CHARLES SCHAEFER, a witness for the people, sworn testified:

I am in the employ of William H. Griffith & Co. . On the evening of the 4th of February I carefully locked the store at half-past seven o'clock in the evening. When I left there was a set of these balls in the window. When I arrived at the store the following morning, I found the window broken and the set of pool balls gone.

JAMES DOYLE, a witness for the people, sworn testified:

I am an officer of the Municipal Police. I have been an officer going on 17 years. I went on duty on the evening of the 4th of February at 12 o'clock at night. My post was on the Bowery and 4th Avenue from Bleecker Street to Astor Place, the covers No. 16 4th Avenue. I passed the window of Wm. H. Griffiths & Co. when I went on post and it was all right. I passed it again and found it broken. I watched there a while in a doorway and I saw the defendant Schultz in company with the defendant Chicciizola walk past the window and turn up Astor Place. When they had turned the corner they started to run. Chicciizola was the last one, and Schultz was in front of him. I struck an alarm rap and fired a shot, and the defendant Chicciizola stopped. When he stopped I told him to run with me and help me to catch the other man. He did this. We caught the defendant Schultz and in his coat tail pocket found some billiard balls. These billiard balls were afterwards identified by the Superintendent of Griffith & Co. as their property. When I arrested the defendant Chiccizola he said: "My God, what will my father say when he finds out I have done this". I asked him what he did it for, and he said, he didn't know, that he met the three of them in the Bowery at a saloon. He told me that the other fellows did it; that he had nothing to do with it.

Cross-examination.

I didn't see the defendant Chiccizola at the window at all. The first I saw of him he was near the corner of 4th Avenue and Astor Place. I found a stone in his pocket.

TONY CHICCIZOLA, the defendant, sworn testified:

I am 19 years of age. I live with my parents at 77 South Fifth Avenue. On the night in question I was in a saloon in the Bowery, and I met two men. I visited one or two museums with them and drank some beer. After we were drinking it got on to be about 11 o'clock and they asked me if I would walk up 4th Ave. with them, and I did. I walked up and stood on the corner of 8th Street and in an instant I heard a crash of glass, and one of these parties who was with me, ran and I ran with him. The officer caught me and I ran along with him until he caught Schultz. I didn't have anything to do with the breaking of the window. One of the parties whom was with us gave me the stone as we were running away, and I handed it over to the officer.

Cross-examination.

I left my house early that evening to go over to the Bowery and visit a museum. My father is very strict about my being in early at night. I didn't know these men before or anything about them. I just met them by chance in this saloon and they asked me to play a game of pool with them. I have never been arrested for anything before. I did say when the officer caught me, something about what my father would say, if he knew I was arrested.

THADDEUS J. KEENE, testified to the good character of the defendant.

PAUL CHICCIZOLA, the father of the defendant, testified to the defendant's good character.

CYPRYAN GOOSET, gave similar testimony.

THE JURY returned a verdict of "Guilty of Burglary in the Third Degree" with a recommendation to the Court to suspend sentence.

THE COURT: In this case the jury could not have done otherwise on the evidence, than convict you of this offense of Burglary in the Third Degree. Very strong evidence was given here of your personal good character. Your father is an honest, decent man of respectability, and he has endeavored to bring you up properly. The difficulty with you is that you frequent these low places in the Bowery instead of being at your home. Your father required you to be at home at a respectable hour and you did not obey him. If you had obeyed him and remained in your home, you would not be in this difficulty. You stand here now in a criminal court a convicted felon, and I may sentence you at any moment.

I always regard the recommendation made by a jury of twelve men and in this case I will suspend sentence upon you for the present.

Honorable Randolph B. Martin,

Dear Sir,

In re: The People - v - Joseph Alfonso.

I present this case for the allowance of the appeal. One of the witnesses at the trial in Special Sessions has made an affidavit in favor of the defendant, but as it has not been sworn to as yet, and she lives up town, I am unable to present it legally; ^{but I will file it, if necessary, when sworn to;} and I cannot afford any delay as today is the last one for the allowance of the appeal, which, I hope, Your Honor, from a perusal of the papers, may permit.

Yours Respectfully Charles E. LeBarbier.

Dear Sir,

In Feb. 1870, I was sentenced by your Honor to one year & 100 dollars fine for Petit Larceny, with me was imprisoned James Gorman who was sentenced to one year & 50 dollars fine; allowing for commutation for good behaviour, the year is expiring; I wish to appeal to your Honor's mercy, therefore I beg you to consider, if a remission of a portion at least, of the imposed fine will not as well answer the cause of justice, as my continued imprisonment can do; since I have been here I have suffered the loss, by death of a mother, a sister, and the continued serious illness of a surviving sister, who naturally looks to me for support. But for these misfortunes, I should have been able to have paid my fine, — now that is an impossibility, so I plead with your Honor, that you will consider the case again. I am a young man, with much to look for in life, that I have been at fault is true, — may I not hope to redeem it? I have reason to believe that I can at once go to work, as I, of course, intend to do in any case, I could certainly begin the easier now than when the winter has grown fiercer — and I shall have the satisfaction of the sooner being able to help our sister in her need.

I beg your Honor's pardon for intruding
upon you, but hope for some clemency
at your hands, and earnestly solicit such attention as you will best know how to give.

Respectfully Yours

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT.

VERSUS

Edward Seymour
and
Otto Steiner

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. Since making the complaint against said defendants
I have learned that they are both men of good character and that they were invited into my house by my wife and that both of the defendants did drink beer with my wife and that she sent them out for beer and that at other times they were in my house with both of said defendants and that she did entertain
the defendants and drink with them
of their arrest that my wife did give said medals to them to pawn and that she bought beer from the proceeds and that defendant declares that his wife did give some of the medals to the defendants to pawn and that she also pawned some of them herself. Deponent declares now that the defendants did not intend to deprive deponent of said property and that the defendants
having informed deponent were they were pawned deponent declares that they told the truth and deponent would therefore ask permission of the Court to withdraw his complaint made against said defendants.
I begin to believe now that they are to be believed.
