PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Samuel Francis.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

I have known the defendant for many, many years, since he was a child, we are from the same place at home and I do not desire to have an indictment found against him and I desire to withdraw the complaint. The defendant has always had a good character.

POLICE COURT, / DISTRICT.

Charles B Carpenter

of No. 74 Wall Street, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 22nd day of July 1889

at the City of New York, in the County of New York, Samuel Francis

(now here) with intent to defraud, did make utter and forge an instrument or writing purporting to be the act of another by which a pecuniary demand or obligation is or purports to be or have been created, increased or discharged or in any manner affected in violation of Section 511 of the Penal Code. For the reasons that on said day the defendant presented to the Seaman's Bank for Savings at 74 Wall Street, a bank book, the property of Charles Francis and the annexed check or order for the payment of money purporting to be drawn by the said Charles Francis for the sum of Twenty dollars which sum was paid to the defendant by said Bank upon the belief that said signature was genuine and that the defendant was authorized to receive the same. Depoener is informed by Charles Francis (now here) that he Charles, never drew said check and that the signature thereon purporting to be that of said Charles is not his signature, and that he never authorized any person to

to draw said money.

Deponent is further informed by said Charles and Michael J. Hyman (now here) Detective Sergeants, that the defendant acknowledged and confessed to them that he wrote said check and presented the same to said Bank and received the said sum of Twenty dollars and ~~then~~ ~~proceeded~~ appropriated the same to his own use.

of New York,

Kate Klibowsky

of No. 82 Attorney Street, aged 32 years, occupation Dressmaker being duly sworndeposes and says, that on the 19th day of September 1889 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the night time, the following property viz:

Three gold watches & two gold chains

One silver watch & one silver chain

One gold locket & one pair of bracelets

One pair of gold earrings

Altogether of the value of two hundred Dollars

the property of: deponent & her two sisters, in care and charge of deponent.

and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Isaac Friedman (now here) from

The facts: On said night, the said property was in a tinbox in the bureau in the above premises. The said deponent, who was lodging with deponent was sleeping in a room adjoining the room where said property was in the bureau. Defendant's bed stood in front of the door leading into this room, the door could not be opened without removing said bed & a bolt on said door. On the side of deponent's room, deponent is informed by her sister Esther Chajek, now there present that at the hour of half past one O'clock A.M. she heard a noise in the room and beheld the defendant, striking
