PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

William Marr

G. L.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. -

I have since learned of the defendant's good character for honesty, and from the fact that my horse & wagon was found only a block away from where I left it, I am convinced on reflection that defendant and the other person who was with him, (they had been drinking) only took my horse & wagon for a ride - and that they had no criminal intent and therefore I respectfully ask permission to withdraw my complaint.

Indictment for burglary in the second degree.

Martin Dreshtlein sworn and examined. Where do you live? No. 411 East 37th Street. What is your business? Tailor. Are those the premises which you say were broken into? Yes sir. On the 10th of July, 1885? The 10th of July. What time of day? A quarter to one. In the day-time? Yes sir. Was anybody in the premises at the time? Nobody there.

The Court. That makes it burglary in the third degree.

By Mr Davis. State what you know about the burglary? I was two flights up, I heard some noise and went down to see what was the matter. When I came down two men held the prisoner in the entry. Do you know what their names were? Friedman and Kold. Did you notice any part of this building where they had broken in? I do not know that, down in the cellar, the wood house. Did they come in through the cellar? Yes sir, the cellar is open, they got in from the street to the entry, there is a door connecting the entry with the street, the door was open but the cellar which was broken in was locked, I know nothing more about it.

Anton Kold sworn. I live 126 East 3rd Street and am a painter and work at Mr Dreshtlein's, the last witness. We had our pots with the paints and other things locked up in this wood house. At one o'clock we went to the third floor and commenced to paint and we locked the wood-house and about fifteen minutes afterwards Friedman went down to the cellar and found it open the prisoner inside, I was the first down and the prisoner came out of the wood-shed, he had nothing when he came out. I told them to hold him and I intended to go to the landlord and ask him if he knows this man. When I came down again he tried to break away and I held him until the policeman came. My clothing was hung up in the wood-shed but it was now on the floor and the chain and vest was tampered with. There are four or five families living in the house but this wood-shed was Dreshtlein's.

Cross Examined. I could not say that the defendant was drunk because he tried all the time to break away, I did not notice that he was under the influence of liquor. There were no tools of any kind found in his possession, he had a rag-picker's bag with him. I did not see the prisoner first, another man saw him first and I was called down to the wood-shed, I just saw the prisoner leaving the door.

Henry Friedman sworn. Where do you live? No. 31 Eldridge Street. Were you in this place on the 10th of July and did you see the defendant there that day? Yes sir. Where did you see him for the first time? I saw him down in the cellar inside where all the brushes and the paints are. There were also coats and a watch there. What was this place where they were, was it a wood-shed? Yes, a little room in the cellar, it was locked, I locked it myself. How long after you locked it did you go down and find him in it? About ten minutes. In what condition did you find the door? I found the door open, I tried to go inside, I saw a man there and asked who it was; he did not let me go in, I went to the first steps and began to holler and after this we held him until the policeman came. We found all the brushes lying together and the clothing and the watch as on the floor and the lock was broke. The prisoner was inside of this room? Yes. He tried to hold the door and would not let you go in? Yes.

Cross Examined. Was he very drunk? No sir, he was not drunk, if he was drunk he could not break the lock, I did not see he was drinking. Did you see no sign of liquor on him at all? No sir. The policeman saw the lock broke, it was lying on the floor behind the door, the staple was drawn, I went to the Station House with the prisoner and saw him searched there.

William McCabe sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified: I live in 70th Street between First and Second Avenues, I remember nothing about this occurrence, all I remember is throwing up in the gutter when a lot of little ones gathered around me, I happened to go out of the corner liquor store at 83rd Street and First Avenue, after I threw up in the gutter I picked myself up the best I could and I went into the hallway down in the cellar, I tumbled half way clean down to the bottom of the cellar, I remember the painter coming down, what the hell I was doing there and like a drunken man I turned around and commenced fighting; the two he d me and some of the tenants called for an officer and had me arrested; that is all I can remember, I was under the influence of liquor and the officer can tell you the same thing. I served a term for petty larceny for five months on January 2, 1885.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of burglary in the third degree.

Court of General Sessions Part I.
Before Judge Cowing.

July 21, 1885.

Indictment for robbery in the second degree.

Frank Pepe sworn and examined. I live at 47 Mulberry Street and am a shoe-maker, I saw the defendant on the 21st of June at half past twelve, I was going through Mulberry Street and he came up to me and said, give me five dollars, I never saw the man before, I told him I had not five dollars and then he hit me three times and knocked me down, I had five dollars in this vest pocket but I don't know if he took it or it fell out of my pocket. When I got up and fixed my clothing then I found out that the five dollars was missing, I do not know if he took it or not. Half an hour before that I felt it in my pocket when I left the house. He first hit me behind the ear, I did not fall then but with the second blow I fell; when I got up the policeman came and I was bleeding a little; then the policeman asked me what was the matter and I told him that I was struck by this man. When I fell down another man, a stranger, gave me my hat and helped me up; the defendant wanted to go a second time for me but other people standing around held him back; the prisoner was drunk at the time.

Cross Examined. I did not feel the prisoner's hand in my pocket and did not see when he took it but when I got up I missed the five dollars; he asked me twice for five dollars and then he struck me. It was half an hour before the defendant struck me that I felt the money in this vest pocket; coming out of the house I put my hand in my pocket to see how much money I got and I had the five dollar bill there, I do not know if I had twenty or twenty five dollars in the pantaloons pocket, I had five and ten dollar bills in the pantaloons pocket and put only the five dollars in the vest pocket. When I left my house I did not go into a beer saloon, my intention was to go up to 60th Street.

John Cottrell sworn. I am a police officer of the 6th precinct and made the arrest in this case. June 21st about twenty minutes to one the complainant came to me on the corner of Canal and Mulberry Streets and said that he had been knocked down and robbed, I went up Mulberry Street with him after he gave a description of the person who had robbed him and near Hester in Mulberry Street the prisoner was sitting down in front of Mr McNamara's tea store, I went up behind the trucks and sent the complainant ahead of me; the complainant says, there is the man that robbed me, pointing to the prisoner, I stepped over and arrested him. I asked him if he knocked this man down and robbed him. He said no he had never seen him before, he was wrong. I searched the prisoner at the station on House and found nothing on him. I think he had been drinking a little, he was not drunk however.

The Case for the Defence.

Patrick Freal sworn. I am not doing anything at present, I have been working for H. A. Horton, Center Street, I worked for them one year, I have never been arrested or in any trouble, I live with my parents, I know the defendant, he lives in that neighborhood. Tell the Jury what you saw that evening? I was standing on the corner of Hester and Mulberry at the time, my attention was attracted that way by somebody saying, look there; I saw the prisoner strike the man and then walk off towards the north and saw the complainant walk south, I saw no Italians there, only the complainant, the prisoner was under the influence of liquor. When he struck the blow the Italian fell and as soon as he struck the defendant walked away, I did not see him stoop down and put his hand in the complainant's pocket, if he had attempted to take any property away from the Italian I would have seen it. I was on one side of the street at this time and they on the other.

JOHN HEANEY sworn. I work for Mr. Leahy and was never in trouble, I live in the neighborhood of the prisoner, I was standing on the corner of Mulberry and Hester between the hours of twelve and one o'clock and saw the prisoner on the opposite corner speak a few words to the Italian and then strike him and the man fell and as soon as he got up he made an offer to hit the prisoner with a cane; the prisoner did not take anything from him.

Daniel O'Conner sworn. I know Moran and on this evening in question saw him have some words with the complainant, he hit the Italian who fell and when he got up hit the prisoner over the head with a cane.

The Jury rendered a verdict of guilty of an attempt at robbery in the second degree.
