CITY AND COUNTY } ss.
OF NEW YORK,

given of No. 3023-3^d Avenue John H. Stankler, 32 years, being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 15th day of August 1886 at the stable Brook Avenue and 156th street City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the night time

the following property, viz.: One Bay Mare of the value of One hundred and twenty-five dollars

the property of deponent

has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Patrick Gallagher and James

Collins, both now here, from the following facts:

Deponent is informed by officer Montgomery Whitman of the 33^d Precinct Police that at about half past seven o'clock on the morning of said day

he met said Gallagher and Collins in 3^d Avenue near 151st street having with them said mare and brought said mare to deponent who going to his said stable found that said mare had been taken from the stall therein where deponent had left said mare fastened

at 7 o'clock on the preceding evening, the door of said stable
being left open

A P P E A R A N C E S.

Assistant District Attorney Gunning S. Bedford, for the People, Mr. Sullivan for the defence.

)-----000-----

JOHN STANKLER, the complainant, being duly sworn, testified that he lived at Third Avenue, and 156th Street.

On August 15th, he was the owner of a mare, valued at 125 Dollars. He stabled her at Park Avenue, and 156th Street. On the night of the 15th of August, he put the mare into a stall and gave her bedding and put a stick in the hasp of the lock of the door. He did not authorize anybody to take her out. On the next morning, about half past one o'clock, two officers woke him up and asked him if he recognized his mare, and he said yes. He had never seen the prisoners before. They were then in the custody of the officers.

-----000-----

Officer MONTGOMERY DITTMORE, of the 33d Precinct, being duly sworn, testified, that he was on duty on the morning of August 16th. At about half past one o'clock in the morning, he was at the corner of Third Avenue, and 151st Street. He saw Calahan riding down the Avenue on the complainant's mare. He, the witness, stopped Calahan, but Calahan whipped the horse up. He again stopped the horse, and asked him where he got it and he refused to tell. He, the witness, asked where he was going, and he said to 74th Street, and 3rd Avenue. He then arrested the prisoner Calahan. While he, the witness, was summoning the complainant, the co-defendant, went to the station house, to find out what had been done with Calahan, and was arrested.

-----000-----

For the defence JAMES COLLINS, one of the defendants being duly sworn, testified that he worked for a contractor named Silas Wright, of 678 East 157th Street. He had been in Wright's employ for four years. On the morning of August 16th, he and Calahan were walking along the road, and saw the horse in the lot. He bet Calahan 50 cents, that he could not ride the horse and Calahan was riding the horse when the officer came up. Then the Officer arrested Callahan and when Collins went up to the Town Hall, and told the Seargent about the bet he was arrested too.

-----000-----

Under cross examination, he testified that he made the bet with Callahan, and then helped Callahan on to the horse's back. He only made the bet for fun. Callahan was just turning back to claim the bet when the officer arrested him. They had been both drinking that night.

-----000-----

PATRICK CALAHAN, the co-defendant, being duly sworn, testified that he was drunk on the night in question. He had been working the day before, for David Robinger, for whom he had worked five years as a potter. He lived with his mother.

0576

He corroborated Calahan as to the bet and as to his riding the horse. He had never been arrested before.

-----000-----

In rebuttal, the complainant, being recalled, testified, that he fastened the mare securely in her stall and she had never been out of her stall before at night.

The People vs. John Smith } Court of General Sessions. Part I Jointly indicted with Wm. Chamberlain for grand larceny in the second degree.

August M. Seel sworn and examined, testified. I live 873 Eighth Ave. and remember the 9th of Sept. last, I was at Park Row that day at half past one in front of the World office. I had an open faced silver watch that day, which is now shown me. I had it in my left vest pocket fastened to a rubber chain; the watch was taken from me. I was looking at the miniature yachts and I suddenly felt Wm. Chamberlain against my pocket; he unhooked the watch from the chain; he took it with his right hand and I saw him put it in his left hand. I grabbed hold of him and said, "Give me my watch." He said, "I aint got your watch;" he started to run and I halloed, "Stop Thief." Detective McManus ran right after him and caught him. I saw the watch next morning at the Tombs. McManus showed it to me with the ring out; the ring was on it when it was in my pocket; the watch was worth six dollars.

Charles B. McManus sworn. I am a detective officer and was on duty in Park Row on the 9th of Sept. in citizen's clothes. I saw the last witness that day in Park Row near the 0639

Wald office about half past one. I saw John Smith in company with Chamberlain; they were looking at the Yacht race bulletin. When I first saw them they were not near the complainant, but I saw them fifteen minutes before that together, but subsequently I saw them near Mr Steel. I saw Smith beckon to Chamberlain and he (Chamberlain) walked in his direction; they stood there: it was raining, and Smith would pull down anybody's umbrella that would be up in front of him. I arrested Chamberlain in Park Row. Mr. Steel was there at the time. I saw his watch chain but the watch was gone. I arrested Smith twenty minutes after I arrested Chamberlain on Chatham near Duane St. I told him what I arrested him for; he said he did not take the watch. I took him to the station house and searched him and found the watch in this condition. I showed it to the complainant and he identified it as his. I did not see Smith speak to Chamberlain.

John Smith, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I am a boatman and am 33 years old. I recollect the 9th of Sept. I did not take the complainant's watch and don't know anything about it. The first time I knew I had it in my pocket was when I was arrested in the corner of Chatham Square. I was not with Chamberlain. Cross Examined. I don't know how the watch got in my pocket. I saw Chamberlain there that day but never saw him before that day. I came from Detroit, Mich., I was a boatman there. I came back here every fall and was back a little over two months. I lived in James St. and worked alongshore whenever I got it. I worked around Panama docks. I was sent to the penitentiary twelve years ago for assault and battery. I was not there since and never have been in the State prison. I did not meet Chamberlain two days before this occurrence. I do not know whether Chamberlain gave it to me or not; all I know is that it was found in my coat pocket. I touched umbrellas once or twice to put them out of my eyes. I was not acting in concert with this man to take the complainant's watch. I was a boatman for the Western Transportation Co.

Wm. Chamberlain, sworn and examined.
I am 17 years of age and live with my father and mother. I was learning the jewelry trade. I was never arrested before this. I knew John Smith about three days before the arrest. I talked to him about getting a job. I saw him around the same corner the next day. I was with him four or five hours and I saw him the next day again and talked to him. I was with him all day until I was arrested. I took the watch and Smith was with me at the time; we were talking about the yacht race; that was all. I was in the crowd and he beckoned to me to come over, and when I got near the fellow he told me that I should take the watch and he would take it off me. Did you have the watch? Yes sir. What did you do with it? I took it off my vest. You gave it to Smith? Yes sir. Cross Examined. Is that the only watch you ever took? Yes sir. Because he told you to take it you took it, is that it? I had been drinking. Is that the reason you took it? Yes sir, I would not have taken it if I had been myself. I would not have taken it, otherwise if he had not put it in my head. If he had not mentioned it I would not have thought anything about it. When you drink do you feel like taking other people's property? No sir. That is the only day I was under the influence of liquor. You knew it was wrong to take the watch, didn't you? Yes sir. I heard the testimony of Officer McHarris I was twenty five feet away from Smith before the complainant lost his watch. I went there to see about the yacht race and did not go there to steal. I have pleaded guilty to this charge. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty. Smith was sent to the State prison for four years.

APPEARANCES.

Assistant District Attorney, James Fitzgerald, for the People.
Mr. Sullivan, for the defence.

-----000-----

AUGUST EIMER, the complainant, being duly sworn, testified that he was a druggist and a member of the firm Eimer and Amend, doing business at the corner of 21st. St. and 2nd. Avenue, in this City. On the 17th. day of Aug.
the defendant, Joseph Clarke, came into the store and he was sitting at the sales counter waiting for the goods to be put up and his, the complainant's, attention was called to him by the salesman who handed the order to him. This was between two and three o'clock that day. In consequence of the order presented by the defendant he received the goods contained in the order. After the defendant left the store the witness told one of the clerks to follow the defendant to see ~~whether~~ the defendant came from the place mentioned in the order.

-----000-----

JAMES S. HIGGINS, being called as a witness for the people, being duly sworn, testified that he was a druggist doing business at No. 214 Delancey Stret, New York City. The order which purported to come from his drug store and which was presented by the defendant at Eimer and Amend's place of business, did not come from his place nor ~~did~~ the witness authorize any one to make out an order for drugs on that day. He knew the defendant since last Spring, and at that time the defendant was a clerk of the witness's son-in-law, also a druggist. The witness never authorized any one to give the defendant the order in question, and he did not receive the goods mentioned in the order.

-----000-----

Under cross examination, the witness testified that the defendant had called at his drug store ^{at} different times while he, the defendant, was on the employ of the complainant's son-in-law.

-----000-----

OFFICER JAMES BURKE, being duly sworn, testified that he arrested the defendant at the corner of Forsyth and Houston Street, in a drug store, on the 17th. of Aug. on the complaint of Mr. Schenk. The defendant admitted having the property in his possession, and the witness found two bottles of it in his coat pocket. The witness took the defendant and the property found upon him to the station house.

-----000-----

Under cross examination, the witness testified that he did not ask the clerk in the drug store if the defendant had tried to sell the goods.

-----000-----

ANDREW SCHENK, being ^{called} as a witness for the people, was duly sworn and testified that he was a shipping clerk of Messrs. Eimer and Amend. He saw the defendant at the place of business of Eimer and Amend on the 17th. of Aug. last, between 3 and 4 o'clock, and he presented an order from Mr. Higgins for some drugs. He, the witness, followed the defendant after the defendant received the goods and saw the defendant go into a drug store at the corner of Houston and Forsyth Streets, and then he had the defendant arrested .

0682

-----000-----

JAMES KENNEDY, called for the defence, being duly sworn, testified that he knew the defendant's father for about 18 or 20 years, and that he knew the defendant to be honest and never heard his integrity questioned.

-----000-----

GEORGE R. CHILDS, called for the defence, being duly sworn, testified that he was a physician, having an office at No. 417 West 23rd. Street, at present. He knew the defendant since he was a little boy and always found him honest and truthful. The defendant had worked for him for a year and over.

-----000-----

John M. Curly, being duly sworn, testified that he was the bondsman for the defendant. He knew the defendant for about 18 or 19 years, and never heard anything against his character, and always found him honest.

- -----00-----

Joseph McNees, the defendant, being duly sworn, testified that he lived with his father at number 440, West 17th. street. His father was a member of the police force for a number of years. His business was that of a drug clerk. On the 17th. of August, he met Tom. Jones, whom he had known for over two years, at the corner of 14th. street and Fourth Avenue, and he, Jones, asked the defendant to do a favor for him and take the order and get the goods at Eimer and Amend's place, as he, Jones, had an engagement that afternoon, and that he would meet the defendant at the corner of Houston and Forsyth street, in the drug store. Jones said he had an engagement to meet a young lady that afternoon, and as he, the defendant, was off that afternoon it would be a great favor to him if the defendant would go to Eimer and Amend's to get this order and then meet him at this drug store. When he, the defendant, got into the drug store he was arrested on the complaint of Schenk.

Under cross examination, the defendant testified that Jones lived in Greenwich street, and was about 35 years of age, thick set, and had a black moustache, and that he used to peddle drugs. They met by accident on the day in question, and Jones told him that he got the order from Mr. Higgins. The defendant did not look at the order. He, the defendant, was in the drug store ~~at~~ about twenty minutes when Schenk and the policeman came in.

-----00-----

The defendant said that his name was Clarke, in the police court, because he did not want to disgrace his people.
