Dear Sir

The brewer Mr Patrick Mc-Mahon. is a very respectable citizen of this district (23<sup>d</sup>) and has a son Robert in trouble regarding a pea nut stand @ 108 at 73rd Ave knowing the character of the young man as I do. I am satisfied that there was nothing criminal in his intentions. and would deem it a favor to me. if you would not press his case to an extremity.

Very Truly Yours

Hon. Geo. M. Keow

District Attorney

The bearer
Mr. Patrick M. McMahon is a respected and reputable Citizen, and a resident of the District Inquest. His son Robert is in trouble for some privity created by a few companions who as I am informed intended to play a prank upon an Italian who kept a pea nut stand at 108 St. & 3rd Ave.
He was arrested and his companions ran away. Robert has never had a charge against him before, & as there was nothing to perjure I recognize it as only a little foolish deviltry which a reprimand would meet the requirements of the offense & be sufficient lesson in place of severe punishment

Very Respectfully
Michael Ruffey
Alderman 28th District

41-
The People
vs
Robert McMahon } Court of General Sessions. Part 4 Before Recorder Smyth. June 14, 1883.
Indictment for burglary in the third degree Louis Zenell, sworn and examined through the interpreter testified. I keep a pea nut stand at 108th street and Third Ave.
It was broken into on the 27th of May; the hasp was broken. Did you close it the night before? Yes, I locked it up. at 11 o'clock in the evening with three padlocks. Then did you next see it? At seven o'clock the next morning I saw it. Were the locks broken off and it open? Yes sir. Was anything taken away? Everything that was in it was taken - pea nuts and oranges.
About how much were they all worth?
About fifteen dollars. By Counsel. Do you recollect swearing at the Police Court that the whole of this fruit was of the value of about six dollars? Yes sir. I recollect. What did you tell the Police Justice it was only worth six dollars for? I made a mistake. Was there anything except pea nuts and oranges there?
Pea nuts and oranges, honey and prunes. Anything else? And pine apples and nuts.

John H. Karsall, sworn and examined, testified:
What ward is 108th street and Third Ave. in? The twelfth ward. I did not see the boys break open the pea nut stand, but I saw them at the stand. I saw three boys with their backs to the stand between one and two o'clock Sunday morning. They had already carried some fruit over in a building partly finished on the opposite corner.
I was on duty that morning between one and two o'clock on 108th St. I had crossed the Third Avenue. This stand was on the corner up <sup>against</sup> the house. I saw three boys with their backs to that stand. I got behind a grocery wagon on the opposite corner and watched them and I saw them in the act of putting something in their pockets.
Then I showed myself and another officer with me, and the minute they saw us they started and ran and we followed them up and I overhauled this prisoner at Lexington Ave. I fetched him back there and found that the stand was broken open. I took him over in the building and searched it. What did you find?
We found a lot of pine apples, oranges, nuts, part of a bag of dates and some lemons.

about half a barrel of stuff altogether. There were those things that you have got here (a jimmy and another piece of iron). They were along side the stand. There were three locks on the stand, one on each end and one on the centre. What was the condition of the locks? They were pried off the staples - the screws were torn out of the woodwork. Then I arrested the prisoner; the other two boys got away in a new building; we got lights and searched for them, but we could not find them. I took the prisoner to the station house and searched him, and he had his pockets full of nuts. Cross Examined. The boy stated to me on the evening of his arrest the names of the other boys who were with him. I made no effort to ~~identify~~<sup>arrest</sup> them because if we got them there was nobody to identify them only him and I understood that they would not take his evidence. It did not strike you they might confess that they were the ones who committed the burglary did it? No sir.

The Assistant District Attorney offered the implements in evidence, which consisted of a large iron "jimmy" and another piece of iron.

Robert M<sup>c</sup> Mahon, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified: I live 112th St. and Madison Ave. I work at oil stone rubbing. I could not say who those rints belonged to that I had in my pocket because John O'Rourke gave them to me. I met him and another one right by the stand and the other two were standing in the building. Why were you out late that night? I was after coming up from buying a hat and shoes in Callahan's 182 Bowery. I swear to this jury that I did not help to break this stand open. I was in the building where the stuff was found before I went down to buy the hat and shoes. I was waiting for a boy named Powers to come down with me. Why did you say in the Police Court that you did? They did not give me time to say anything. Didnt you sign your name to a statement there? Yes sir, but I did not understand the Courts. Cross Examined I have been working steadily for a year at oil stone rubbing. I used to make from six to eight dollars a week. I ran to Lexington Ave. I stood when I saw the officer. I did not know who was running after me first. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.
