REGINA MARQUIZ being duly sworn, says,
I reside at number 207 East 114th Street, with my father, mother and family. I am twenty years of age.

✓ On the twenty-ninth day of February, I was carrying on ✓ a Confectionery Store at 1,853 Lexington Avenue, and between one and two o'clock PATRICK GALLAGHER came to my store and opened the front door, after my father and mother arrived at the store, and hallooed in through the front door:

"You S-- of a B----, I want you to understand you must leave my premises to-morrow." Between seven and eight o'clock, PATRICK GALLAGHER again called and asked me if my father was in; I told him he would be in in a minute, as he was then away from the store; and about ten minutes thereafter PATRICK GALLAGHER called again into the store; my father and myself were behind the counter when he came in;
he seemed to be excited and under the influence of liquor.
I asked him what he wanted. I knew him to be our landlord.
He answered:

"It is none of your d----d business; I want that S-- of a B---- of your father." I told him to leave my store, as I did not want any disturbance there; he made a start to go towards my father, and I went from behind the counter towards him and told him (GALLAGHER) to leave my store. Then came in MR. LYNCH; I asked him what he wanted and told him to leave the store. He said:

"It is none of your d----d business what I want here."

He (LYNCH) came to the store with GALLAGHER, but had waited outside. I knew that they came in to fight my father, and I told LYNCH that he should leave the store, and also GALLAGHER; and after LYNCH came in GALLAGHER said:

"I am going to knock your father's brains out," and with that I held out my arms to protect my father, and went in front of him (my father); with that GALLAGHER caught hold of my shoulder with both hands and shook me, in order to get hold of my father. I remained firm, and he (GALLAGHER) struck me two violent blows with his fist; one on the chest and one on my stomach. I then fainted, and was in bed, sick and suffering, and remained confined to the house three weeks.

I am still sick and suffering from the effects of these blows I received from GALLAGHER, and am still under medical treatment and may be suffering all my life, and same may cause my life to be shortened. I cannot tell what the result of these blows may determine, as my doctor claims I am internally injured, and I have and am still suffering pain and other troubles that I did not have or, any indications of, before I was struck by GALLAGHER. He is a strong and large powerful man, and I have heard that he well known for his brutality.

MRS. ELENA WAHL being duly sworn, says, I am twenty-eight years of age; a married lady, with one child, and reside with my husband at number 1,855 Lexington Avenue, who conducts a bakery there; his store is next to the confectionery store of MISS MARQUIZ.

On or about February twenty-ninth, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, I was looking for my boy in the candy store of MISS MARQUIZ, and I there saw PATRICK GALLAGHER, and was present when GALLAGHER came in, and I have heard the affidavit of the complainant; the same is true as to what occurred in the store, and the remarks made by GALLAGHER and LYNCH.

The first blow I did not see; I was called out and when I came back I saw GALLAGHER strike MISS MARQUIZ with his fist, a heavy blow on the stomach that she fainted in my arms. She wanted to protect her father from an assault.

I did not see MR. MARQUIZ (the father of complainant) say or do anything towards GALLAGHER, except he said that GALLAGHER and LYNCH should leave the store.

I heard MR. MARQUIZ halloo to the officer "Take him (GALLAGHER) out, as he is killing my daughter." I am not related or connected in any way with the complainant.

OSCAR SCHIER being duly sworn, says, I reside at number 1,843 Lexington Avenue, where I worked in a barber shop.

On the twenty-ninth day of February last, I went into the confectionery store of MISS MARQUIZ which is near the barber shop. I was attracted there by a crowd in front of the store. When I came into the store, MR. MARQUIZ was coming from behind the counter and the complainant was in front of her father. GALLAGHER had hold of MISS MARQUIZ by the shoulders and was wrangling with her, trying to get her away to get at her father. She held up her hands and he (GALLAGHER) struck her with his clinched fist two heavy blows---one on her chest and the other on the lower part of her stomach.

She fainted in the arms of MRS. WAHL and I came to help her from falling on the floor, and MRS. WAHL placed her (complainant) in my arms. MR. MARQUIZ (the father) did nothing to LYNCH or GALLAGHER except saying they should leave the premises, and addressing LYNCH and saying, "What do you want here?" LYNCH said, "It is none of your d----d business."

When the officer came in MR. MARQUIZ (the father of complainant) hallooed that the officer should take GALLAGHER out or he would kill his daughter. Both GALLAGHER and LYNCH were under the influence of liquor, as I believe. They were very much excited. I heard GALLAGHER say, "I

City and County of New York: ss.

LOUIS MARQUIZ being duly sworn, says:
I reside at 207 East 114th Street. I have resided in Harlem for about seventeen years. I have resided in this city for twenty-two years. I have never been arrested, nor has a complaint ever been made against me for disturbing the peace and quietness of anybody.

On the twenty-ninth day of February last, I resided at number 169 East 115th Street, where I hired a flat from defendant (GALLAGHER), which I occupied with my family, consisting of my wife and five children, including the complainant. About eleven o'clock in the forenoon of that day (February 29) GALLAGHER came to my flat and I showed him the plumbing work which was out of order. He claimed that the same was not out of order, and that I was a d----d boy and did not know anything about plumbing.

I told him I was a plumber for the last thirty years; and he again said that I was only a d----d boy and did not know anything about it; and told me if I did not like it I could move. I told him I paid my rent and would move when I got ready. Then he said I was a S-- of a B---- and a Christ killer and I told him to leave my rooms, and he caught hold of my coat. Then I opened the door and told him to go out, and he would not do so, and I put him out.

About one o'clock I went out with my wife to look for a flat, and I noticed that he was following us around until we got to my daughter's store, and he then opened the front door of the store of my daughter and said:

"You S-- of a B----, I want you to understand that you must leave my premises to-morrow." In the afternoon he continued to follow me again and called abusive names to me on the street. After my supper I went to complainant's store. About half past seven o'clock GALLAGHER came in; I was behind the counter and my daughter asked GALLAGHER what he wanted. He said:

"I want that S-- of a B----," and my daughter told him to leave the store; and LYNCH, who had come to the store with GALLAGHER and waited outside, came in and my daughter asked him what he wanted; he told her it was none of her d----d business. I asked him to leave the store, and he also answered me, "It is none of your d----d business," and he would not leave the store. I also told GALLAGHER to leave the store, and so did my daughter and he (GALLAGHER) said:

"I am going to knock your brains out;" and addressing my daughter he said, "I want that S-- of a B---- of your father." GALLAGHER, addressing me said, "I want to get at you;" he (GALLAGHER) having hold of my daughter by the shoulders and wrangling with her. She was in front of me in order to prevent GALLAGHER from getting at me, and he struck her with his clinched fist two heavy blows---one on her chest and one on her stomach. She fainted in the arms of MRS. WAHL, and the officer came in the store.

I did not touch GALLAGHER or LYNCH, and did nothing to them except telling them to leave the store. They came in under the influence of liquor for the purpose of doing me bodily injury. He (GALLAGHER) had followed me all day after I had put him out of my rooms., He is well known in Harlem as a brute, when drunk; and he is generally under the influence of liquor.

I gave no cause or provocation to GALLAGHER or LYNCH to be scandalized or molested, nor did my daughter or any one else. All the way to the Station House, when GALLAGHER was arrested, he (GALLAGHER) was cursing and swearing at me.

I have heard read the affidavits made by my daughter (the complainant), MRS. WAHL, OSCAR SCHIER, and the same in all respects are true, giving a correct history of what transpired.

I further say that my daughter's health is impaired, and she is in a precarious condition. What the results of the blows inflicted by GALLAGHER will be, the physician is as yet unable to determine. She has suffered considerably and may be permanently injured thereby.

NEW YORK,

Hon. Delancey Nichol,
District Attorney,
New York.

Honored Sir:--

I am a resident of the City and County of New York for the last twenty-two years, and the father of a family of seven living children; not any one of us have ever given the authorities any trouble, and we have always lived a proper life -- becoming a respectable family.

I am sorry now that I must trouble you in the matter of a complaint against one PATRICK GALLAGHER, an ignorant, brutal, drunken man, whose character for such is well known amongst the authorities and residents of Harlem.

I had the misfortune to become a tenant of his, and my daughter, a delicate young girl of twenty years, without any cause or provocation, has been brutally assaulted by that brute, simply in endeavoring to prevent his assaulting me, with another ruffian that he brought to my daughter's store for the express purpose of doing me bodily injury.

I, as a father and a citizen, implore you, as our Prosecuting Attorney, to aid me to bring to justice that man who has caused so much misery, pain, trouble and expense to my family, an irreparable injury to the health and life of my child -- my daughter who was assaulted; her life may be shortened, and for years to come she may suffer from his acts great damage to her health and comfort.

It is in justice to her that I implore upon you to mete out justice and punish this man for the wrongs that he has inflicted, and the injury he did my child; as you will see by the accompanying affidavits of disinterested persons how the assault was committed, and how he dogged me about all day prior to the assault, for the express purpose of doing me, as he has done to others, bodily injury.

He has often boasted of his means and influential friends, being a member of prominent political organizations, and having sufficient means to employ able and influential Counsel, to wit: ^{Civil Justice} JOSEPH P. FALLON, who appeared for him in the Police Court before Police Justice CHARLES WELDE, when he was discharged without the benefit of a written deposition of witnesses, that I was compelled to have these witnesses testimony written out for you to see, and examine the testimony of my witnesses.

The complaint was made on March 1st, before Judge MEAD, and the examination was had on the 27th day of April, when Police Justice WELDE discharged him and dismissed my complaint.

The proceedings were ^{adjourned} from time to time at great expense and annoyance to the complainant and her witnesses, and at no time has she applied for an adjournment except at those times when she was confined to the house and in bed by reason of the assault.

I most humbly ask that your Honorable Sir will render my child and family that justice that she and we, in the name of the people, are entitled to.

Louis Marguiz.

Bookkeeper I have been acquainted with Linda Flynn, now under indictment for grand larceny under the name of Mary Grant above named, for the past 15 years years and I am also acquainted with several member of her family.

I have had numerous opportunities of observing her character and conduct and I can unhesitatingly state that not even the slightest suspicion, as far as I know or have heard has ever been attached to her name which would in the smallest degree reflect on her as a person of strict integrity and honor. Among all who are acquainted with her, she has always borne an excellent reputation and her friends and acquaintances have been astounded at the fact that she could have in some unguarded moment yielded to the temptation of committing said crime. From what I know of her and her family generally, I firmly believe that her act must have been the result of some unaccountable impulse. I believe her to be wholly incapable of doing a dishonest act had she not been influenced by some sudden emotion.

I sincerely believe that the ends of Justice will be best subserved if the Court will in this particular case exercise its clemency and suspend its sentence upon the prisoner.

City and County of New York, SS:-

M a b e l G r a y, being duly sworn, deposes and says:- I am the defendant herein, and resided at the place in the complaint herein mentioned. My arrest was made upon a warrant charging one Fannie Lange with being the proprietress of said premises. At no time was I the proprietress of, nor had I any interest in, said premises, and at the time of my arrest herein and for a long time prior thereto, I lived at 125 W. 28th St., ^{said City} in

One Fannie Lange, who owned the premises, had been indicted for maintaining said establishment as well as for the crime of abduction. When her case was called for trial in this Court, by reason of her failure to appear, her bond for appearance was forfeited. Immediately thereafter, another application for a warrant for the arrest of said Fannie Lange was made and a warrant issued thereunder by Charles N. Taintor, one of the Police Justices of said City, ordering the arrest of said Fannie Lange for keeping said house of ill-fame. That when the officers executing said warrant came to said premises, defendant was therein, and in the absence of said Fannie Lange, who had, at the time, left the jurisdiction of this Court, she permitted the officers to come into said premises, and she was apprehended, and the following morning said Magistrate entertained said complaint against deponent for maintaining said premises, though the day previous he had issued his warrant against said Fannie Lange as being the one that maintained said nuisance. That deponent neither directly nor indirectly received any pecuniary benefit from said business, but simply for about two hours exercised a temporary supervision over said place, there being no one else to watch over the effects of said Fannie Lange therein. That deponent has never been arrested before, and avers, that she is informed and believes, that the nuisance at said place has been abated.
