City and County } of New York, } ss.:of No. 80 Cedar Street Brooklyn Frank Boyland Street, aged 24 years, occupation Conductor being duly sworndeposes and says, that on the 21st day of June 1897 at the City of NewYork, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession and person of deponent, in the night time, the following property, viz:A silver watch of the value of twenty dollarsthe property of deponentand that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Harry Vanness (now here) for the following reasons, to wit:—

Deponent was in the bar attached to the Atlantic Hotel on the corner of Olive Street and New Bowery, when he was approached by defendant who seized the watch then in the lower left pocket of the vest worn upon the person of deponent at the time, which said watch he had detached from the chain then on said vest, and ran away. Deponent further says, he has been informed by Officer George P. Barker of the Fourth Precinct that he arrested defendant with said watch in his possession.Sworn to before me, this day 1897

Police Justice.

0096

Deponent further says, - he identifies said watch found on defendant by said Officer, as the watch he had worn on his person, and stolen by defendant, in the manner aforesaid.

Wherefore, deponent charges defendant with larceny, stealing and carrying away said property from his person and possession.
