Indictment filed February 13, 1890.

Indicted for grand larceny in the second degree.

New York, February 20, 1890.

A P P E A R A N C E S:

For the Plaintiff,

Assistant District-Attorney A. D. Parker;

For the Defendant,

Mr. Joseph I. Green.

J U L I A H O L L A N D E R, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 199 DeLancey Street in this city. I am a married woman. On the 4th. of February last, at three o'clock in the afternoon, I was walking in Ridge Street.
I had my pocketbook in my pocket containing $5 in money.
As I walked along the street, my attention was attracted by a crowd of little boys, and suddenly I heard the noise of some money, and I caught this boy's sleeve. He was about three steps away from me. He tried to run away, but I would not let him. He finally did run and I ran after him. I kept him in sight all the time; finally the policeman caught him.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

Q You were coming down Ridge Street and you saw the defendant ?

A Yes, sir.

Q You had your money in a pocket-book in your pocket ?

A No, sir. It was loose in my pocket. Some one put their hand in my pocket and took the money out. This boy was the nearest one to me and I reached for him. The defendant said that he would go with me wherever I wanted him to. When we got into a little store he said he would give me $10 if I would let him go, and I told him I would not.

LOUIS ROTH, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a police officer attached to the Twelfth Precinct. I was on duty the 4th. of February last. I arrested this defendant in the store at No. 199 DeLancey Street. This woman accused him of taking her pocket-book. I asked this woman what the man took from her and she said that he had robbed her of $5 and had taken it out of her pocket. I accused him. He denied it. I arrested him and took him to the Station House.

D E F E N C E:

A B R A H A M L E V Y, a witness for the defendant, sworn, testified:

I am a brother-in-law of this defendant. He has resided with me for two or three years. I went to see the complainant in this case and had a conversation with her. I asked her if she was positive that my brother-in-law was the man who stole her money, and she said she would make it all right if I gave her $25.

I S A A C K E M P, the defendant, sworn, testified:

On the day in question I was going to visit a friend of mine on the same block where this affair happened. I had not yet reached the place when this woman came up and grabbed me by the arm. She said: "Give me my money". I turned around and asked her what was the matter, and she kept hanging on to me. She says: "Give me the $5 you took out of my pocket". I knew she would raise a little disturbance, and I told her to come in off the street into a store and I would settle the matter. We went into the store and she accused me again of taking her money, and I told her I did not know what she was talking about. She kept me there until the officer came and arrested me. The woman was very much excited and did not seem to know what she was doing. I positively said that I did not take the woman's money and I was not near her.

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

I never saw this woman before she accused me of taking her money. I brought her into this store in order to avoid having a disturbance on the public street. The woman was not able to speak English. I have been working for a living in New York for the past three years.

The Jury returned a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree:
