I have examined the evidence herein. There is considerable testimony that the defendant admitted that he assaulted defendant with a shoe-box. I consider that upon trial as to the degree of crime would be from the jury's satisfaction that a panel in the third degree of according to recommendation the acceptance of that plan.

I was near 1st Street & the Brewery and about 1/2 past 2 I heard the cry of Police and saw a man running through Great Jones Street - immediately after I saw another man cross from the East to the West side of the Brewery and pursue the man running through Great Jones Street toward Broadway; then I saw a crowd on the corner of 3rd Street & ^{Broadway} I saw the Complainant standing in the crowd, he came to me and told me that his watch was taken and pointed out Allen as the man who held
