deposes and says, that the premises No 58 University Place Street in the City and County aforesaid, the said being a Liquor Store and which was occupied by deponent Employer Emma Olastenben ~~and in which there was at the time a human being, by name~~ were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly opening the lan light over the close door leading from said place and thereafter climbing up and going through on the 31 day of October 1890 in the night time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

Good and lawful money of the United States consisting of divers pieces of silver and nickel coin of the value of Three dollars and Eighty cents of Four pieces of Canadian silver coin of the denomination and value of Three cents each all of said money being of the value of Five dollars

the property of Emma Olastenben

and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen, and carried away by Thomas Jennings (nathur) and another person whose name is unknown

for the reasons following, to wit: from the fact that deponent is informed by John J. McLaughlin that he heard a woman call out
Police and immediately he saw said Jennings and said unknown man running from said premises that said officer pursued them and caught said Jennings in West 12th Street and said unknown man escaped deponent

I have examined this case carefully. Both boys have parents living who can take care of them. The boys were drinking about and did not leave I think any intention of stealing the wagon. The extreme youth of these defendants together with other circumstances of the case lead me to believe that no criminal intent existed. I recommend that the indictment be dismissed.

Ex Oz Mr Stiner

Q You are the owner of this property?

A I am.

Q How long have you had this property in your possession?

A Since about the 10th of September.
It came with me from Europe.

Q Where was this property bought?

A In London.

Q By yourself?

2 How many yards are there in this piece?

A Seven yards - or six and three quarters. There may be an inch short.

2 Can you give the price of this cloth in England - what you paid?

A Yes. I paid 7 shillings and 11 pence.

2 - A yard

Q Yes

2 Can you tell the court what the cost of this cloth is to day in the city of New York?

A No.

2 Is the actual cost thirty dollars?

A Yes; or, about thirty dollars. That is the actual cost - about thirty dollars.

2 Market value?

A Market value.

2 2 The value of this piece of clock is equal to $30 - its worth at actual cost is about that:

A about that.

2 Has it a face value of more than twenty five dollars.

A Yes sir.

2 Can you give the exact amount?

A I will get my bookkeeper to figure it for you.

The Count - He says it is worth more than thirty dollars.

The witness - If you wished to buy it in New York to day it would be sixty dollars - each half of it is worth $60

Ex by Mr. Stines

2 Now you swear that the exact cost of this clock is thirty dollars?

A No sir

The count - He said it was worth more than that 0540

The witness — It cannot be bought in New York for less than five dollars a yard.

By Mr. Stone

2 — I bought it — It would cost you if you bought it — five dollars a yard.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace

OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

against

Sarah Jones

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

Sarah Jones

of the CRIME OF GRAND LARCENY IN THE second DEGREE, committed
as follows :

The said

Sarah Jones

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the thirteenth day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety,
at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms,

seven yards of cloth of the value of four dollars each yard

of the goods, chattels and personal property of one

William T. Mitchell

then and there being found, then and there feloniously did steal, take and carry away, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

AND THE GRAND JURY AFORESAID, by this indictment, further accuse the said

Sarah Jones
of the CRIME OF CRIMINALLY RECEIVING STOLEN PROPERTY committed as follows:

The said

Sarah Jones
late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms,

seven yards of cloth of the value of four dollars each yard

of the goods, chattels and personal property of one

William T. Mitchell
by a certain person or persons to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, then lately before feloniously stolen, taken and carried away from the said

William T. Mitchell
unlawfully and unjustly, did feloniously receive and have; the said

Sarah Jones
then and there well knowing the said goods, chattels and personal property to have been feloniously stolen, taken and carried away, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

JOHN R. FELLOWS,
District Attorney.
