of No. 156 Prince Street, aged 28 years, occupation work in a paper factory being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 16th day of August 1886 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession and of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz:

One silver watch of the value of Five Dollars ($ 5.00)

the property of Deponent and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by William Rooney (nowhere) from the fact that deponent was standing on the corner of Canal Street and South 5th Avenue looking at a parade at about the hour of 1030 O'clock A.M. on said date. When the said defendant walked up to deponent and snatched his watch and started to run away when deponent caught him and held him until he was arrested. Wherefore deponent charges the said defendant with feloniously taking, stealing and carrying away said watch from the left hand pocket of the vest then and then worn by deponent as a portion of his bodily clothing and perhaps he may be held and dealt with according to Law.

The People vs.

Marcus Rosenfeld

City and County of New York ss

I, Marcus Rosenfeld being first duly sworn according to law do depose and say:

I am 26 years of age and was born in the City of Newark State of New Jersey.

I have lived in the City of New York for the past fourteen years.

I am a journalist and author and a composer of music having written the following popular songs (under various pseudonyms):

"Climbing up the Golden Stairs"

"Hush a by baby"

"Ring that Golden Bell"

"The clock in the hall"

"Go to sleep my baby"

"Honor thy father and mother" and a large number of instrumental compositions, including the following "Little Lady Gallop"

 "Newport Crack Gallop"
 "The Mitch Walzes"
 "Portiest in the Land Polka"

I was never arrested before and I committed the offense to which I have pleaded guilty under the following circumstances

I was employed by Mr Thomas Canary (of Miner & Canary) 8th Avenue Theatre to write a comedy or burlesque for the Richmond Company

The time consumed in writing this work was four months, and in the interim I had contracted many debts. When the work was completed, Mr Canary found it was too late in the season to produce the work.

I was penniless and without the means to repay past indebtedness, and thinking to realize some money during Mr Canary's absence at Saratoga. I signed his name to the check expecting to make good the amount to him when I should see him on his return to this City.

At the present time I am very sick. suffering from ~~pleurisy~~^{pneumonia} & physical decline & I am under the care of a doctor.

I was in Bellevue Hospital for about 11 days. after I was arrested on this charge suffering from injuries I received on the day of my arrest.

The following gentlemen respectable citizens of this City know me for a number of years and will testify to my previous good character.

I have suffered considerable mental agony & will as physical sickness since my arrest on this charge which took place about two months ago and I solemnly & sincerely promise the Court, that if the Judge will permit me to go under a suspension of judgment I will never commit crime in the future but will endeavor to become a useful & valuable

I am the "Amusement Editor" of the "New York Clipper" a Journal published in the City of New York.

I have known the defendant Marcus Rosenfeld nearly four years -

I always found the defendant to be a diligent worker cheerful, an honest ambitious and talented young man.

He is the author of a number of songs which have attained popularity.

I have always known the defendant to be a young man of excellent character. Highly spoken of by all who know him and I firmly believe that if the Court will suspend judgment that Rosenfeld will profit by the speculations and disgrace he brings upon himself & will be in the future

In writing this I think I reflect the wishes and opinions of many others who for more than a year have known him as a fellow lodger at the same hotel - The Bradford - E. We were astounded when we heard the news confirmed.

Dear Sir

Upon a bed of sickness and suffering I pen you these plaintive lines to appeal to you to save me from impending misery and disgrace, relying upon your generous impulses to aid me in becoming once more a free man, and look upon this present experience as the lesson ^{of} a life-time. The mental as well as physical penalty I have endured during the past three weeks shall be an index to my whole future life, whether I am restored to liberty or whether I am fated to die behind the bars - for I am in ill health and an invalid, and have been suffering for many months. I admit I have done wrong, yet if you knew the surroundings of my life at the time when I committed this wrong, I am sure you would aid me now in asking the clemency of Mr Schwarzwaldner and the directors of your institution, who, I am confident are men of kindness and sympathy, and would not deny me a chance to live, and an opportunity to once more redeem myself and benefit from the lesson of the present. I am here penniless and without friends, and even were I differently situated should not have the slightest inclination to make any resistance to your prosecution. All

I ask is a chance to prove to you my gratitude by entering upon a different career in life, and a chance to once more become a free man, to live uprightly and honestly, and in the course of a short time to make good to you and repay you the money you have lost. Surely, you will not refuse me this? I beseech you fervently to allow me this one more opportunity to live. For a sentence to prison means to me dishonor and in my present state of health, perhaps death, and I know it is not the desire of your humane directors and president to glory in the downfall of one who thus appeals sincerely to your mercy.

In misfortune, Yours
M. Rosenfield.

Friend Hack,

I would ask you to do me a favor.

A friend of mine, James Ryan, Janitor of City Hall Race School, got into some trouble some months ago, with a man named Green, and accidentally cut him in the face with a pen knife which he held in his hand, when ^{and his son} Green attacked him.

This trouble occurred in consequence of Ryan's demonstration with Green's son for being vicious in annoying tenants of some houses which Ryan has charge of.

Ryan is a hard working, industrious and honest man, and is over 60 years of age and belongs and always ^{did} to Sam, Hall, and a good worker at Elections, and if a conviction occurs, he may lose his position also as janitor, which would be a terrible loss to his family.

The People
vs.
James Ryan

Indictment:

Assault in the 1st degree.

Knobbing the complainant Timothy G. Green with a knife in his face in front of 66 Elm Street, on the 11th of July, 1886.

Timothy P. Green, 137 West 9th Street, Brooklyn. On the 11th of July, 1886, at about two o'clock in the afternoon, my 10 years old boy complained to me that the defendant had hit him on the head. Subsequently I saw the defendant on the top step of the stoop stairs of the Elm Street School. I asked him what cause he had to hit my little boy. He had a stick in his hand, and said to me: Any man who does not like me to hit his boy with this stick, the quicker he gets out of my horse, the better I like it I replied: "I kill with the horse and with you. Is that the reason for you to lick my little boy with out any cause. Ryan, if I had been present, when you licked my little boy, you would have had to lick me along ^{by} with him." I then stood on the step below him, and lifted my hand towards him, when he struck me out me in the face with a knife which he afterwards threw away.

It was picked up by the police man. I did not see it when he cut me with it. He caused a flesh wound in my cheek about two inches long.

James Wynne, 66 Elm Street.
 Janitor of Grammar School No. 24, since 1862. On the 11th of July, 1886, where in, the afternoon, when I was sitting in the hall of the said school, reading a newspaper, the defendant came to me. We had known each other for nearly 20 years, he being my successor as Janitor of Grammar School No. 24.
 His call on said day was a social one. After exchanging a few remarks with each other, ~~then~~ I saw the complainant approach the door of the said school. He asked the defendant, why he hit his boys. The defendant replied that he did not know that the boys were his, but that all events they were very mischievous boys. The complainant thereupon said that if he had been present, he would have hit the defendant instead he hitting his said boys. I was at the time reading a newspaper, and did not look at the said parties.
 The next ~~particular~~ thing I saw, was that the complainant and the defendant were clinched together on the sidewalk, and in the next moment I saw them fall upon the sidewalk. I did not see any knife in the defendant's hands. While the parties were lying on the sidewalk, an officer came to the scene and he arrested both of them. The complainant had a scratch on his right cheek.

James Ryan, 123 North Street, Collector of rents. On the 11th of July, 1886, at about one o'clock P.M., when I was sitting with Mr. Wyndham in the hallway of No. 66 Elm Street, which is part of Grammar School No. 24, the complainant came up to me and asked me, why I beat his boy. I replied that I did not beat his boy nor any other boy, but that I merely sent him away from doing mischief. The complainant rejoined, that if he had been there, he would have liked me, whereupon I said, I would not let him. At the time I had an ordinary pocket knife in my hand, which by somebody had been left on top of the main coating of said hall and about whose ownership I talked with Mr. Wynko. When saying that I would not let him beat me, the complainant grappled me with both hands by the coat and ~~this~~ son took hold of my legs pulling me to the floor. On falling I touched the complainant's face with the knife, but this happened accidentally; I had no intention to wound him. The complainant, his son and three other young men beat and kicked me, when I was ^{lying} on the sidewalk. I was laid up for a couple of weeks in consequence of said assaults. The certificate of Dr. Chas. E. Hammack who treated me, is annexed hereto. It shows my condition at said time. I did not say to the complainant that "any man who does not like me to hit his boy with this stick, the quicker he gets out of my house, the better I like it."

Patrick Regan, patrolman, 6th precinct. On the 11th day of July, 1886, at a little after one o'clock, I saw a crowd collected in front of 66 Elm Street. The defendant and the complainant were among them. They charged each other with assault, and both had marks of violence on their body. The complainant had a cut flesh wound in the right cheek and the defendant had a bruised eye and a bleeding underlip. The knife, with which the complainant was cut by the defendant is a common pocket knife. I did not see the assault, but I arrested both parties.
