Filed March

4-1
 The People vs James Talley } Court of General Sessions. Part I.
 Indictment for grand larceny. Before Judge Cowing. March 19, 1885.

Pierre Gancous, sworn. I live at 296 Bowers. On the 16th of Feb. the defendant came and asked me if Alexander was there at 7 o'clock, and I told him he was down stairs in the cellar. I did not see him go down stairs. I saw after five minutes that the man ran out with a coat in his right hand and a pocket book in his left hand. I am the proprietor of the coat and Mr. Alexander is the owner of the money $50. The coat is valued at eight dollars. I saw the defendant running out of the house with the overcoat and pocket book. I bought the overcoat for fifteen dollars and I used it about six months. Did you give it to him or did he steal it? No sir, I did not give it to him. I am sure that this is the man. Cross Examined. I saw the coat in his right hand and the pocket book in the left hand and he ran out. I did not catch him. I did not see the coat on his back. There was that coat before you saw it on his right arm? It was down in the cellar, and the coat he took the money from was in the basement.

John Alexander sworn and examined, through the interpreter. Where does he live? No 296 Bowery. What did he lose on the 16th of Feb.? Eighty dollars. Where were the eighty dollars? I had it in my vest pocket. Who took it? This man took it, the prisoner. State the circumstances under which he took it? The day before he saw my money in the morning, and the next day he came down and took it and ran away. It was his money? Yes sir. Cross Examined. Ask him whether he saw him take the money? Yes sir. How did he take it, where had he the money when he saw it in his possession? He took it out of the vest pocket. Ask him whether he was not asleep in this room? He was in bed, but I did not sleep when he came down. And he saw him with the money, with the pocket book in his possession, do I understand him to say that? I saw it in his hand running away with it, I could not catch him. I jumped out but he was gone. Was the coat hanging up on the wall with the money? It was hanging on the wall not far from my bed.

James Walley, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified: What is your business? I am bar tender. For whom did you last work? I was working at a restaurant, the last time, I was working down in Eleventh avenue. For whom? For Mr. Bergen. Were you ever arrested before? Never. Did you take this pocket book or the overcoat? I did not, the overcoat was loaned to me. By whom? by the first witness Mr. Gancous? Yes sir. State the circumstances of the loss? I went down, I have known him intimately for about twelve months and he was down in Chatham St., he had a stand down there, and now he has moved up to the Buxery. I used to go to see him very often and stop with him. On the night in question I stopped with him and he came down and he went to bed and went to sleep. The other fellow was standing up minding the stand. After I had smoked a cigar out I took the coat up and I asked the first witness whether he would hold the coat for me. He held the coat and I put it on. I went up and took the cigar at the stand and lit

It and went away. Since then I never saw any more of him until a fortnight after. I was arrested in a theatre. I did not take this pocket book or overcoat.

Cross Examined. I called with a person the day before upon Mr. Alexander to buy some cigars. My friend did not offer a five dollar bill to him. Mr. Alexander did not take out a roll of bills in my presence. Mr. Alexander was asleep when I left the place and the first witness was up stairs minding the stand. I had no quarrel with them and there is no reason I can see why they should charge me with stealing.

James J. Hart sworn. I am an officer of the 14th Precinct. Mr. Alexander reported the loss at the station house and gave a description of the man. I think it was the 24th of Feb. when I arrested him in the National Theatre on the Buxey. One of the parties identified the coat he wore as his coat; the prisoner said it was a cold night and that these parties let him have the ~~coat~~ ^{coat} ~~love~~ ^{love} of the coat.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

Archibald Nasson

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

The defendant having made restitution, full and complete - and being informed, and knowing it is his first offence, and also for the further reason that he has a young wife and child, I believe that his family will suffer if the defendant should be further punished -

Friday, March 13, 1885.

Indictment for attempt at grand larseny in the second degree

~~Neil O'Brien~~

Neil O'Brien. Sworn. I live in 144th street and Willis Ave.

I was in the city of New York on the fourth of March last,

I was standing in the Bowery half-past three o'clock in the afternoon; there was a friend of mine and Micheal White, the prisoner was standing alongside of me. The defendant put his hand in that position, one hand up here and the other hand over that way and pulled my watch-chain and watch up that far (illustrating). I was standing between my friend and the prisoner, I was looking where the crowd was standing

I am positive the defendant is the man, the watch was worth twenty-eight dollars and was my property Cross Examined.

I never saw the prisoner before that day, I suppose there were about twenty-five people surrounding me that day; my friend's name was Henry Gunney. Out of twenty-five people

I identify the defendant as the one who attempted to take my watch. He tried to pull the watch out of my pocket with his right hand when I caught him. I asked him what he was doing was he trying to steal my watch? he said no. Then I ran a way from him, I went out through the crowd and met an officer he was a roundsman in the Bowery. By the time I got the roundsman up the defendant was gone. So I started and walk-up the Bowery four or five blocks from that place and he was behind me, coming up all the time. As soon as I met another officer, I told him that a man had attempted to steal my watch, and I wanted him arrested. I watched him right along till he came up near a Museum.

COUNT OF GENERAL RECORDS, BUREAU 1

John Campbell, sworn. I am an officer of the fourteenth precinct and ^{em} remember the fourth of March; the previous witness asked me to arrest the prisoner and I did so. I arrested him between Spring and Prince streets, on the Bowery. What did the complainant say to you that caused you to arrest the prisoner? He asked me-he stopped me going on patrol and told me there was a man down the street at the Museum near Spring street that attempted to take his watch further down the Bowery, I went down to where he said he was, and arrested him.
Did the complainant the man that has just left the witness-box, fully identify the man that you arrested? Yes sir.
Is that the man whom you arrested now here on trial? Yes sir. Cross Examined. Did the complainant state to you where this alleged attempt to take this watch and chain take place? I asked him, he said he could not exactly say about the street, it was on the Bowery seven or eight blocks further down. I was looking for the officers on the Bowery.
There was one officer from Hester to Bleeker street in the fourteenth precinct and I was going to see him, he was up at the upper end of the precinct I was going to see him. There is not one or two officers always on the corner and Bowery; there is one supposed to be there, but sometimes he is at court with a prisoner. Do you want this jury to understand that there is not continually, morning and night a policeman at the corner of Grand street and Bowery? to protect passengers? There is one officer sent there from the tenth precinct is he not there continually? He is there except the is at court with a prisoner which he often gets there? When he is away is there another officer to take his place? No sir, there is not, except the officer on post comes along and stops in his place. I am acquainted with another officer, officer Hughes; he is stationed there.

 member the day of my arrest, I understand what I am charged with, I heard the complainant testify, I did not steal his watch. The morning of the day that I was arrested I came down town with a friend of mine. I was not working this day and I was going to buy a hat; so the both of us spent the day together, and coming on the afternoon I started on my way home, going along the Bowery by myself. There is a Museum near Houston street, and this young man was coming along along and I saw the officer with him; he came towards me and charged me with trying to take his chain or watch from his pocket. So I went to the station-house and I was locked up till the morning. I never saw this man before in my life, he came up to me, there was some other man with him, he says I happened to stop him in some crowd, I did not stop in any

 I was going on my way up to Houston Street to the train to go
