was contained in a pocket book) and in all of the value of Twenty seven dollars

the property of Deponent

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Emma Mc Donald now here for the reason, that while deponent was in a hallway, with said Emma Mc Donald, said matched said pocket book from the hands of deponent and ran away with the same. Deponent caused the arrest of said Emma by Officer O'Day of the 27th Precinct Police. Deponent is also informed by said O'Day that said Emma admitted to him that she gave sixteen dollars of the above described money to a bartender in Greenwich Street and that she spent the balance of some twenty seven dollars. For John Miller

Testimony in the case of Michael McGinnis filed Feb. 1983

The People vs.
 Micheal McGinnis } Court of General Sessions - Part I
 Before Judge Cowing.
 Tuesday, February 13, 1883.

Indictment for burglary in the third degree and receiving stolen goods. Patrick Sheehy sworn and examined, testified. I live, 257 East Eighty third St.; my place of business is 1453 Third ave.; I am in the liquor business and was engaged in that business on the second of this month I left my place of business that night about 12 o'clock midnight. I had liquor and cigars in the premises at the time I did not return till I was notified in the morning by the officer. I went there about 8 o'clock. I looked up my place of business before I left; it was opened by the barkeeper in the morning; the barkeeper is not here. In the side entrance to the store a large pane of glass was broken and by that means the bottles could be removed. I missed that night five boxes of cigars, a bottle of brandy and a bottle of whiskey; the value of all these goods was twenty seven dollars. I saw the property next at the Fifty ninth St. station house in possession of the Police Captain. I recognized it as my property.

Cross Examined. I recognized my label on the whiskey bottle - an ordinary business label with my name on it. The other things were not labeled. I brought a sample of the cigars that was taken from me to see if they would correspond with the sample I brought. and they exactly corresponded and it was the same number that was gone. These cigars were made by Mulreddy of Duane St. When I went to my place I found the window pane of the side door broken open, which was in the night before I left. I closed my place up about twelve o'clock and I got back there about 8 o'clock in the morning. I know the defendant and have known him maybe ~~about~~ eleven years. I never heard any thing against him. Hugh Martin, sworn and examined, testified I am an officer of the 28th precinct. I know the prisoner and saw him on the morning of the 3d of Feb. last between the hours of five and six o'clock. I saw him coming out of a bar room on the corner of Seventy fourth St. and he had a bundle under his arm; it was not Sheehy's place. I followed him and he passed another bar room; then he turned back and went into it again and he saw the woman in the bar room and he asked her would she keep those cigars. I followed him right into this loper beer parlor in 74th St. near Avenue A. I heard him ask the woman to mind those cigars for him, for he wanted to go down to 74th St. and he would call back. At that time I walked in and said to him, "Where did you get those cigars?" He said, "I found them." I searched him and found two bottles of liquor in his pocket and a handful of loose cigars. I asked him where he found them? He said, Seventy fifth St. I saw that one of the bottles was from Mr. Sheep's store. I went up to Mr. Sheep's store and found a burglary had been committed. They showed me where the glass door was broken. He described the articles he lost. They were the same articles that were found in possession of the prisoner. They were shown to Mr. Sheep at the station house and he identified those cigars. Mr. Sheep's store is not on our post; it is on 82nd St. and Third Avenue. [That was the case for the people.]

Michael McGinnis, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I have lived in this city 28 years. I was working for Mr. Trimmer a carpenter in eighty fifth st; he is building houses for Mr. Hannan. I was working there at the time of this occurrence. I was going to my work one morning early. I saw the cigars and the bottle of brandy and whiskey in the street between 75th and 76th st. They were not wrapped up, but I got a string and wrapped it around them. I did not examine the things, it was too dark. I have known Mr. Sheery for some time. Cross Examined: I also worked for Mr. John Brown for twelve months. I have never been convicted of a criminal offence. I got my supper about six o'clock in the evening. Previous to the morning I found these things. I did not go out that evening. I got up about 1/4 past five. I live 1568 Third Ave. I found the things about six o'clock. I saw two men ahead of me in the street; they were going in the same direction I was. We walked in the middle of the street because it was slippery. I thought I would get a reward for the things. I did not want to be carrying them with me to my work. I had business to attend to. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.

Roger Aimes, of 91st. Street and 9' Avenue, makes the following statement:

Between twelve and one o'clock on the morning of the 25' day of January, 1883, John Mc' Govern, of 37' Street, West of 11' Avenue, but now in the New-York Tombs, came to my house and asked my mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Aimes, if I was in and she told him I was but that I was in bed; he said he wanted to see me and I got up and went out to see him, when he told me that he wanted to square up with me, he owed me $27. He asked me around to my stable and showed me a horse that he said he had got from Long Island and then again said he got it from 135' Street and 3Rd. Avenue, and that if I would give him a couple of dollars he would leave the horse in my stable and call the matter square. My mother came around then and told him to take the horse away but he would not do it, and she loosened the halter ~~was~~ and was putting the horse out when Mc' Govern ran away and left the horse there in my stable, and that was the last I have seen of him. The next morning I went to the 31st. Precinct Station House and stated the matter to Captain Murphy and he telegraphed down to the 37' Street Station that the horse was left at my stable by John Mc' Govern. I then kept the horse for a couple of days, and as I could not afford to keep it I turned around and sold it to a man by the name of Cullen, of 64' Street and the Boulevard, for fifteen dollars. He kept him for a couple of days and sold him for fifteen dollars to George Bauer, of 64' Street Near 8' Avenue, and Bauer took the horse to a horse market in 74' Street and was in the act of selling it when Charles Smith, a truckman for Diamond, came up and recognized the horse and took him away, and the horse is now in Diamond's stable. This is the same horse that was loaned by Boyce to Hotchkiss on the 24' day of January.

February 12', 1883.

John Hotchkiss, of No. 414 West 31st. Street, makes the following statement:

On the 24' day of January, 1883, Charles Boyce, of No. 503 West 36' Street, foreman for William H. Diamond, of No. 46 East 26' Street, loaned me a horse from Diamond's Stable, 527 West 37' Street, to move some furniture. I hired John Doyle, of No. 413 West 41st. Street, to help me with the last load, and after we had delivered the last load of furniture to No. 445 West 32nd Street, I took the horse and wagon to my house, where I stable, and after putting up the wagon I gave the horse to Doyle to return to Diamond's stable, and I did not know until the 27' day of January that he did not deliver the horse as I had directed him to do, when Mr. Boyce told me the horse had not been returned. Then I asked Doyle about it and he said that he saw a man coming out of Diamond's stable and gave the horse to him. He did not say what the man's name was.

The People } Court of General Sessions Part I
 Joseph M. Henry } Before Judge Cowing.
 Feb. 12. 1883.

Indictment for grand larceny in the second degree.

John Stanton, sworn and examined, testified: Where do you live? I live 590 Second Avenue. Did you live there on the second day of this month? Yes sir. Did you own a horse and wagon and a set of harness on the second of Feb.? Yes. What was the value of them? I paid forty dollars for the horse and wagon. I have the receipt in my pocket. Did you see the defendant on that day? Yes sir. I took him at 8 o'clock from the place. How did he come to take them from the place? He came to hire a horse to sell wood at twelve shillings a day. Did you let him have this horse and wagon and harness? I gave them in charge to him. How long did you hire them? A day. Did he return the horse, wagon and harness to you that day? I got them myself that night. From whom did you get them? From Charles McGee. He gave the horse and wagon in at the Station house in Sixty ninth St. Did you ask him to do that? Yes sir, he came down along with us. What happened between you and McGee when you went there and found your horse? Nothing at all happened. Was anything said? McGee knew me this twelve or thirteen years. I said, I want to get my horse and wagon. Did you sell the horse and wagon to McGee? No sir, it belonged to me. You loaned it to this defendant? Yes sir, and he went and sold it. Cross Examined - I hired the horse and wagon to the prisoner by the day. Were you acquainted with the young fellow? I was acquainted with him for the last six weeks, for I have another horse hired with a man that is living in the same house with him and he used to go in the wagon with him. That is all I know about the boy. What you learned of the boy prior to this affair was good was it not? Yes sir. I had no acquaintance at all with him. Do you think the boy intended to steal the horse and wagon? I do not know nothing at all about that. If I knew that I would not give it to him. What a fool to give any man a horse and wagon! You never gave him permission to sell it? No sir, I did not. Do you buy many horses? Yes sir, I buy what I want I would buy twenty - forty - if I could afford it. How long had you this horse and wagon? I have them three months, I have the receipt in my pocket, I will show it to you. Did not the boy tell you he would go with you to find the horse and wagon? Yes, he did; he went in the same place where the horse was. He went with you before he was arrested or anything? Yes sir, it was in the station house he was held.

Counsel:

He will admit that he sold the horse to Mr. McGee; there is no use disputing that fact. [The Court:] It is conceded by the defendant after he borrowed this horse he went and sold it - horse, harness and wagon I suppose - sold the whole equipment. [Mr. Brady: He do not question his character.]

Counsel:

Will you concede that he has always had a good character?

Mr. Brady:

Certainly; there is no use; it would take time, because I concede that he has a good character. I do not know anything against him. I concede all this gentleman would say - that he has a good character. James McKenna was sworn but not examined.

0123

Elisha McKenna sworn and examined.
I am the aunt of the prisoner and am acquainted with him. On the day the defendant took this horse and wagon did you have a conversation with the prisoner?

Yes sir. Did the prisoner at the bar want to borrow money of you on the day that this horse and wagon was taken for the purpose of buying kindling wood to sell? Yes, he did so. Did you give him any? No sir. I had not got any small change only 75 cents; he said that was no good. He wanted to borrow it and then he asked me where he thought I could get it?

Joseph McHenry sworn and examined.
I am 19 years old and live at 305 East Twenty ninth St. with my parents. My mother is in Court. I have never been arrested before for anything - never have been in trouble of any kind. I remember getting this horse and wagon of Mr.

Stanton on the 2nd of Feb. I got it for the purpose of peddling wood. At the time I got it I had no intention of stealing it.

I said to myself, "There is no use going back without wood and so I sold it."

I sold it late in the afternoon. I knew

I had no right to sell it.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of petty larceny.
