DEPARTMENT OF PARKS
No. 49 & 51 Chambers Street .

New York, January 10th, 1891.

My Dear Mr. Nicoll;-

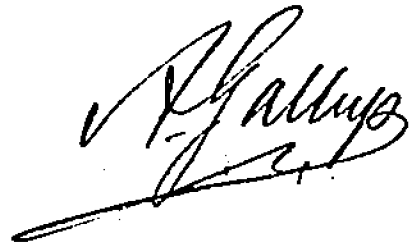

The defendant named in this notice is a Park foreman, and the trouble arose out of a controversy he had with a policeman named Newell; charges were made by both sides; Newell was summoned for trial before the Commissioners, but by the interposition of Senator Cantor the whole matter was adjusted. .

Senator Cantor informed me that the indictment would be nolled, and consequently Ward was permitted to withdraw his complaint against Newell before the Commissioners and Newell was acquitted.

The Commissioners regarded the controversy as a childish one, and I thought that nothing more would be heard of it. In view of these facts I hope that nothing more will be done.

If Ward's presence is desired on Monday, please notify the Park Department in Chambers St. and he will be sent for.

Sincerely yours,

Hon. Delancy Nicoll.

NEW YORK, 11th June 1890

Dear Sir:

We beg to call your special attention to the case of Guy H. Ward which is very shortly to come before the Grand Jury.
The case is one of alleged assault on a Park policeman.

We have known Mr Ward & his father Mr George H. Ward for many years, & have looked into the circumstances attending the present difficulty. We are convinced from the facts ascertained as well as from the character & antecedents of Mr Ward, that the prosecution does him great injustice & that he was himself the victim of an assault on the part of the policeman.
We earnestly request therefore

My dear Mr. Nicoll,

I herewith enclose Mr. Gallup's letter to yourself in the matter of the People v. Ward. I had understood, as did Mr. Gallup, that the whole matter had been dropped. Both the parties were in the employ of the Park Department, and it seemed to me to be a very proper case to be determined in that way.

Will you kindly investigate the matter and determine whether it is not expedient that the original arrangement should be carried into effect?

My interest in the case was not that of counsel. The defendant is the son of a very old friend of mine, and I took a personal interest in his welfare; this was my only excuse for intervening in the case at all. If it is to be tried, pray give me time to secure other counsel to defend him.

Yours, very truly,

F. R. Woodard.

-----X

The People &c., on the complaint

of Alfred C. Newell

Against

Guy Asbridge Ward
-----X

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

The circumstances of this case are as follows:

On or about the 2nd day of June, 1890, in the City of New York, on the Riverside drive in the neighborhood of 72nd Street, the defendant was riding horseback, and was found by me trespassing upon certain parts of the park unused for public purposes. When remonstrated with and ordered off, the defendant became abusive, whereupon I placed him under arrest as a disorderly person. The defendant resisted arrest and struck me with his fist several times and a general scuffle ensued. Whereupon for self-protection, and to subdue the defendant, he was struck with a club, and subsequently delivered himself up to the Police Department in the Park Arsenal, where a charge was made against him for assault and disorderly conduct. The defendant made a counter-charge against me, which was subsequently withdrawn.

I believe that the ends of justice would be sufficiently satisfied were the defendant discharged or dealt leniently with, inasmuch as I labor under the opinion that at the time of the assault referred to he acted as he did while in a very passionate state of mind and was to an extent unaccountable.

This recommendation is not based upon any hope of reward, but is entirely based upon the belief I entertain that the defendant has been sufficiently punished and that the law has been fully vindicated in so far as the case has proceeded, and I am desirous now, under the circumstances recounted, to give my free consent to the abandonment of any further proceedings against the defendant.

Hon. DeLancey Nicoll,

Dear Sir :

In the matter of the complaint of the People ex rel Alfred C. Newell against Guy Asbridge Ward, the same was submitted to me for the purpose of an investigation and to report as to whether a trial should be had or whether the proceedings should be recommended for dismissal.

The complainant has made a withdrawal, which you will please find enclosed, and after a thorough and full investigation of the circumstances, I have the honor to submit the following recommendation for your approval :

" In this case the complainant has voluntarily signed a withdrawal, on file with the papers, and which tends to show a case worthy of some consideration.

The plaintiff was not injured in the least, and the defendant has suffered it appears sufficiently by the arrest and from the proceedings resulting therefrom.

The charge is simple assault. The defendant, from investigation, proves an excellent reputation; and, under the circumstances I do not see how the ends of justice would,
in any way, be affected by the dismissal of the proceedings without trial had. ~~XXXXX~~
