PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,
VERSUS

John Lunn

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

The defendant has made complete restitution of the property stolen. He has never been arrested before, and I am informed, and has always borne a good character. He informs me that on the night that the property was taken, he and several companions had been indulging in intoxicants, and that the taking of the property was a drunken freak on his part. He has been in steady employment both before and since the occurrence.
