Dear Sir :

Yours of the 23rd inst. to the District Attorney, received.

As the case is now disposed of, nothing remains to be done unless the defendant should be again apprehended, when he can be punished for his offense.

I am instructed by the District Attorney to state that he appreciates very highly your attendance in this City as a witness in the case, and understands fully the inconvenience to which you have been subjected. He is unaware, however, under what circumstances or upon what ground the promise mentioned in your letter was made by Officer Collins. If the money lost by you on the occasion you refer to can be identified with certainty, there may be a possibility of refunding your loss to you. In that connection it would perhaps, be well to confer with Officer Collins. The District Attorney, however, is powerless in the matter.

Thanking you for your address, I am
