John Ponder }
Agst. Edward J. Oberstadt } Assault &
Battery

John Ponder sworn and Cross examined by Counsellor Dudley J. Phelps.

Q Will you state the Circumstances of this Assault?

A I was last Saturday afternoon
I was going along Exchange Place and the defendant was there and met me and said to me you son of a bitch.

~~xxx~~ We met right in front of the Farmers Loan and Trust Company. Mr. Ballin was with the defendant. As I was passing the defendant called out to me "you son of a bitch." I turned round and said to Mr. Ballin
you are a witness to it.

With that the defendant struck me in the head twice. Then a great crowd collected and my son came along and the defendant ran away and ran into 0404 a garret in Wall St. I mean an office in Wall St.

Q After your son came up from there any more blows struck?

A I was so confused that I don't know.

Q How many blows were struck?

A Two, in immediate succession.

The blows were first, the first, over the <sup>left</sup> eye and right side of the head.
The first blow was over the left eye.

Q Did you have any surgical treatment?

A No sir. My eye was bruised.
I did not require any medical treatment.

The second blow knocked me down against a lamp post and my hand prevented me from going down.

Q Did you meet the defendant?

A I was going east and the defendant was going west.
I saw him before he made use of the remark.

Q What was it he said?

- A He said you son of a bitch.
He said it to me.
- Q How do you know?
- A He has done it several times when nobody was present.
The New Assault men before.
- Q On any of these other occasions when he spoken to you in that way did he ever assault you?
- A No.
- Q Was that all that took place?
- A Yes.
- Q How do you know the defendants remark was addressed to you?
- A He has done it to me several times and I went to a lawyer and the lawyer told me to have some one present when the defendant addressed me there and then I had my remedy. I called on Mr Ballin and said you have heard this and I was immediately stuck.
He looked at me when 0406

He said you son of a bitch.

Q When did you last have a conversation with the defendant prior to this meeting.

Questioner further said

Q How old are you?

A I will be 62 the 9th of July next. I weigh about 120 lbs. I don't know how tall I am.

Re Harb

Q He struck you first over the left eye?

A Yes - the discoloration is there yet. He struck me next on the side of the head and knocked me against a lamp post.

I did not strike him nor attempt to strike him.

Q Did you address a word to him or give him any provocation whatever for the language he used to you or for the blows.

A I did not.

Q Have you suffered any physical pain since then from this 0407

Assault.
Q Have.

Q Are you still suffering from the effects of the assault?

A Yes my arm and my head.

Q This man has repeatedly before this applied these insulting epithets?

A Yes sir.

Q When he said you son of a bitch he looked directly at you?

A Directly at me.

Q And that was the epithet he that used towards you on many occasions?

A On many occasions.

Q Was Mr. Ballin in company with him or with you?

A With him.

Q You were alone?

A I was alone.

Re cross.

Q Wasn't this epithet used ~~on many other occasions~~ by many other people towards you?

Fred K. E. Ballin called on behalf of the defendant, being duly sworn deposes and says.

Direct Examination?

Q Mr Ballin where do you reside?

A Belvedere Hotel;

Q what is your age?

A 33 years

Q what is your business?

A Banker -

Q Of the firm of E. S. Ballin & Co. Agents?

Q Doing business in New York?

A Yes sir

Q Do you know Mr Pondri?

A Yes sir

Q Do you know the defendant "Eberstatter"?

A Yes sir

Q Were you requested to appear here as a witness by Mr Pondri?

A Yes sir

Q Now Mr Ballin will you please state in your own language in your own way what you saw of this alleged assault on Saturday last?

A I came out of my office

2 About what time?

A Quarter past two, I don't know the exact minute. I started down exchange place and was just in front of Pandie's office I met Eberstatter and commenced to speak to him and I started to walk back to my office which is in the Post Building; and as I was going towards William Street, Eberstatter joined me and walked back, and we both got talking about a gentleman up town whom we both knew. and talked about him and he said he was angry at him and he was going to knock hell out of him and called him a son of a bitch. Mr Pandie just then met us and he considered that the remark was against him, and he turned around and made a remark.

2 What did he say?

A I don't know what he said. He called some up to be his witness. I took a very little interest in it. I took Mr Eberstatter away a few steps and then he turned again and Mr Pandir met him again.

Mr Pandir was close behind us they commenced to cross at each other and after we got to the farmers loan and trust company Mr Pandir came along and told me I was his witness and that Mr Eberhardt had used these expressions and then I walked on, because I saw some brokers on the corner that I wanted to do business with and left them, then I saw Mr Eberhardt going to walk still pretty rapidly and Mr Pandir after him; that was about all I saw.

Q This remark about a son of a bitch was applied to somebody else that you were talking about?

A Yes sir.

Q And Examined

Q Who was the gentleman you were talking about?

A A gentleman who lives in the same hotel with my self.

Q Who was that particular gentleman?

4

A Mr Strauss.

I was Mr Pandri in that corner position at all?

Ayesii

I and just at the time Mr Eberstatte said Mr Strauss was a son of a bitch Mr Pandri came up?
a Just met us.

I and Mr Pandri then called on you to be a witness?

Ayesii

I did you see any beams struck?
a I don't know if they reached - I knew there arms flew and I don't know that anybody was hurt. hit

I did you see anybody hit-?

a I saw them strike at each other

I did you see Pandri strike at Eberstatte?

Ayesii

I did you see him attempt to strike?

Ayesii

I and did you see attempt to strike first?

a I knew the first that got the beams, was my hat.

5

Q Who did you see strike or attempt to strike the first blow?

A That I cannot say.

Q Cannot remember that? It was almost at the same time?

Q That is you say you saw Pandiri and Eberstatter striking out at the same time.

A Yes sir.

Q And although you were with Eberstatter at the time you could not tell who it was that struck the first blow.

A No sir.

Q Was Eberstatter struck at all?

A That I don't know.

Q You do know that Mr Pandiri was?

A I saw Mr Pandiri fall against the telegraph post or lamp post. I don't know which one it was. They were then twenty five feet away from me, whether that was that blow from Mr Eberstatter or not. - I don't know.

Q Did you see Mr Eberstatter fall against anything?

A No sir.

6

Q or start back as if struck by a blow?

A He drew back

Q What did you mean by start back? If he was hit?

A That I cannot say

Q But you did see Mr Pandie fall against a telegraph post or lamp post?

A Yes sir

Q Was that from the blow?

A That I don't know

Q Did you see any arm towards Mr Pandie?

A Yes sir

Q Whose arm was it?

A Mr Eberstatte,

Q Did you not conclude that the fall of Mr Pandie against the lamp post was from the blow of Mr. Eberstatte?

A Not exactly because Mr Pandie struck at the same time and he might have slipped - they were too far away from me to see that.

Q You saw Mr Eberstatte's arm move out?

7
A Yes sir

Q And you saw Mr Pandia ~~and~~ fall against the lamp post or telegraph pole?

A Yes sir

Q Now did you conclude from seeing Mr Everstatter ~~move~~ move out and Mr Pandia fall against the telegraph pole or lamp post that his fall was the result of a blow from Mr Everstatter?

A I cannot say because some brakers called me at the time I did not conclude it was from the blow of Mr Everstatter. It might be Mr Everstatter may have given it.

Q What did you think Mr Everstatter fell against the lamp post from?

A I thought he possibly struck or missed his footing against some thing and slipped;

Q It didn't occur to you that the moving out of the arm in the striking condition of Mr Everstatter had anything to do with it?

04 15

8

A It doesn't occur to me either way I didn't pay so much attention to it so as to denote it.

Q You say you saw Mr Eberstatte run antitreehed in a striking manner towards Mr Pandir and that Mr Pandir fell against the lamp post or telegraph pole whichever it was; And then I asked you the question did you not conclude that the reason of Mr Pandir's falling against the lamp post or telegraph pole was because of the blow struck by Mr Eberstatte?

A Yes sir; I say I think possibly Mr Pandir's foot slipped

Q Did that occur to you that Mr Pandir may have slipped at the time or was it an after thought?

A It occurs to you just now it was after —

A It occurs to me it may have been from the slipping

Q Did it occur to you at the time?

A It did

Q Then you must have been looking very seriously at those occurrences as was looking at them.

Q And engaged in looking at them you could not tell whether Mr Everstatter hit Mr Pandair or not.

A Before Mr Pandair fell I don't know what happened but I noticed he fell against the telegraph or lamp post.

Q Did you not see Mr Everstatter strike at Mr Pandair?

A I saw him strike at him I did not see him hit.

Q Did you hear the blow?

A No sir.

Q Have you any doubt that when he struck at him he struck him.

A I suppose he hit him but I didn't see him do it.

Q Have you any doubt he hit him from what you saw?

A No sir.

A I am

Q do you know Mr. Pender?

A I do.

Q did you see Mr Pender on Saturday afternoon last?

A yes sir

Q now Mr Everstadt. will you please state what occurred immediately before you saw him and after you met him A I went to the custom house to see as to an entry and as it was pretty late I tried to get into the custom house through the naval office - well the custom house was closed and I returned to go towards Exchange place and there I met Mr Ballin the last witness who putting his arm into mine says Ed what do you think of so Ed

so) meaning Mr Strauss a gentle man living at the Belvedere house I says Ined I think he is a damn son of a bitch and you better keep away from him or something to that effect. with that Mr Pandin turned around and says then you call me a son of a bitch You hear you thief and he put up his fist and I put mine up and tried to ward him off with my arm and he says come on with that his son comes up and says would you lick my father and I said I will lick you too if you dont go away
Where were you arrested?

A Right in your office -

Q And you see Mr Pandin before he spoke to you?

Answer

I neither you nor, Mr Ballin?

Answer

12

Q Did you apply that epithet to him?
Answer

Q Did you strike him?

Answer I said to him when he spoke to me I don't want anything to do with you and with that he put up his fist and I just pushed him away (that way showing) and at that time a great many people had congregated and he tried to strike me and his arm missed and I walked away.

Cross Examined

Q You hit him in the breast when he came to you?

Answer

Q Where did you push him?

A Where I thought I did in the eye or forehead.

Q When you pushed him in the eye and blacked his eye?

Answer

Q Where did you strike him?

A I don't remember whether I struck him on the side of the head.

Q Do you remember where he

18 struck you a I did not strike him but he made for made.

Q you did not blacken his eye?
A no sir
Rebuttal
Q and you came away as soon as <sup>fast</sup> you could?
A yes sir as fast as my legs would carry me I done nothing wrong
Rebuttal
Q you did not do anything wrong
A no sir
Q then why did you run to the office of your counsel if you done nothing wrong?
A I wanted to.
