v
James Gillen
and
Patrick Burns } Court of General Sessions. Part First.
Before Judge Cowing. Dec. 19. 1883.
Indictment for petty larceny.

Asher T. Meyer, sworn and examined.
Where do you reside? No 1304 Fifth Avenue.
What is your business? I am Secretary of the American Manufacturing Co. What is the nature of the business of that Company?
Metal goods of all sorts. I was connected with that Company on the 3d day of this month
and had in my custody a quantity of brass Tops. Did you at any time miss any of these?
Yes sir, I missed them frequently from time to time. Were you present when the prisoners at the bar were arrested? Yes sir. Did they make any statement to you or to any person
in your presence at the time of the arrest?
They made a statement in the presence of myself and the officer, and they confessed that they had taken these things every night more or less, and that they sold them to a man on Thirteenth St. a junk dealer. Did they say at any time how much they took on this particular occasion?
On this particular occasion they took nine pounds, one six and the other three; one got 35 and the other 18 cents. They also made this statement in the Court.

0074

Cross examined. Do you know a boy of the name of George Lins? Yes sir. Does he work in that shop? Yes sir. Did you have any conversation with him that day? Yes sir. I did not tell him if he did not disclose who stole the articles that I would lock him up in the shop over night. I held out no inducements and made no threats.

Abraham F. Gaskell sworn. I am foreman in the employ of the Manhattan Manufacturing Co. I heard the boys acknowledge that they stole the brass. I was sent for to go down to the office. Mr. Meyers and the detective were there. I heard nobody make any threats against them. I went up with the detective and pointed the boys out.

George Lins sworn and examined. I am 13 years old and am employed by the American Manufacturing Co. I know the prisoners; they were employed there. I saw them on the 3d of the month. They took the brass - six pounds. I went with them to sell it; they took it to a junk store in Thirteenth St. Cross examined. I have been working there about four weeks. These were the only boys I knew in the place. I knew Peter Gordon and Sam Garry. The brass was inside and I saw the prisoners take it. Has anybody been talking with you about this matter? No sir. The foreman said to me, I took it, I told him I did not. How was it you happened to go with those two boys if you did not take it? I saw them taking it. I went along with them when they went to sell it. I did not expect to share in the money. The detective asked me if I saw anybody take the brass, and I said, 'yes'. I live a couple of doors from these boys. George Hammond sworn. I am an officer of the 11th precinct and made the arrest in this case at the request of Mr. Meyer. The foreman went up stairs and took them from their work and brought them down to the office. Mr. Meyer questioned them as to whether they had taken the goods or not; they confessed to taking it. I told them to tell the truth, it would be better for them. At the Police Court Gillen said he stole six pounds and Burns said that he took three pounds. They also told where they sold the brass and the amount they got for it. Gillen also took me with him and showed me the man whom he sold it to on Thirteenth St. I did not speak to the boys up stairs at all. I took them down to the office to Mr. Meyers; he questioned them.

0076

James Gillen, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I have been working at this place three weeks except I was off four days. I remember when the officer came up; he was dressed in citizen's clothes. The officer said to me if I would tell the truth, if I would say I took the brass, that he would get me out of it. What reply did you make? I says, "All right, I will say it. I first denied taking the brass. I did not steal any brass from this place. I did not acknowledge taking it in the police Court. I said before the premium and the officer that I did take it because the policeman said he would get me out of it. I positively deny taking any brass. I brought the policeman to where the brass was. Patrick Burns sworn. The officer when he arrested us said if we said we took the brass he would let us go. Then we said we took it. Did you steal any of that brass? No sir. Cross Examined. The policeman did not let us go. He did not tell the Judge up town that we stole the brass. I did not take three pounds of brass. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty against the boys without leaving their seats. The Court sent them to the House of Refuge.

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse Marrie Goody

of the CRIME OF Assault in the first degree, committed as follows:

The said Marrie Goody

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the ~~twenty second~~ day of ~~November~~ in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty ~~three~~ with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, in and upon the body of Patrick J. Dickey in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did make an assault, and to, at and against ~~him~~ the said Patrick J. Dickey a certain ~~musket~~ then and there loaded and charged with gunpowder and one leaden bullet, which the said Marrie Goody in ~~her~~ right hand then and there had and held, the same being a deadly and dangerous weapon, wilfully and feloniously, did then and there shoot off and discharge, with intent ~~him~~ the said Patrick J. Dickey thereby then and there feloniously and wilfully to kill, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Marrie Goody

of the Crime of assault in the second degree, committed as follows:

The said Marrie Goody late of the City and County aforesaid afterwards, to wit, on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the body of the said *Patrick J.
