the property of Deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away by Rose Itzkowitz (Cherharr)

From the fact that defendant was in jail promises that deponent had paid stud in his scarf on this person. That deponent had a Rose on his coat and that defendant asked deponent for said Rose. Deponent told defendant to take said Rose and that shortly thereafter he missed said stud. Deponent subsequently caused the arrest of defendant by Officer Burns who found said Diamond in defendant's residence at number 52 Ridge Street this city and said Diamond was removed from the outfit by Squad Room.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK against

Rosie Itskowitz

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

of the CRIME OF GRAND LARCENY in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the twenty second day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-three, in the day-time of the said day, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms,

one stud of the value of the goods, chattels and personal property of one Hyman Rosenschein on the person of the said Hyman Rosenschein then and there being found, from the person of the said Hyman Rosenschein then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

AND THE GRAND JURY AFORESAID, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Rosie Itzkowitz
of the CRIME OF RECEIVING STOLEN GOODS, committed as follows:

The said

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms,

one stud of the value of one hundred and fifty dollars of the goods, chattels and personal property of one

Hyman Rosenschein

by a certain person or persons to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, then lately before feloniously stolen, taken and carried away from the said

unlawfully and unjustly, did feloniously receive and have; the said

then and there well knowing the said goods, chattels and personal property to have been feloniously stolen, taken and carried away, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.
