance.

And the said William H. Kubie being such poll clerk as aforesaid, it then and there was his duty to make a memorandum ⁱⁿ of the said poll list so kept by him as aforesaid, and of every instance of a voter receiving such assistance of another person in a voting booth of the said polling place in the preparation of his ballot, stating the name of such voter, the substance briefly of the reasons requiring such assistance as sworn to by the voter, and the name of the person rendering such assistance, and such duty was then and there enjoined upon him the said William H. Kubie, by the election law.

Nevertheless, the said William H. Kubie well knowing the premises, did then and there feloniously omit, refuse and neglect to perform the said duty, and did then and there feloniously omit to make a memorandum ⁱⁿ ^{said} of the poll list of every instance of a voter receiving such assistance as aforesaid, in the manner, and stating the matters

Whereas the said Ernest Doberzig is desirous to become a shareholder and employee of said Company

Now this agreement is such that the said Charles Kuenzel will employ the said Ernest Doberzig at the New York City branch shop of the said company as Machinist at a salary of Fifteen dollars per week and pay the same in manner following viz: Twelve $\frac{50}{100}$ dollars, in cash on each and every Saturday night during the term of his employment and the remaining $\frac{30}{100}$ dollars to be credited to his account with said Company and used and applied in the payment of 200 shares at \$ $\frac{50}{100}$ per share of the capital stock of said Company.

And the said Ernest Dobenzig hereby agrees to work ten hours daily except on Saturday when seven hours viz: 7 A.M. to 3 P.M. shall constitute a day's work.

And the said Ernest Dobenzig has this day purchased Fifty shares of the Capital stock of said Company at Five dollars per share; the same having been assigned transferred and delivered to him; he having paid for ~~thirty~~ shares in cash and balance of twenty (20) shares to be charged against him in his account with said Company.

It is mutually agreed between the parties hereto that a thirty days notice in writing of either party to the other desiring to terminate this agreement shall be deemed sufficient. And in case of such termination the said Ernest Dobenzig shall be at liberty to retain such certificates of stock or return the same to the said Charles Kuenzel and receive their face value in cash together with the amount found to his credit in his account with said Company.

In witness whereof, the parties hereto have hereunto set their hands and seals the day and year first above written.

City and County } ss.
of New York,

of No. 882 Myrtle Avenue Brooklyn, aged 48 years, occupation brass worker being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 4th day of October 1893, at the City of New York, in the County of New York, the deponent was induced by the fraudulent & false statements made by one Charles Kuenzel to deponent, to give up and deliver until the said Charles Kuenzel the sum of One hundred and fifty Dollars, lawful money of the U. S.

under the following circumstances to wit:

The deponent was induced by an advertisement in a German paper called "Volk's Zeitung", of the following import: "Wanted workmen with 700 to 260 to join a Co-operative Business salary 10 to 15 - to share in profits. Plenty of work for good people - 1457-3rd Ave.
Brooklyn", to call on the said Charles Kuenzel at said place of business 1457-3rd Ave. Brooklyn, where he was the man who advertised for workmen and he said yes; deponent was then referred to a person named Letter, a person who informed deponent that the company was engaged in building ice machines, and manufactured articles in connection therewith, and that the company, called the Kuenzel Patent Specialty Manufacturing Company, owned patents on said machines.

Deponent on the strength of these representations, and of the agents of the said Charles Kuenzel, and by and through the instrumentality of the said Charles Kuenzel was induced to purchase 50 shares of stock of the said Kuenzel Patent Specialty Manufacturing Company, from the said Charles Kuenzel, on the belief induced by said representations that said company was possessed of the patents aforesaid.

That he paid to the said Charles Kuenzel the sum of One hundred and fifty Dollars for said shares, which are absolutely worthless and which the said Charles Kuenzel knew or to be.

That at the same time he was induced to enter into a contract to work for said Charles Kuenzel; that he represented, falsely, to Depew that he had plenty of work for Depew, which is untrue; that although Depew spent his time at a shop conducted by ^{and Kuenzel at} 1601 Second Ave. New York City, for a period there was at first a little work, and afterward none at all; that the said Charles Kuenzel admitted to the Depew that he had no patent on the machines aforesaid, and that the company had no patents, which latter statement Depew believes.

Wherefore Depew asks that said Charles Kuenzel maybe apprehended and dealt with as the law directs.
