My dear Sir:-

I am pleased to enclose resolutions adopted by our recent Convention at St. Paul, and beg to extend my personal congratulations on your prospective entire recovery.

Very truly,

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED

BY THE

FOURTEENTH ANNUAL CONVENTION

LEAGUE OF AMERICAN MUNICIPALITIES

ST. PAUL

WHEREAS, the League of American Municipalities, representing in its organization a range of one hundred and fifty cities, is now assembled in St. Paul for the purpose of conducting its fourteenth annual convention; and

WHEREAS, the matter of the attempted assassination of Hon. William J. Gaynor, Mayor of New York, has been brought officially to the attention of this League; and

WHEREAS, it is the pleasure as well as duty of this League, in so far as its powers permit, to take suitable action wherever a dastardly assault is made upon the life or reputation of any worthy municipal official,

BE IT RESOLVED by the League of American Municipalities, that its profoundest sympathy be and is hereby extended to the distinguised Mayor of New York in this hour of his physical suffering; be it further

RESOLVED, that the League denounces the act as being most monstrous; and it extends to Mayor Gaynor, to his family, and to the people of New York its sincere hope that the wounded Mayor will soon be restored to his public activities, in order that he may still further promote his excellent municipal work; be it further

RESOLVED, that it is the sense of this League that Mayor Gaynor's courage and loyal devotion to public duty are of themselves of so much practical value to the municipal history of this republic that they cannot be too highly commended, especially as his aims, purposes and effort particularly embody the principles for which this League stands and for which it is working; be it further

RESOLVED, that a copy of this resolution be sent to Mayor Gaynor by the Secretary of this League.

To the Mayor:-

In Common with all the people my heart goes out to you in this, your hour of suffering with the profound hope that your speedy recovery is at hand.

After the dastardly attempt upon your life and during the days following I often thought of the letter I heard you dictate one day, while I was at your office, about the Children, and I thought how could any man find it in his heart to strike down one who was so clearly well meaning of all of God's Children both large and small. Hoping that you will soon be around again I remain

Very respectfully

Greatness

(The per capita tax for the Federal Government under John Quincy Adams was 50 cents a year. Under Taft's first year it was $13.55. Lincoln in his first year personally cost the nation $29,980. Taft this year will personally cost the nation $319,000.—Representative Sherwood of New Jersey.)

Tax growth, two thousand odd per cent:
Since J. Q. A. 'Tis grave.
We're buying much more government
Than either Adams gave.

Now, which have you a preference for—
Forgive the cynic shaft—
A lean and hungry Lincoln, or
A blooming, well-fed Taft?

We're sending billions up the spout
In gilding Freedom's ark;
This nation's greatness none can doubt
Who knows the Dollar Mark! J. A.

Eulogy On The Dog

By Senator Vest of Missouri

Gentlemen of the Jury-The best friend a man has in this world may turn against him and become his enemy. His son or daughter that he has reared with loving care may prove ungrateful. Those who are nearest and dearest to us, those whom we trust with our happiness and our good name, may become traitors to their faith. The money that a man has he may lose. It flies away from him, perhaps when he needs it most. A man's reputation may be sacrificed in a moment of ill-considered action. The people who are prone to fall on their knees to do us honor when success is with us may be the first to throw the stone of malice when failure settles it's cloud upon our heads. The one absolute, unselfish friend that man can have in this selfish world, the one that never deserts him, the one that never proves ungrateful or treacherous, is his dog.

Gentlemen of the Jury, a man's dog stands by him in prosperity and in poverty, in health and in sickness. He will sleep on the cold ground, where the wintry winds blow and the snow drives fiercely, if only he can be near his master's side. He will kiss the hand that has no food to offer, he will lick the wounds and sores that come in encounter with the roughness of the world. He guards the sleep of his pauper master as if he were a prince. When all other friends desert he remains. When riches take wings and reputation falls to pieces he is as constant in his love as the sun in it's journey through the heavens If fortune drives the master forth an outcast in the world, friendless and homeless, the faithful dog asks no higher privilege than that of accompanying him to guard against danger, to fight against his enemies, and when the last scene of all comes, and death takes the master in it's embrace and his body is laid away in the cold ground, no matter if all other friends pursue their way, there by his graveside will the noble dog be found, his head between his paws, his eyes sad but open in alert watchfulness, faithful and true even to death.

An Wundermärchen glaubt niemand mehr
Die verbreitet waren im Weltenwähr,
Indem die Physig und die Chemie
Widerlegen logischer weise sie.—

Selbst in der modernen schönen Zeit
Wo Kultur sich ausdehnt weit und breit,
Erscheint ein himmlischer Hoffnungstrahl
Und dem folgt ein Wunder abermal,—

An den Bülletins staunt die neue Welt
Wie sich der Zustand des Mayors verhält,
Der geschossen war vom Frevlerhand
In diesem freien wunderbaren Land.

Er war ein Opfer seiner Reformen
Der Fides schuff in neuen Normen,
Er bleibt für immer ein Muster der Zeit
Mit ihm kamen wir noch sehr und sehr weit.

Die Kugel ist im Hals eingedrungen
Den Lenon ist es aber nicht gelungen,
Weil die Kugel kan keinen Man tödten
Der nur die Wahrheit will vertreten.

Hier war ein finger Gottes im Spiele
Der verhelfen will dem Man zum Ziele,
Damit er Missstände verbessern kan
Liess Er am Leben unsern gerechten Man.

Auch jetzt sind die Wünder nicht aufgehoben
Weil die Macht des Schöpfers waltet droben,

Weil die Stadt braucht ihm ein für allemal.
