OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

against

August Kämpfer

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse August Kämpfer of the CRIME OF KEEPING OPEN ON SUNDAY a place licensed for the SALE OF STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS, WINES, ALE AND BEER, committed as follows:

The said August Kämpfer — late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the twentieth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, being then and there in charge of, and having the control of a certain place there situate, which was then duly licensed as a place for the sale of strong and spirituous liquors, wines, ale and beer, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, the said place so licensed as aforesaid, unlawfully did not close and keep closed, and on the said day the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did open and cause and procure, and suffer and permit to be open, and to remain open, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,
AGAINST

Edward Kane

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse
Edward Kane
of the CRIME OF SELLING STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS AND WINES
WITHOUT A LICENSE, committed as follows:

(III, Revised Statutes, [7th edition] p. 1981
Section 13).

The said Edward Kane —

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the tenth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, at the City and County aforesaid, certain strong and spirituous liquors, and certain wines, to wit: one gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whiskey, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain strong and spirituous liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell, in quantity less than five gallons at a time, to certain — persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, without having a license therefor, as required by law, contrary to the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace and dignity of the People of the State of New York.

(Laws of 1883,
chapter 840 section 5)

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said
Edward Kane
of the CRIME OF SELLING STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS, ALES, WINE AND BEER WITHOUT A LICENSE, to be drank upon the premises, committed as follows:

The said Edward Kane —

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, and at the premises there situate, known as number Sixty four Orchard Street

certain strong and spirituous liquors, and certain ales, wines and beer, to wit: one gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whiskey, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain strong and spirituous liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell to certain — persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, to be drank upon the premises aforesaid, without having a license therefor, as required by law, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

(Laws of 1883,
chapter 240 section 5.)

THIRD COUNT:

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said
Edward Plave
 of the CRIME OF GIVING AWAY STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS, ALES, WINE AND BEER WITHOUT A LICENSE, to be drank upon the premises, committed as follows:

The said Edward Plave

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year
 aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, and at the premises there situate, known as
 number Sixty four Orchard Street

certain strong and spirituous liquors, and certain ales, wine and beer, to wit: one gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whiskey, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain strong and spirituous liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did give away to certain persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, to be drank upon the premises aforesaid, without having a license therefor, as required by law, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of

INDICTMENT FILED June 7, 1888.

New York June 11, 1888.

A p p e a r a n c e s .

For the people, Assistant District Attorney Jerome,

For the defendant, Jacob Berlinger, Esq.

R O B E R T   S I L L E R Y ,   a witness for the people testified:

I am a baker and reside at No. 221 First Avenue in the 17th Ward of this city. I sleep on those premises; on the night of the 27th of May, this year, I locked the basement door of those premises with a padlock.

Q You locked it and took the key out ? A Yes sir, when it was locked, I didn't lock it myself.

Q It was securely locked? A Yes sir. About a quarter to one o'clock I heard a noise downstairs. I listened for a while and in a few minutes after the butcher came up and woke me up. I went down and I found that the staple had been pulled out and the lock was broken.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

The baking id done downstairs in the cellar. I locked the bakery about one o'clock that night. I did not lock it myself, but I saw the foreman that works for me lock it.

J O H N F . S W E E N E Y , a witness for the people, testified

I am a police officer. On the 27th of May I was coming home about one o'clock and I saw two young men, one of them the defendant, go into the basement of this bakery and come out again running. I walked across the street and went into a hallway and listened to the conversation they had. One said to the other "We will wait, there is the butcher at the door. After the butcher left they went over and went down in the basement again. After they come up they started to run and I ran after them and I caught the defendant at the corner of Avenue A, and 14th street. I brought him back to the basement and I found the basement door open and the lock on the ground. This was about one o'clock in the morning.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

These premises are situated at No. 221 First Avenue and I live at 228 First Avenue, just opposite. I have been on the force three years. I could hear the conversation which took place while I stood in my hallway. The two boys stood right outside the door of my house within about two feet of me.

D E F E N C E .

M I C H A E L K E E G A N , the defendant, testified.

I live in 20th street with my father and mother.
I remember the night I was arrested. On that night I was coming home with another fellow and we were hungry and wanted to get some doughnuts; e went down into this basement and pushed at the door and it shoved right in. I thought there was somebody inside; then the officer came over and arrested me.

Q Did you break the staple off that door ? A No sir.

Q Did you undertake to break in ? A No sir.

Q Have you ever been arrested ? A Only for swimming and playing ball.

CROSS EXAMINATION.

I had been to the theatre that night and got out about half past eleven o'clock and was walking home. There was another boy with me who lives right near me. I cannot read. I am sixteen years of age.

P A T R I C K C . M A R T E L L and B R I D G E T K E E - G A N testified to the good character of the defendant.

The jury found the defendant guilty of burglary in the third degree with a recommendation to the mercy of the court.

addition of water or other substance, or by the removal of cream therefrom, and that such impure, unwholesome, watered, adulterated, reduced and changed Milk was then and there, by the said
Charles Kleutke, unlawfully held, kept and offered for sale in violation of the provisions of the Sanitary Code then and there and at all times thereafter in force and operation, and especially in violation of the provisions of a section and ordinance of such Sanitary Code which was duly passed and adopted by the Board of Health of the Health Department of the said City of New York, and by said Health Department at a meeting thereof, duly held in said city, on the twenty-third day of February, 1876, in the manner and language following, to wit:

“Resolved, That, under the power conferred by law upon the Health Department, the following “additional section to the Sanitary Code for the security of life and health be, and the same is hereby, “adopted and declared to form a portion of the Sanitary Code.

““No Milk which has been watered, adulterated, reduced or changed in any respect by the

against

Charles Kleuke

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

— Charles Kleuke —

of a MISDEMEANOR, committed as follows:

(Chap. 183, Laws of 1885, § 1, as amended by Chap. 577, Laws of 1886, § 1.)

The said

Charles Kleuke

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the Seventh day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully expose for sale three quarts of unclean, impure, unhealthy, adulterated and unwholesome milk, (the same not being skimmed milk produced in the said County)
against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT: (§ 186, Sanitary Code.)

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Charles Kleutke
of the CRIME OF VIOLATING THE SANITARY CODE OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH OF THE HEALTH DEPARTMENT OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK, committed as follows:

The said

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to-wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, did unlawfully keep, have and offer for sale, three quarts of milk which had been and was then and there watered, adulterated, reduced and changed by the addition of water and other substances to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, and by the removal of cream, against and in violation of the Sanitary Code of the Board of Health of the Health Department of the City of New York, duly adopted and declared as such at a meeting of the said Board of Health, held in said city on the second day of June, 1873, as amended in accordance with law, and particularly in violation of a certain ordinance thereof, to-wit: the one hundred and eighty-sixth section of said code, which is as follows, that is to say:

"No milk which has been watered, adulterated, reduced or changed in any respect by the addition of water or other substance, or by the removal of cream, shall be brought into, held, kept, or offered for sale at any place in the City of New York; nor shall any one keep, have or offer for sale in the said city any such milk."

Which said section and ordinance above set forth was, by a certain resolution duly passed and adopted by the said Board of Health and by said Health Department, at a meeting thereof duly held in said city on the twenty-third day of February, 1876, added to and made a part of the said Sanitary Code aforesaid, and adopted and declared to form a portion thereof, pursuant to the authority and power conferred by law upon the said Board, and which said ordinance was thereafter duly published once a week, for two successive weeks, in the City Record, a daily official newspaper and journal published in the said city, to-wit: in the issues of such newspaper of the twenty-fourth day of February, 1876, and also of the second day of March, 1876, and which said Sanitary Code so amended and altered was then and there, at the time of the committing of the offense hereinabove alleged, in full force and operation, and was by law declared to be binding and in force in said city, and which said section and ordinance above set forth was then and there in full force and virtue, having been in nowise altered, amended or annulled by said Board of Health: against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

Edward Madan
of No. 427 and 429 Broadway Street, aged 31 years, occupation Importer of Goods being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the second day of June 1888, at the City of New York, in the County of New York, one Edward E. Krahe, then in the employ of defendant firm, produced to at the above address, as cashier and assistant bookkeeper presented to defendant a cheque drawn in blanks upon the Importers & Traders National Bank for the sum of nine hundred dollars, as was usual in defendant's business to draw out of the bank an amount sufficient to pay the wages of the employees.

Defendant signed said cheque and handed the same back to said Krahe whose business it was to receive the same to the bank and receive the money therefor. Said Krahe subsequently on said day returned to defendant's place and placed nine hundred dollars in the money drawer and therein paid off the employees. Said cheque was entered upon the stub in the cheque book as for nine hundred dollars.

Defendant has since been informed by Edward B. Chavel, assistant paymaster Keller that on said day said Krahe presented to him for payment the cheque hereto annexed and received therefor the sum of twenty nine hundred dollars.

Defendant identifies the said annexed cheque as the same one he so signed and alleges that the same had been and was altered and changed in the amount from nine to twenty nine hundred dollars, and charges the said
