Sir:

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of an executive letter, referring to the application of William Connor who was tried and convicted before me on the second of July 1880 for a felonious assault.

I herewith enclose a transcript of the evidence taken upon the trial of the case: from which it will appear that the assault was of a very aggravated character and was made without any provocation or justification.

I also inclose a memorandum of the applicants previous character.

In my opinion based upon the evidence in the case and the previous bad character of the applicant, I do not believe that the case is one which is entitled to the favorable consideration of your excellency.
