PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT,
VERSUSWarren C. Bary

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. That the sum of five hundred dollars which the defendant obtained from ~~deponent~~ ^{deponent} has been returned to ~~deponent~~ ^{deponent} by defendant. That since the time when the money was paid by deponent deponent has suffered a loss of memory so that the details of the transaction have ~~entirely~~ ^{substantially} been obliterated from his mind. That this misfortune has seriously affected deponent in his affairs so that he has not been able to transact business as he formerly did. Deponent has been ^{informed} ~~informed~~ that the defendant Bary has heretofore sustained an excellent character for honesty & industry & believes that this was his first offense against the law.

Friend McCabe

I am very much interested in the case of the son of an old personal friend of mine, John Bernius, of Clinton Street. His name is George W. Bernius, and is defendant in a case now on the calendar for trial in Part 1, General Sessions, set down for Friday next, the 22nd inst.

If you can consistently have the case postponed until I come in to New York, you will confer a great favor on me, and I don't think any one will suffer thereby. Try and have this done and you will greatly oblige,

Very truly Yours,

Dear Sir -

Your note of the 27th pertaining to young William Hayden was received. I have known the young man about two years. ^{He} was a member of the Press Club, and was attempting to make a living at literary work. I think he mistook his vocation, and that he found it very difficult to get along in the literary field. This mistake, I think, was the root of his trouble. That is to say, he could not make a fair living in that field. I always regarded him as a person who would be likely to make an honest living. I never knew him to use liquors - though possibly I may have seen him drink a glass of beer occasionally. My judgment is that he would be a ^{fitting} member of the Press Club.

Dear Sir.-

Yours of Sep. 27th received.

In reply I would say that the general character of William Hodgson has been good. This trouble is the first that I have known him to be connected with. I have known him ever since he was a child. Have worked with him in Sunday School & Church matters, and he has always been honest & upright. I know his parents well, they are both respectable Christians, and William has had the right training. I can only account for his fall in one way. He has been enticed from the path of rectitude by some evil person. I would urge you by all influence in your power to save him from Prison, and do as he requests send him to a Reformatory Institution, and by so doing give him a chance to make a man of himself. I would say that I have written this letter without any consultation with his people or friends, and only in answer to your letter of Sep. 27.

If anything further is required that I can do please advise me.

Yours very truly
 Wm. J. Burns.
