The People
 vs.
 Thomas Allen } Court of General Sessions, Part I.
 Before Judge Gildersleeve Feb. 20. 1882. Indictment for burglary in the third degree Thomas Foley, sworn and examined. I live at 250 East Fifty sixth st. the first floor back, I never saw the defendant before I caught him at the door; it was about 2 o'clock on the 30th of January, the day he was arrested. The Thursday before the day on which he was arrested my rooms were broken into. Upon the day in question I went in the yard and my wife went out, then I locked myself in the room, I was not locked in the room ten minutes, until I heard somebody at the door as if picking a lock, I got excited, and so I went over to the door myself and I opened the door, I saw the prisoner with something in his hand. As soon as I opened the door he ran down the stairs, I fired a rolling pin at him I chased him two blocks in Fifty seventh st. between Second and Third avenues, the police officer was there; the public school was going out, and the police officer came running down and he arrested him, I don't know what the prisoner said, he said his name was Allen.

I charged him with attempting to get into my ~~room~~ room by picking the lock; he did not say anything but went to the station house and then to the Court Cross Examined. My wife is in Court. The prisoner's wife says she is not married to him, I knew she was stopping at 474 East Seventy Fourth St., I did not know he was living there, I was arrested once for being in Tweed's old building; they made a raid upon the "bums." I do not remember anything about a murder being committed in that place; it was a vacant building. That was the only time I was arrested. I worked for my father in the newspaper business, I left the house that morning about four o'clock. It is not true that the prisoner came to my door and knocked at it and I opened it. I did not knock him down stairs.

Charles Farney sworn and examined. I live at 926 Third Avenue, I am in the coal and wood business, I saw the prisoner upon that day about three quarters of an hour previous to my going into this man's house on the corner of Fifty sixth St. and Third Avenue standing by the drug store against the railing. I did not know where

He was living till I was informed by detective Tucker. He was every now and then looking at that man's door, at least the front door I saw Foley's wife, this man's reputed wife and another young lady leave Foley's house about 1/4 to 3 in the afternoon. I heard of the attempt at burglary about 3 o'clock.
 Cross Examined. I live at 926 Third ave.; I was in my place of business opposite Foley's house 210 East Fifty sixth st. I saw the prisoner picking at the lock of Mr. Foley's door and in a second afterwards he came out of the door running and Foley after him. I followed in the car up to Second Avenue and Fifty fifth st. down to Third Avenue and jumped on a car, and about half ways up in Fifty seventh st. I saw the officer standing on this side, I overtook and caught him and I kept him there until the officer came. I never saw Allen before that day I was requested to watch the door. The prisoner came down running very fast and the complainant running very fast after him.
 I did not see the complainant strike him.
 Annie Foley, sworn and examined. I am the wife of the complainant. I left the house that day with the prisoner's wife some time after one o'clock, and he ran around the corner when he seen me to the drug store Robert Walsh sworn. I arrested the defendant in Fifty seventh st. between Second and Third Avenue; he was charged with attempting to break into Foley's place picking the lock; he said he did not intend to break in. When I got him to the station house Foley accused him of stealing a suit of clothes worth twenty dollars a week before; he said he did not steal the clothes.

Thomas Allen, sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified. I am 23 years old, I live at 74th street with my wife and mother. I did not try to pick the lock of the complainant's door. I went down to his house to see my wife, I knocked at the door and got no answer, I was down two or three steps where some one came behind me and struck me with a club. I fell down the stairs and I ran out as far as the corner and he after me, I stopped and asked him what was the matter? so he commenced to hit me with a club. I ran as far as 57th st. and a whole crowd got around me, I stayed there until the officer came and arrested me; he made the charge, I told him to look through my pockets, I told him I had nothing about me, I had no intention of doing him harm.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of an attempt at burglary in the third degree and recommended him to mercy.

He was sentenced to the penitentiary for six months.

Testimony in the case of Alexander Barker

filed Feb 1882

24
 The People vs. Alexander Barber } Court of General Sessions, Part I Before Judge Leaning. March 6. 1882 Indictment for robbery in the first degree.
 Deborah Simay sworn and examined through the interpreter. I live 51 Bayard St.; we keep a liquor saloon there, I know the prisoner.
 Let her tell the whole story of his coming in to her store about the beginning of February last and trying to rob her and fire a pistol?
 My husband went away somewhere and I remained alone in the liquor store behind the counter, and he (the prisoner) came in and asked for a drink; he had been in several times before and asked for drinks; he always disputed about paying for the drinks, he did not want to pay this time I told him to pay first and then I would give him the drink, and he said, "If you don't give it to me I will shoot you." As soon as he said he would shoot me, I commenced to run, I ran in the rear of the store to see if I could see my husband, and in the mean time he fired a shot; the shot went into a picture in the wall, it did not strike me; he fired at me, I got confused, I ran back to the bar. In the mean time my husband came in when I ran back, the prisoner jumped to get hold of the till, the money drawer. In the mean time my husband and others came into the store after they heard the noise and they prevented him from taking the money, so that my husband got hold of the money and put it in his pocket. The prisoner had his hand in the till and my husband pushed him away and got the money. I ran out in the street and cried for help. I ran towards Essex St. and there I found a policeman; he was running away and the policeman caught him. Some one took the pistol from him and my clerk came afterwards; he was away to get his dinner; the clerk took possession of the pistol; there was about ten dollars in money in the till.

Cross Examined - It was after twelve o'clock in the day time that the defendant came in, he used to come in the store, I have known him a couple of months, I chased him out once and told him I did not want him to come into the store any more; the same time I refused to give him a drink he pulled out the pistol; he demanded a drink, but he did not demand the money in the till. Then I refused to give him the drink he immediately fired after me, I was running at the time. It was about two or three o'clock when he was arrested, caught by the police in Essex or Ludlow St. I was informed by some people James McQuire, sworn and examined, testified.

I know the defendant, I saw him while under arrest, this lady told me something; he was arrested on the charge of assaulting a man in the Bivery by another officer in the 10th precinct.
I don't know anything about this case; the officer who arrested him is not in Court; the complainant did not go to the Station house and make a complaint for robbery; the prisoner was arrested on the 2nd of February about two or three o'clock I believe it was.
Judas Siray, sworn and examined through the interpreter. I know the defendant, I heard a pistol shot, and I ran into the store; the prisoner tried to run around the counter and I prevented him; the other people came into the store; he was making great trouble and I sent out for a policeman. People came to tell me that I should let him go because my life will be in danger. Then he hit me two or three times in the mouth and ran away; he tried to get the money; my bar tender took the money; he had his head already on the other side of the counter. Cross Examined. It was an open drawer standing on the counter; the prisoner did not have his hand in the drawer, he was prevented, he was arrested by the detectives, I did not make a complaint. I told it the same day to the detective, I don't know his name.

Alexander Barber, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I came into that store about one o'clock in 51 Bayard St, I had three or four dollars in my pocket and I was drunk. I treated two or three friends in there and I walked out and went to the corner of Bowery and Canal St. and I was arrested on a charge of assault and battery, fighting with a driver. Did you have any pistol there with you in the store? No sir. No one took a pistol away from you? No sir. You did not fire any shot there? No sir. Nor did not undertake to get any money out of the till? No sir. You heard what that girl said, and what she says is not true? It is not true. Cross Examined.
 That girl? This woman. This woman sitting there who was on the stand? Yes sir. I was in the store of the complainant on that day, but I did not fire a shot, I did not attempt to rob them, I did not run away; the fellow in there was trying to take me to my own house where I used to sell cigars 78 Forsythe St. I had a fight with a driver on the corner of Bowery and Canal Sts. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of an attempt at petty larceny.
