Court of General Sessions. Part
 Before Judge Cowing.
 July 19. 1882. Indictment for robbery in the first degree.

Cyrus Lafricain sworn and examined.
 I live at Hempstead, L.I.; on the 8th of July I was in this city. I was at 9 James St. on that day. I lost $25.18. I was called to take a drink with a girl. I went in with a woman who is not here; she said she felt sick and she thought a glass of liquor would do her good. As I saw the bill of fare outside I took it to be an eating house more than anything else. I called for two drinks - all hands took a drink.
 There was four I believe in the house at the time; then they wanted me to pay for it. I paid for it and gave 40 cents. They told me to sit down in another room. This woman that was with me sat down near me for a little while; then she wanted to know if I would treat again. These prisoners are the women that "went through me"; the man prisoner and these women were in the place where I went in with the woman to drink. I gave the woman who is not here 50 cents and I told her to take a drink once more with me and I would leave, I had some business to attend to; she went towards the bar room; she stayed quite a while, I did not think she was coming back with my 50 cents; she came back; she said all hands had a drink then Mr. Devine came in and said I owed twenty cents; then the young man came in and said I owed 20 cents and I ought to pay it. I said I could not see through it at all, that I had already treated more than I had called for. I told him I had no more money. So he went away and a few minutes afterwards he went towards the door and locked the door and put the key in his pocket; he locked me in and he got inside the counter and took a club and came to me swinging the club three or four times and hitting the chair a couple of times; he said, "I want to know whether you have money or not to pay 20 cents." I got up and told him I was not afraid of his club, that I did not owe him anything, but if they wanted the little which I had in my pocket, they could have it in welcome. At that they all searched me and they took what I had.

Nobody held me; he had the club over my head, he was in front of me. I was afraid of him, the door was locked, I thought I was not in a safe place; All the prisoners searched me; I had twenty dollars in my pocket. I did not see that taken, but I saw them take 18 cents out and the woman counted it. I never found the money. After I was robbed he opened the door and told me to "skip." I put my hand in my vest pocket and it was gone. I had it when I went in there. I crossed the street, I took the number and waited there about five minutes to see if anybody would come out of the house. Then I went towards Chatham St. to look for a policeman, I did not find any and I came back in the same street. After a little while I found a police man and had them arrested. They did not strike or beat me. The woman that was with me told them they ought to be ashamed of themselves. I was in fear when I gave up the money. I should not give up my money only I was afraid. Cross Examined. I have lived at Hempstead five or six years, I have a wife and ten children. They are over home in the village. I don't want my folks to know I am in such a scrape. The most of the time I am away I am working in Jersey. I had between twenty and twenty five dollars when I left Hempstead. I passed the 4th of July with my family. I made four dollars between the 4th and the 9th in Seventh Ave. working in a carriage factory. I slept in the Howard house corner of James and Chatham St. I was not in any drinking saloons that night in Chatham St except this one. The girl fetched me into this place, which is a basement. Before I went in I put my hand on my vest pocket and felt I had my money; the girl was walking on the other side. I left eighteen dollars with my wife at home. I did not swear before the Magistrate that a woman took the 18 cents out of my pocket and put it on the table in the police Court; she put it on her dress and counted it in the place. The man prisoner held a club over me and he put his hand in my pocket and took the bills out; they all done it at the same time. It was late in the afternoon I cannot tell you the time. The policeman said something about 8 o'clock, but I cannot remember what he said. I don't know where the woman who went in with me is now. I am not certain that Allen was the bar tender of the place but I know he was behind the counter. I never expressed any doubt as to the identity of the prisoner Allen. I said when he spoke to me that mistakes had been made before and if he could prove his innocence that I would certainly not wish to punish a man that was not guilty; he said that he could prove it was another young man. William H. Shearn sworn I am an officer of the Fourth precinct. I arrested the prisoners, I don't know anything of the robbery; they denied it. I found them all in No 6 James St. and took them to the station house. at half past six o'clock. Margaret Burke sworn and examined in her own behalf testified. I was working one day with Mrs. Devine and the complainant came in at 3 o'clock and brought a woman with him; he called for some drinks at the bar. I don't know what he got from this bar tender; they were about half an hour in this room; they called for more and it came to 40 cents; I heard the bar tender dispute about it; the complainant said, "Wait a while and I will give it to you." He put his hand in his pocket and he said he had no money, that his money was gone, was taken; the girl he brought in off the street was alongside of me. Mrs. Devine said, "If you have money, you will give the price of the drinks; if you have not, call back again. About half past three the woman and man went up the steps again. I was working all the day for an honest living; the complainant came down about half past six and he said he was robbed in the house; the girl and himself were intoxicated.

 I know nothing about the taking of the money, I never was in a Court house before.
 We were all arrested together. Mrs. Devine owned the place. I worked there. Allen was not behind the bar the first time the complainant came in, but when he came back the last time he was; he came in about half past five and took a glass of beer; there never was anything to my charge.
 Fannie Devine sworn. I lived at 9 James St. when I was arrested; the day ~~previous~~ ^{prior} to this occurrence I went to see my sick husband at the Hospital on Blackwell's Island.
 I came home and took off my dress and laid down in the Kitchen to rest awhile.

I heard this noise outside in the bar room I got up, came outside, and said, "what is the trouble? Jack Fisher was the barkeeper; he said that the man called for 40 cents worth of drinks and he was not willing to pay for it. I said, "Perhaps the man has not got the money." I said to him, "Why don't you pay for the drinks?" He said, "I have got no money." I said to Fisher, if he has not the money, perhaps he will call again.
 He put his hand in his pocket and left 18 cents on the table and said, "that is all I have got." So Fisher had a little growl with him. I said, "When you have the rest of the change, you can drop in, it won't break us or make us." So the man walked out with the woman he brought in with him. That was about half past three when they went out. ~~They~~ came back about half past six o'clock with two officers and he said he was robbed of twenty dollars. I said, "O my God, how could that be when the man did not have enough money to pay for the drinks." We were told to get our things ready to go to the station house. That is all I know about it. I have been in prison ever since only since the time that Judge Coving let me go in charge of an officer to get a charge of clothing. Allan never was bar tender in my place. He was not standing at the bar more than ten minutes when the complainant and two officers walked in. At the time there was a dispute between Jack Fisher and the complainant. Allan was not in the place, nor was Allan there the first time, he knows nothing at all about it.

Cyrus Lafricans recalled. I was not gone more than half an hour from the place when I came back. I never swore before the Magistrate that I went in there at three o'clock. My first statement was that it might be between three and four. I remember being examined before the Magistrate. I remember being cross examined as to the time I was in there first. I said it was late in the afternoon (Paper shown) I believe that is my handwriting. I charged that these three persons seized upon my person and robbed me. I can positively identify these three prisoners as the persons who did it. I swear that the man had a club swinging it around and that he hit it on the chair, he locked the door first and swung the club over my head. I was not so excited but what I was able to recognize them.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of robbery in the first degree.

The women were each sentenced to the penitentiary for five years and Allen was sent to the State prison for five years.
