To

Hon Frederick Smyth

Recorder of the City of New York

The petition of the undersigned would most respectfully shew to your Honor

That on the 12th day of December 1881 he pleaded guilty before your Honor to an indictment for selling policy slips and was sentenced to ten days in the Penitentiary and to pay a fine of One Hundred Dollars.

That your petitioner has served said term of ten days but by reason of poverty he is utterly unable to pay said fine or any part thereof.

That your petitioner has a wife dependent upon him for support and is suffering greatly for the necessaries of life, by reason of your petitioner being confined and thereby unable to obtain support for her.

Your petitioner further shews that he is fifty six years of age, was born and has always lived in the City of New York, where he has always borne a good reputation and never was arrested for or charged with any crime or misdemeanor until the crime to which he pleaded guilty.

before your Honor.

Our petitioner further shows that for a number of years he has worked as a porter for Mr Thomas Bewick, a hat and fur merchant of No 275 Street Street in the City of New York and was compelled by reason of his eyesight failing to leave said employment.

That after leaving said employment of said Mr Bewick he was unable to obtain other employment and his wife and himself becoming in indigent circumstances he was induced temporarily take the situation to sell said policy slips to obtain actual necessary subsistence for his wife and himself, intending to seek and obtain a situation in some other and an honorable business.

Our petitioner further states that if your Honor will remit the fine imposed upon him and grant him his discharge and liberty he will not at any time or in any manner engage in any business which is not both legal and honorable.

Our petitioner therefore prays that your Honor will remit the fine imposed upon him and grant him his discharge.

William D Harris

Petitioner

0921

City & County of New York:

William A. Harris being duly sworn deposes & says that he is the petitioner herein, that he has read the foregoing petition by him subscribed and that the same is true of his own knowledge.

City & County of New York:

Thomas Beswick being duly sworn deposes & says that he is a partner merchant and carries on business at No. 275 Front Street in the City of New York.

Deposant further deposes & says that he is and has been for the past 18 years acquainted with William A. Harris the foregoing petitioner, that the said petitioner worked for deposant as a porter in deposant's said business on and off during said 18 years until he was compelled to give up by reason of his eyesight failing him.

Deposant further deposes & says that the said Harris during the whole of the time that defendant has known him has always borne the character of being a good sober industrious and law abiding citizen and was never arrested for or charged or suspected of any crime or misdoemeanor of any sort to defendant's knowledge except the one upon which he is now confined.

Defendant further deposes and says that the said Harris is very poor and has no means whatever wherewith to pay the fine imposed upon him and further that the said Harris' wife is actually suffering for the necessities of life which she is unable to obtain by reason of her said husband not being at liberty to go out to obtain and earn the money for the same.

in this office ^{of Warren & Co} in said city. That on November 12th 1891 a check for ~~two hundred dollars~~ nine hundred and forty two ^{no} ^{as defendant is informed & believes} payable to the order of cash was presented to the Bank of New York National Banking Association for payment. That said check was signed "J. H. Warren & Co. Charles P. Summer". That defendant did not sign said check and that he ~~was~~ is the only person authorized to sign checks in the City of New York for Warren & Co.
That the said signature is not the signature of any person authorized to sign checks for said firm of Warren & Co and defendant knows the same to be a forgery and that said Huntington has been missing from his office since Monday morning and defendant has received no part of said cash.

the property of deponent, a widow and that this deponent has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away by Charles Hutchison colored (now here) for the reason following to wit:

that on said day at about half past seven o'clock in the forenoon deponent placed said diamond ring upon the mantle piece of the fireplace in deponent's room, that a few minutes thereafter said defendant came into said room carrying some coal into a coal bucket standing near close to said mantle piece, and kept their room after said Hutchison had left said room deponent wiped said ring. That during the time mentioned, no other person beside
