COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS

Part 2.

The People of the State of New York, :Before Hon. Rufus against :B. Cowing and a John Raabe :Jury.

Indictment filed September 5th 1887.

New York, October 31st. 1887.

APPEARANCES: For the People Asst. Dist. Atty.

Ambrose W. Purdy.

For the defendant: W. S. McPheeters

FREDERICK SMITH, a witness for the People, testified:-

I am in the commission business in Washington St. in this city. I have known the defendant about five months. I saw this defendant on the 5th of September ; he came to my store and told me that Mr. Baum, whom is in the liquor business and whom I know, was in need of money and wanted me to cash this check for him. I went to the cashier and got him to cash the check for . I identify the check handed me as the check which he gave me . I gave the prisoner the amount of the check $25.
in cash .

CROSS EXAMINATION;

I had seen the defendant probably two or three weeks before this in a saloon . I did not cash the check but the cashier of our store cashed and I handed the money to the defendant .

HERMAN ROPKE, - a witness for the People, testified:-

I am an ice dealer; I know Mr. Thum.

Q. Is that your signature ? (handing witness the check)

A. No sir.

Q. Did you ever sign that check ? A. No sir .

Q. Did you ever authorize anybody to sign it ?

A. No sir, I never did .

JOSEPH THUM, a witness for the People, testified:-

I keep a saloon and restaurant at No. 401 Greenwich Street in this city : I know the prisoner at the bar for a couple of months; he was a bartender for me for a while.

Q. Is that your signature on the back of this check?

A. No sir .

Q. Did you ever authorize anybody to sign it ?

A. No sir .

Q. Did you send this defendant to Mr. Smith the first witness to get this check cashed ? A. No sir .

Q. Did you have anything to do with that check until it came back ? A. No sir, he was not in my employment.

After I discharged him he went around to all the neighbors trying to get money .

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I know this man Smith. I used to get ice from Mr. Ropke when this man was working for me . I knew Ropke to be a responsible man; his credit was good for $40. or $50. at any time .

JOHN HENRY RAABE, a-witness-the defendant, testified:

I worked for Mr. Thum for four weeks and then I was discharged. I asked him why he discharged me and I could not get any satisfaction. A young man came up to me that used to go to school with me, his name was John Roose on this Monday afternoon that I was discharged at the Polo Grounds, and he said to me "I have got a check for $25. can you cash it?" I said I did not have that amount with me. A few days after that I was arrested. I got the check cashed of Mr. Smith for this man Roose. I knew Mr. Thum and Mr. Ropke whose names were to the check to be responsible men. I did not know the check was forged. I believed it to be genuine.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I dont know exactly where this old schoolmate of mine is now. I carried this check for a few days before I got it cashed. I had never seen Mr. Thum write; I had been working for him four weeks. I knew Smith was a customer in Thum's place.

FREDERICK SIMIS, testified to the good character of the defendant.

The Jury found the prisoner guilty of Forgery in the second degree.

of the CRIME OF ASSAULT IN THE FIRST DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said Peter, John otherwise called Amudale, Nicholas and Antonio, all — late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the sixteenth day of October, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty ~~seven~~ with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, in and upon the body of one William J. Bowden, — in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did make an assault, and him the said William, — with a certain iron pipe, and also with certain pieces which the said Peter, John otherwise called Amudale, Nicholas and Antonio — in their right hands then and there had and held, the same being a deadly and of the said William, — with intent him the said William, — thereby then and there feloniously and wilfully to kill, against the form of the statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT;

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said
Peter, John otherwise called Amudale, Nicholas and Antonio —
of the CRIME OF ASSAULT IN THE SECOND DEGREE, committed as follows:

The said Peter, John otherwise called Amudale, Nicholas and Antonio, all — late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the body of the said William, — in the peace of the said People then and there being, feloniously did wilfully and wrongfully make another assault, and him the said

William, —

James Costello being sworn says
I reside at 181 Park Row and am a steamboat man. On July 27th about midnight, I came off the Steamer City of Long Branch, and went into the saloon No 127 that is and had a bottle beer, and turned to the wash stand to have a good wash, while doing so I heard something fall, and turned round and saw a man lying on the floor but paid no attention to him, and had some more beer the man still laid there, but I paid no attention to him, and I saw the man carried out to the sidewalk, I did not see any one strike the man and do not know who struck the man.
I knew the man was dead when I left the saloon to go to my boat, I saw no fighting or trouble of any kind in the saloon I think there were about 3 or 4 persons in the saloon at the time.

On July 28th about between 11 & 12 P.M. I was standing in the bar room of 127 West St. and I saw the prisoner strike John Curigan the deceased with his fist on the back of the neck and the man fell on the board of his back, they had both come in together, and were in about 10 minutes when the blow was struck, they had had some angry words together, after the prisoner struck the man he walked out of the saloon.
Both prisoner and deceased were frequenters of the saloon, they may have had trouble before they came in the saloon but had none in it.

Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County }
of New York, } ss.

of John J. Phelps
Englewood New Jersey 12 Wall St.
Street, aged 26 years, occupation None being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 20th day of September 1887 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz:

A leather pocketbook containing good and lawful money of the United States to the amount and of the value of one hundred dollars and some papers, all of the value of one hundred dollars ($100.00)

the property of Deponent

and that this deponent
has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Daniel Ringold and William Patterson (both now here) from the fact that at about the hour of 11 O'clock Am said date deponent laid said pocketbook containing said money on the floor of the photograph gallery at No 826 Broadway while he was being photographed. And after deponent got through he went out of said gallery leaving said pocketbook lying on the floor where he had put it, and previous to leaving said gallery deponent saw the defendant Ringold in said gallery.
And after being out of said gallery about two hours deponent discovered that she had neglected to pick up his pocketbook

Subscribed and sworn to before me this deponent then returned to said gallery but could not find said pocketbook. And deponent is informed by John S. Sullivan detective of the 15th Precinct Police that the defendant Ringold who is employed in said gallery admitted and confessed to him the detective that he saw said pocketbook lying on the floor of said gallery and that immediately after deponent left said gallery he Ringold picked up said pocketbook and it in papers and dropped it out of the window to the defendant Patterson who was standing in a court yard at the rear of said building and at the same time he Ringold said to Patterson here is a present for you. And that shortly afterward he Ringold had a conversation with the defendant Patterson when he asked Patterson what was in said pocketbook Patterson answered that there was some money and papers in it and that Patterson gave him Ringold twenty dollars saying this is your share.

And deponent is further informed by George C. Cox who is the proprietor of said Photograph gallery that he heard the defendant Ringold make the above mentioned confession to detective Sullivan and that he saw the said two defendants together and in conversation with each other at the house of S. Decker on Sept 20th in the court yard of said premises. Wherefore deponent charges the said defendants with being together and acting in concert with each other and feloniously taking stealing and carrying away the aforesaid property and prays they may be held and dealt with according to law.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. I desire to withdraw my Complaint against the above named defendants as I do not deem the evidence strong enough to obtain a conviction. I have ascertained that both of the defendants are of excellent character^{and} I am informed that the Def Wm Patterson has been in a responsible position for the past ten years and the firm he worked with all during that time give him an excellent character. Besides I think the defendants have been punished sufficiently.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS

- - Part 2.

The People of the State of New York, :

against

C h a r l e s R o b i n s o n

Indictment filed October 18th 1887.

: Before Hon. Rufus
: B. Cowing and a
: Jury.

New York, October 28th 1887.

APPEARANCES: For the People Asst. Dist. Atty.

Purdy.

For the defendant. Mr. A. SUYDAM.

MARTHA BALDING, a witness for the People testified:

I reside at No. 131 W. 17th St. . My husband is John Jay's coachman and we live in the rooms over the stable. We went away to the country and when we left we locked the premises. We returned to the city on the 20th of September we found a coat and vest missing which my husband had bought for eight pounds in England . I found the lock broke on the bureau drawer.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

My husband came to the city on the second of September and found the place all right.

ALBERT JONRAM, a witness for the People, testified:

I live at No. 118 West 17th St. On the 14th of September 1887, I was with Robinson, the defendant, flying a kite on the roof of this empty stable . He says to me "Come down into the empty stable; " we went down and he put a board across and he climbed in. He took out three pair of gloves and three salt cellars . I did not carry anything away .

CONFEE DE GENEVE P 252210M2

CROSS EXAMINATION:-

I am fifteen years old. All three of us went across on this plank which extended from one window to the other. He opened the window and we all went in.

JOSEPH HIGGINS, a witness for the People, testified:

I know Robinson; I saw him on the 14th of September . We were on the roof flying a kite. Hes said "Come down on the other stable"?; he went into the window and we went after him; he came out with three salt cellars and three pairs of gloves .

D E F E N C E

CHARLES ROBINSON, a the defendant, testified:-

I went into the empty stable on the 14th of September; but into the stable where those people live I did not go. It is not so what these two boys have said. I did not come out with any salt cellars or gloves .

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I haven't any home; I have been sleeping around the streets . I was never in this stable in my life . I used to work in a silver plate manufactory .

The jury found the prisoner guilty of burglary in the third degree.

City and County } ss.
of New York,

of No. 68 Court Street Street, aged 30 years, occupation Engineer being duly sworn deposes and says, that on the 10th day of October 1887 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property viz :

One barrel of copper clippings, and about twenty-five pounds valued at Thirty Dollars

the property of The New York Steam Company and in the care and custody of deponent and that this deponent

for the reasons following to-wit:
On the above described date the said deponent was employed by said Company and this deponent having witnessed the said property he is informed by Officer Dennis O'Hara here present that he O'Hara saw the said deponent bring the said property into a yard shop on Market Street. Shortly after said O'Hara took the said property which he has seen the deponent bring into said shop.

since seen the said property and having identified the same charges the said defendant with the same. Defendant is further informed by State Griffith her present that she is the past owner of the first shop mentioned named and identifies the defendant as the one who attempted to sell to her the said property. Said Kate Griffith further says that the defendant informed her that the said property was the property of the New York Steam Company and it was perfectly safe for her buy the same as he was sure by said company to sell the same.
