I am Agent of the "Providence and Stonington Steamship Company" known as the Providence Line. On June 18, 1890, about 5 p. m., Michael Kohofski the defendant called at the office of Joseph Miner the Receiving Clerk of the Providence Line, at the foot of Warren St. Pier 29, North River, and handed the receipt marked "A" to Miner and said that he wanted to collect $8.75, stating that the goods mentioned therein were worth $65. I was present and heard his statement. He said the case contained costly samples of silk trimmings, and was worth $65. I told Mr. Miner to pay it. Mr. Miner checked it, and Michael Kohofski (defendant) took it to the office and collected $8.75. On the 21st of June I received the two telegrams marked "B" and "C" from Wm. H. Morrell, Agent of the Boston and Providence R.R. Co. On June 19th I procured the defendant's arrest on Pier 29, when he said it was all wrong, that he had robbed us out of that money, that the box didn't contain what he had represented it did, that it contained Carter's Ink, and he wanted me to go up to his Office to get the money we had paid him, and admitted that he had beaten other parties out of $300 and that there were others connected with him in these swindles.

That

Louis Klein
late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid on the ~~twenty-seventh~~ May day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ~~seventy-eight~~ eighty, at the Ward, City and County did then and there feloniously, unlawfully, knowingly, and designedly, falsely pretend and represent to Charles Adler that, a certain instrument and writing, to wit, an order for the payment of money, of the kind known as a Bank Check, which the said Louis Klein then and there presented and delivered to the said Charles Adler and which said Bank Check is in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

No 136 New York May 25th 1880 Pay to S. Baer Bros or Bearer One hundred and twenty one 65/100 Dollars was a good and valid order for the payment of one hundred and twenty one dollars and sixty cents in money, and of the value of One hundred and twenty one dollar and sixty cents; and that a sum of One hundred and twenty one dollar and sixty cents in money belonging to the said R. Heines & Co whose real name is to the jurors aforesaid was then in the possession of the National Citizens Bank, and that said sum of money was then payable and could be paid by the said National Citizens Bank on the credit and account of the said R. Heines & Co whose real name is to the jurors aforesaid, but who is here designated as R. Heines & Co whenever an order in writing, signed by the said R. Heines & Co whose real name is to the jurors aforesaid, authorizing the said National Citizens Bank to make such payment should be presented at the place of business of the said National Citizens Bank and that a certain Bank Check in the proper handwriting of said R. Heines & Co, whose real name is to the jurors aforesaid, and which said endorsee of the said S. Baer ^{whose real name is to the funds aforesaid} the sum of one hundred and twenty one dollar and sixty cents in money, as a valuable security, to wit, an order for the payment of one hundred and twenty one dollar and sixty cents in money, and of the value of One hundred and twenty one dollar and sixty cents

And the said Charles Adler then and there believing the said false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Louis Klein and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said

Louis Klein a certain sum of money to wit the sum of one hundred and twenty one dollar and sixty cents in money of the same.

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said

Bank check which the said Louis Klein then and there presented and delivered to the said Charles Adler was not a good and valid order for the payment of one hundred and twenty one dollar and sixty cents in money, nor was the same a good and valid order for the payment of any sum of money whatever.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, there was not then and there the sum of

One hundred and twenty one dollar and sixty cents in money belonging to the said R. Heine ^{but who is here designated as R. Heine & Co} in the possession of the said National Citizens Bank in the possession of said

And Whereas, in fact and in truth, the said sum of money was not then payable and could not be paid by said National Citizens Bank on the credit and account of the said whenever an order in writing signed by the said R. Heine, & Co whose real name is to the sum aforesaid unknown but who is here designated as R. Heine, & Co authorizing such payment to be made should be presented at the place of business of the said National Citizens Bank, nor would the said National Citizens Bank pay any sum of money whatsoever upon such order so signed by the said R. Heine, & Co whose real name is to the sum aforesaid unknown but who is here designated as R. Heine, & Co as aforesaid.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Bank Check in the proper handwriting of the said was not an order to pay to the said or any endorsee of the said the sum of one hundred and twenty one dollar and sixty cents in money, nor was the same a valuable security, of the value of one hundred and twenty one dollar and sixty cents in money, nor was it of any value whatever;

And Whereas, in fact and in truth, the pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, by the said Louis Klein to the said Charles Adler was and were in all respects utterly false and untrue, to wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid.

And Whereas, in fact and in truth the said Louis Klein well knew the said pretences and representations so by him made as aforesaid to the said Charles Adler to be utterly false and untrue at the time of making the same.

And so the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say, that the said Louis Klein by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid, feloniously, unlawfully, falsely, knowingly and designedly, did receive and obtain from the said Charles Adler a certain sum of money, to wit, the sum of one hundred and twenty one dollar and sixty cents
