TESTIMONY.

Officer James Nealis of 17th Dist while on duty last night at 6 P.M. and ~~and~~ first avenue with Officer Mr Donald we heard a rap to the door of his. We went there and saw a crowd at the corner of 11th St. & 1st Avenue. We thought it and entered the drugstore where we saw the body of deceased. We then went to 414 E. 11th St. Real where on the first floor we were told the prisoner was in hiding.
 Knocked for admittance without success when Officer Mr. Donald burst in the door.
 We then entered and found the prisoner with the pistol, which we saw with arms to the Coroner, in his hand. We disarmed and arrested him. He did not resist and gave no explanation other than saying that he wanted to shoot any one who broke in his door.

James Gony of 424 E. 11th. being sworn says: I am bookkeeper at 424 E. 11th for Thomas Gorman. Was attending it yesterday. At about 9 P. M. the prisoner, whom I had not known before, came in and asked me: Is your name James Gony? I answered: Yes, sir. He then said: You owe me fifty dollars to which I replied laughing: sure I am not worth fifty cents. He then said: Show you a piece of paper, which I gave him. He then asked for a pencil which I also gave him. He then wrote a due bill for fifty dollars and asked me to sign it. When I was making out for the paper he took it away from me and tore it up saying that he would make me sore in the morning. I then said: I have never seen you before in my life. What should I owe you fifty dollars for? He answered: for breaking a stove, to which I replied: it must be a good stove for fifty dollars. <sup>He then left the room.</sup> My boss then asked what was the matter and I told him. The boss told me to put up the shutters and I went out for that purpose. In doing so I saw the man standing alongside of the hallway with something in his hand. I then spoke to a young man named Campbell: Look at him, he has got something in his hand. I said this loud enough for the prisoner to hear. I then said to the man: if you hurt me, I will hurt you. The man said nothing at all, but came out and fired at me while I was running backwards and dodging. I pulled out my pistol and fired at him while still running away and the prisoner following me. After I fired he turned and entered the hallway leading to his house. Officer Becker then came across the street and I told him where the man had gone and what had happened. Subsequently I went to the stationhouse. The prisoner was partially drunk. The deceased girl had a pistol of hers in her hand when she was shot. She did not get hurt but at and please did not know the dead girl.

William Ellenich 414 E 11th St being sworn says I knew James Foley for 5 years. I knew Maggie Kins by sight. I knew the prisoner because he lived in the same house with me.

On Sept. 25, 1881. I came down 11th St from 1st Ave with Dennis Campbell. we were going to my house while standing there James Foley came out and said there is a man in there says I owe him fifty dollars. while he was talking the man came out of the hallway. I saw it was the prisoner John McCusker. Foley said to him here is the man says I owe him 50 dollars. The man drew back a step or so and said. Foley said to him if you interfere with me I'll hurt you. the man drew back further and Foley backed up the street rapidly the man ran out of the hallway and fired at Foley. I saw the pistol. in 20 seconds or so a shot came from Foley.

Just then some one said to Foley look out or you will step on the little girl's hand.

Archie Campbell. 425 E 12th St. being sworn says - I know James Foley for 5 years. I know Maggie Rini by sight. I never saw the prisoner before the night of Sept 25.

I was standing with William Blane at his door after coming down the street. While then ~~James~~ <sup>James</sup> Foley came out. ~~white~~ and said to us there is a man in there says I owe him fifty dollars. While he was talking the man spoken of (the prisoner) came out and Foley said there is the man that says I owe him 50 dollars. - The man stood in the hallway and said nothing but kept looking at him. and pulled back in the hallway a few steps.

Foley said If you hurt me I'll hurt you. The man was fumbling around his clothes. Foley backed away from him. The man then stepped out of the hallway and Foley turned and ran from him.

Then the prisoner fired a pistol at Foley. There was the width of a house between them. Then Foley fired at the prisoner.

There was a little girl going up the steps

~~the~~ I never saw the prisoners before.

On Sept. 25. 1881 about 10 $\frac{1}{2}$  P.M. I was looking out of my window

I saw Maggie Kuier standing on her stoop 400. going up stairs when a shot came up from the avenue a side and killed Maggie.

I heard a loud pistol shot first and a small one after.

The child fell at the first shot.

I saw the flash of the first pistol shot. must have come about 3 doors from me. I saw no persons on the street at the time except the little girl.

Officers came and took charge of the girl - they also found a man into a neighboring house in a hallway to a

Officer John McDonald 17th Precinct being sworn says on Sept. 28. Was on 1st duty on duty - about 10th P.M. I heard a rap. an officer ~~He~~ went with me we went down to where the rap came from. A citizen told me a man shot a girl at 414 E 11th St.
 Officer Neale & Puckis went then with me the man was in the rear house second floor facing on the yard.

We demanded admission, a man's voice said if you don't go away from there I'll shoot you. we had told him we were officers. we rapped on the door with our sticks. and I kicked in the door. I saw the prisoner standing in the bed room door, which was in the rear of his sitting room. He had a pistol in his hand by his side just as he kind of raised it. I caught the pistol by the cylinder. ~~he~~ I was going to strike him when he said, All right. I'll give up.
 We arrested him. I identify the pistol in the corner's possession as the one taken from the prisoner. we examined the pistol in the station house and found one chamber empty.

The prisoner was excited and somewhat under the

I made a Post mortem examination on the body of Maggie Hines on Sept. 26. 1881 at 410 E 11th St. in presence of Coroner Thomas C. Rupp. Drs. E. J. Smith and T. C. Funnell Jr.

I found a bullet wound in the left temporal region also a corresponding bullet wound in the right parietal bone.

The course of the bullet was through the substance of the brain.

There was also extensive fracture of the cranial bone.

From the extensive injuries found death was very rapid and due to shock.

Q Were you present at the marriage of Mary E. Maloney and Thomas F. McLaughlin, the defendant, (now here) on the 4th day of October, 1879?

A I was. Mary E. Maloney is my sister and she was married to said Thomas F. McLaughlin, in my presence, at the residence the minister No. 101 Keppeler Street, in the City and County of New York.

Q. on the 4th day of October 1879.
 Do you not recollect of the ministers' marriage?
 A. Do you know whether they lived <sup>and cohabited</sup> together as man and wife?

A. They did. About two weeks after their marriage they kept house and lived together on the 4th floor of premises No. 35 Lewis Street, New York City, and I boarded with them at that place for about a year. During the time I boarded there he, Mr. Laughlin, acknowledged and introduced said Mary to the other residents of said house and to visitors as his wife. I know

A. Sarah Love, age 18. residence
No. 123 Avenue D, and by occupation a cigar box packer.

Q. How long have you known Thomas B. M. Laughlin, here present?

A. About two years.

Q. Do you know Mary L. Baillie, (now here)?

A. Yes. Became acquainted with her about four years ago.

Q. Were you present at a marriage ceremony between Thomas B.
M. Laughlin and Mary L. Baillie? on the 17th day of July 1881.

A. I was.

Q. Where and by whom was said ceremony performed?

A. At the residence of a minister at No. 108 Livingston Street, New York City, I believe that his name is Rusche. I was 0191

present at the marriage and stood up with them and signed a paper as a witness.

Q. At the time of said marriage, did you know that said Mr. Laughlin was previously married?

A. I did.

Q. How did you know that?

A. For the reason that I knew his wife by the first marriage, and know that he and said first wife lived together as a man and wife at premises at No. 35 Lewis Street, in this city.
