Indictment filed February 3, 1892.
 Indicted for grand larceny in the second degree.

New York, February 8, 1892.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the People,
 Assistant District-Attorney Henry E. McDona;
 For the Defendant,
 Jacob Berlinger, Esq.

RICHARD WALBERG, a witness for the People, being duly sworn, testified:

I reside at No. 1596 Main Street, West Farms.
 I know the defendant Patrick Butler. He was a lodger in my house. We had breakfast on the morning of the 25th.
 of January at about half past six. He was at breakfast and remained there when I went out to my work. It was customary for him to come into the kitchen to get his breakfast. My wife was in the kitchen preparing breakfast when he came in. Before I went out I left $51 in money upon the kitchen table. The bills were in two twenties, one ten and a one dollar bill. I left it on the table for my wife to take care of. I called her attention to it before I went out. I went out to my work and came back in about an hour and a half. When I came back the money had disappeared. I made a complaint to the Police.

MICHAEL BRADY, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer attached to the 34th Precinct. In company with another officer I arrested this defendant and took him to the West Farms' Station House. I went around and found out where he had been spending the money. As a result of my investigations I found that he had spent considerable money in the saloons up in that neighborhood. When he is sober he is employed as a laboring man. In addition to his having spent large amounts of money, I found that he was seen in the possession of a large amount of money. The defendant admitted to me that he had $51 which he said he found on Conway's coal-scales which are situated about 300 feet from where the complainant lives. The denominations of the bills which he found were two twenties, one ten and a one dollar bill. I asked him what he proposed to do with it and he said he was about to look for an owner for the money when he was arrested. He had one twenty dollar bill in his possession at the time I arrested him. The substance of the conversation I had with him was that he had found the money and had spent it. I went to the place where the scales were. I had often seen them before.

ELIZABETH WOLBERG, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am the wife of the complainant. I live at 1596 Main Street, West Farms. I remember the morning of the 25th. of January at half past six o'clock. The defendant at that time came to his breakfast. My husband when he was leaving the breakfast table told me that he had just left some money on the table for me. While I was getting the breakfast ready the defendant left the house.

Cross-examination:

I keep four boarders in that house. The defendant was the first one of the four to come down on that morning. I was busy at the stove cooking the breakfast during the time the defendant was in the room. I didn't see him remove the money.

OTTO SCHMIDT, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 2041 Boston Road in this city. I know the defendant Patrick Butler. On the 25th. of January he came into my saloon at about 12 o'clock. He treated everybody that was there. He gave me a twenty dollar bill and asked me to save it for him until the next day. He didn't tell me where he got the money. I afterwards returned that twenty dollar bill to Mr. Wolberg by order of the Judge. Afterwards an officer came there and inquired from me if I saw the defendant have much money and I told him just what I had seen in the possession of the defendant. I told the police all I knew about the case.

DEFENSE:

PATRICK BUTLER, the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am a laboring man. I have heard all the testimony in this case. I had no breakfast on the morning of the 25th. of January. I was in the kitchen on that morning. I didn't see any of the money that has been spoken of. The money which was in my possession I found between our house and Mr. Conway's coal-scale on that same morning. I went to a saloon and had a drink and came back again and took a wash. I had my breakfast afterwards. I am positive that I saw no money upon the table on that morning. I didn't steal any money out of that house. I did give the twenty-dollar bill to the bar-tender as he has testified here. When I found the money I put it in my pocket and didn't say anything to anybody about it. I treated several people in the saloon and when I was arrested I told the officer exactly where I had found the money.

The Jury returned a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace
OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK

against

Patrick Butler

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Patrick Butler

of the CRIME OF GRAND LARCENY IN THE second DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said Patrick Butler

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the 30th day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms,

$51.00 two promissory notes for the payment of money of the kind commonly called United States Treasury Notes, of the denomination and value of twenty dollars each; two promissory notes for the payment of money of the kind commonly called Bank Notes, of the denomination and value of twenty dollars each; two United States Gold Certificates, of the denomination and value of twenty dollars each; two United States Silver Certificates, of the denomination and value of twenty dollars each;

one promissory note for the payment of money, of the kind commonly called United States Treasury Notes, of the denomination and value of ten dollars; one promissory note for the payment of money of the kind commonly called Bank Notes, of the denomination and value of ten dollars; one United States Gold Certificate, of the denomination and value of ten dollars; one United States Silver Certificate, of the denomination and value of ten dollars;

one promissory note for the payment of money, of the kind commonly called United States Treasury Notes, of the denomination and value of one dollar; one promissory note for the payment of money of the kind commonly called Bank Notes, of the denomination and value of one dollar; one United States Gold Certificate, of the denomination and value of one dollar; one United States Silver Certificate, of the denomination and value of one dollar;

of the goods, chattels and personal property of one Richard Wohlberg, the younger then and there being found, then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

AND THE GRAND JURY AFORESAID, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Patrick Butler

of the CRIME OF CRIMINALLY RECEIVING STOLEN PROPERTY, committed as follows:

The said Patrick Butler

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, the same goods, chattels and personal property described in the first count of this indictment

[Large handwritten flourish]

of the goods, chattels and personal property of one Richard Wohlberg the younger

by a certain person or persons to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, then lately before feloniously stolen, taken and carried away from the said Richard Wohlberg the younger unlawfully and unjustly did feloniously receive and have; the said

Patrick Butler

then and there well knowing the said goods, chattels and personal property to have been feloniously stolen, taken and carried away, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

DE LANCEY NICOLL,

District Attorney.
