and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by

Peter McVicker and Thomas Regan
both now here and acting in concert

for the reasons following, to wit:

on said date deponent
securely locked and fastened the doors and windows of said place and the railing over said basement was intact and said property
was in a desk in said place -

Deponent is informed by Roundsman Londrigan of the 5 Precinct, that he discovered that said place had been entered and he arrested the defendants

in the basement of said premises - deponent further says that he discovered that the drawers in the desks in said place
had been forced open - and the said property was missing - and a type writing machine
was broken.
deponent therefore charges the defendants with Burglary and prays that they be dealt

The People vs. Frank Menos
 Court of General Sessions. Part I
 Before Judge Fitzgerald. Sept. 11th 1893
 Indictment for grand larceny first degree.
 Pasquale de Berna, sworn and examined, Testified: I live at 167 Mulberry street and am a carpenter. on the 7th of August 1893
 I saw this defendant. Was it in the night time? About eight o'clock in the evening in the church. Was the prisoner in church?
 Yes, he was by the organ. Were you in church? Yes. Where was that church?
 Corner of Baxter and Church streets. Did you have a watch and chain at that time? Yes. I did. Was the watch in your vest pocket? The left vest pocket. Was the chain attached to it? Yes attached to the watch and the chain was attached to the vest. It was a nickel watch and it was worth four dollars and a half.
 Did you miss that watch that night?
 It was taken from me in the church.
 State how it was done and what you felt and saw? I and other persons were about to leave the church, and while I was at the church door I heard the clicking of a ring of the watch. I did not feel anything, but I only heard the sound. Did you look down there when you heard it? Then I felt that the chain fell down on the body. You felt that right away after hearing the click? Yes, the same time of the clicking I felt the chain on my body. Did you look down there? Yes; then I saw that the chain was hanging down. Did you look for the watch? I looked for the watch and it was gone. Did you see this prisoner at that time? This young man was near me when I missed the watch, I saw him near me. Was he on the same side as you had your watch? Yes, he was on that side. Go on and tell the whole thing? Then I said to him, "you have taken my watch" then he showed me one hand; there was nothing in his hand. I saw that he had his other hand in the cap, and from the outside he held the cap and the watch together ~~so~~ (illustrating). I took hold of the cap and saw that the watch was inside of the cap. He was holding it just as I am holding mine (showing). At the time that he held it there was no chain to it. I put my hand to the cap and I felt the watch was there. Then what did you do? Then I took the watch out of his hand myself and I held on to him, then he commenced to cry and said, "Let me go, let me go, we are Italians. Then other people came up, they saw what was going on. Then they asked what was the matter? I said, "This young man took my watch in the church. Then one of the bystanders went out and called for the police. Then we went to the station house and the police man came and took him. That is my watch (watch shown to the witness)

Cross Examined. Are you positive you saw this young man in the church? Yes, he was in the church. How far away was he from you when you saw him first? Just as far as I am from you when I first saw him. He was near enough to get the watch was he? Yes. Was anybody else as near to you as he was? No one was as near to me as he was. That was the time that you felt the tug at your watch? Yes, the same time when he was near to me I heard the click of the watch. Then this defendant was arrested he was on the other side of the way was he not from the church? Yes he was on the other side.

Joseph Deolin sworn and examined. What precinct are you connected with, officer? The Sixth precinct. Did you arrest this defendant? Yes. What time was it when you arrested him? In the neighborhood of eight o'clock in the evening on the corner of Baxter and Canal streets. What attracted your attention to him? The crowd of people there. When you got up to him did you see the complainant there? Yes. Tell us what you saw? When I got up there was three or four men had hold of this boy; they were bringing him from the Italian church towards the station house; there was no policeman around. I enquired what was the matter? They said "this boy had taken this man's watch." This man came up and handed me the watch. He said he took it out of the boy's hat. I asked the defendant if he took the watch? He said, No, another boy took it and handed it to me. I took him to the station house and searched him. I found a pawn ticket for a vest.

Frank Merros sworn and examined in his own behalf. I live 77 Mulberry street and have been in this country three years. I did not take the complainant's watch. He said to me, "John, keep this watch." He gave it to me on the sidewalk opposite the church. I was not in the church.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS--- PART III.

-----X
The People of the State of New York:

against

James Murphy, John Cornell and James Williams;

Indictment filed August 16th, 1893,
indicted for grand larceny in the second degree.

: Before

: Hon. Frederick Smyth
and a Jury.

-----X

New York, September 5th, 1893.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People, Assistant District Attorney Robert Townsend;

For the Defendant, Mr. Ambrose H. Purdy.

CHARLIE SAM, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

My place of business is at 71 West Ninth Street in this city. I keep a laundry at that number. On the 29th of July I was in my place of business all alone. I had my money in the money-drawer in the rear of the store on the side. I had sixty-three dollars and seventy-one cents in the drawer on that evening, forty dollars in bills and the rest in silver. I counted the money at about half past eleven that night, and put it back in the drawer. These three defendants I saw in front of my store all the evening. They had been hanging around there for about two weeks. Williams came in at about half past eleven and handed me a check for some laundry. I told him the check did not belong to me, but belonged to some other laundry. In a minute he said to me, "Somebody has stolen your chair," and I started out and ran after the man who took my chair away. The chair was taken by one of these other defendants. When I ran out of the store the defendant Williams remained in the store after me. I saw the defendant Cornell in front of my shop as I ran out. When I came back to my store I found that the money was all missing from my money-drawer. I got the chair from the man who had stolen it and brought it back to the store. When I was on my way back I saw one of the defendants coming out of the store with my money-box under his arm. I made a complaint on that night to a police officer, but the defendants were not arrested for nearly a week. I saw Williams on the street one day and called an officer and had him arrested.

C R O S S E X A M I N A T I O N .

I had seen all of these men hanging around my store for about two weeks before this occurrence. The defendant Cornell was not in my place on that night, but stood outside of the door. I told the officer that sixty-three dollars and seventy-one cents had been stolen from me by these men.

JOSEPH SCHICK, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer connected with the Fifteenth

Precinct. I arrested the three defendants, Murphy, Cornell and Williams at Fourteenth Street and Sixth Avenue on August first at ten minutes to four in the morning. They were then engaged in dividing some small silver change, quarters, dimes, nickels and pennies. The three of them were together. I walked over and I put my hands on two of them, and the little fellow ran through Fourteenth Street as far as Fifth Avenue and ran up Fifth Avenue. I whistled for my partner and sent him after the little fellow. I identified these men as parties who had broken into a store on my beat. I took them to the station house, went and got this Chinaman and he made a charge against them of stealing his money drawer. The other charge was not made against them at that time. The Chinaman was asked in the station house if he could identify these three people as the parties who stole his money. I told them to take off their hats. They took off their hats and the Chinaman identified the three of them as being the parties who robbed his drawer of sixty-three dollars and seventy-one cents. The Chinaman then told his story of how the big fellow Williams had come into his place with a check for laundry. The Chinaman told him that the check did not belong there. Meantime Cornell came in and took a chair and ran out with it. Then Williams told the Chinaman that he had stolen his chair. The Chinaman went out to get the chair, and when he came back he found this drawer had been robbed. At the station house the Chinaman stated all these facts, and the defendants were held. I arrested these men on suspicion of having committed a burglary. After I had them at the station house I was informed by another officer that a Chinaman was looking for them for stealing his money.

C R O S S E X A M I N A T I O N.

I arrested these men corner of Fourteenth Street and Sixth Avenue. I had heard the Chinaman's place had been robbed, but did not know at the time of their arrest that these men were concerned in it. I had no evidence at that time that they were connected with that robbery, but I had seen them myself commit a burglary. That charge has never been pressed against them. I saw the two larger men lift the smaller man up and put him in through the fan-light of a liquor store.

D E F E N S E.

JOHN CORNELL, one of the defendants, sworn, testified:

My real name is Quinn. I live at 575 Third Avenue. Up until a month before I was arrested, I was taking care of a pool room on the Bowery. I remember the night of the 29th of July. I have heard the testimony of the Chinaman. I do not know anything at all about the commission of that crime. I was not in the neighborhood of the Chinaman's place on the 29th of July. I was in no way concerned in the commission of that crime.

C R O S S E X A M I N A T I O N.

I gave my name as John Cornell when arrested for the reason that I thought I would be discharged in the morning, and I did not want to compromise my people. At the time of my arrest I was living at 575 Third Avenue. I gave the address of 96¹/₂ Christopher Street because I did not want to have it known where my people lived. I knew I was innocent of this crime, and firmly believed I would be discharged at the Police Court in the morning. I was not in company with the two defendants on the night of the 29th of July and did not conspire ~~with~~ with them to rob this Chinaman of his money.

JAMES MURPHY, one of the Defendants, sworn, testified:

My real name is Frank Quinn. I am a brother of the last witness. I am seventeen years of age. I live at 575 Third Avenue with my parents. I mend chairs for a living. I remember the night of the 29th of July. On that night I was in bed asleep. I know where the Chinaman's place is, but I was not there on that night. I was not standing outside of his place and I had nothing to do with the robbery of his money.

C R O S S E X A M I N A T I O N .

The last place I worked is 126 Madison Street, mending chairs. I worked there until three days before I was arrested. I had been working there for four months. My brother lives in the same house with me. I gave the name of Murphy, because I did not want to disgrace my family. I heard the officer say that he saw me being lifted over the fan-light. The officer is mistaken ~~about~~ about that. I had eight dollars and some cents in my pocket at the time of my arrest. I earned that money. It was not given me as part of a divide between the three of us.

JAMES WILLIAMS, one of the defendants, sworn, testified:

My real name is James Williams. I live at No. 24 City Hall Place. I am single and reside with my parents. I am a printer by trade. On the 29th of July last at night I was home in bed. I know the place where the Chinaman keeps. I was not at that place on that night. I had no part in the commission of the Robbery at the Chinaman's place. The Chinaman identified me in the station house as the person who came in and asked him for my laundry. I did have some laundry in the Chinaman's place, and went there to get it a few days before this occurrence. The Chinaman would not give it to me and we had some words about it. I do not know any other reason why he should accuse me of this crime.

CROSS EXAMINATION.

I met these two other defendants at the London Theatre a few days before my arrest. I met them accidentally on the night that I was arrested and we were taking a walk together. I was not implicated in any burglary with them. The officer is mistaken when he says he saw us in the act of committing a burglary.

R E B U T T A L.

PHILIP MINER, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer attached to the Fifteenth Precinct. On the 29th of July, at twelve o'clock at night I was on post on Ninth Street, from Fourth to Sixth Avenue. I went to the premises No. 71 West Ninth Street and saw the Chinaman. He made a complaint that he had been robbed and that his money-drawer was missing. I was present at the time the Chinaman identified these three men as the men who robbed him of his money-drawer.

The Jury returned a verdict convicting the defendants of grand larceny in the second degree.
