The People
vs.
Patrick Slattery,
Peter Wlash,
Annie Slattery,
jointly indicted with Cornelius Hanbury.

Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Judge Gildersleeve.

Indictment for assault in the second degree.

Friday, September 12, 1884.

John O'Brien sworn. I am a police officer connected with the 28th precinct in this city, I was on patrol duty on the night of the 24th of August, I was on the first to go from six till twelve o'clock on First Avenue from 62nd to 66th Street and all the side streets to Avenue A and Second Avenue. I know these defendants and have seen them frequently in that neighborhood, they live around there, I think Slattery lives in 410 East 64th Street, five doors from First Avenue, I was passing along between six and seven o'clock when I finished building about the 2nd street point I came down First Avenue to 64th Street and through 64th Street, I went down there, there was a crowd in front of this building drinking beer on the sidewalk. Walsh and Slattery were among them, the first thing I knew Mr Slattery hit me with a stone in the back of the head when I ordered the crowd away and he ran in the house, I pursued him in the house and caught him in the house and had a hand-to-hand fight with him and his wife. He struck me every place he could with his hand and his wife struck me on the nose with a frying pan and cut my nose open, I brought him out to the street and when I got on the street I was assaulted again by Peter Walsh, he struck me with a stone on the back of the head, there is a mark on my head. Officer Donohue came up when I got around on First Avenue, I says to Donohue, give me a hand; he held this fellow, I was very weak at the time with the loss of blood; when Donohue took hold of Slattery, I saw Walsh fire another stone, I let Officer Donohue hold Slattey and I arrested Walsh and he grabbed the stick and took the stick and I took the stick from him and brought him to the Station House, I got assaulted on the way down by three parties that aint here. Cross Examined. I have been on the Police force since the eighth of February, during that time I have not arrested anybody else for clubbing me, I do not know that anyone has charged me with clubbing them, I believe there was a complaint made one time by a man who said I struck him but I did not, it was dismissed by the Board of Police Commissioners. There is no charge against me at Head-quarters. How many people were in front of 412 or 414 drinkin beer? I guess there was seven or eight. Mrs. Slattey was not outside at the time, I did not see her till I got in her house, I do not know the names of the five or six more who were there; there was not a man named Cornelius Hanbury there. Some of the people were outside of the stoop line and some of them inside, Slattey was standing up, I could not say whether he was drunk or not, I do not think he was exactly sober, I think they were all a little under the influence of liquor. They were drinking beer out of a can and making so much noise that I could hear them at First Avenue. I have known Mr Slattey about three months, I have had trouble with him one night, I never assaulted him before that time, never struck him with my club, I never said that I would drive him out of the ward, I never said to anybody that I would fix him yet. One night he went into his house to bring out a pistol to shoot me and I sent down for Officer Balluster. I could not exactly tell you what kind of a stone he threw at me, I did not see him pick it up but I saw him have it in his

to defend my head. I had Slattery under arrest when she hit me with the frying-pan, she picked it up off the stove, I had my hand on Slattery's collar and he was pounding away at me, I was trying to pull him out-doors and she came forward and struck me with the frying-pan; she might have got struck with the club and might have fallen down in the bed-room. For what did you first arrest Slattery? For assault, he hit me with a stone, he hit me on the back of the head with a stone.

John Mathews sworn. I am a clothing cutter and live at 174 Avenue C. On the night of the 24th of August I went to see a friend of mine at 65th Street and going down from the elevator, I went down Third Avenue toward 64th Street and First Avenue, I saw this officer without a hat and I saw Slattery and his wife on the corner; a boy brought the officer's hat and he put on his hat and walked toward 63rd Street with the prisoner Slattery, another officer came and he handed the prisoner over to him; he walked on the side and I was right between this officer and the other, Walsh came along with a stone in his hand and got in front of me and fired the stone after the other officer. The officer whom is here arrested Walsh and Walsh took hold of the officer's club and wanted to take the club out of the officer's hand, he could not do so and wanted to run off, the officer grabbed Walsh and brought him to the Station House. By that time the stones were flying around and you could not see where they came from. This stone that you saw Walsh throw, who did it strike if anybody? I did not see it strike, it only crossed the officer's head who had Slattery. That is all I saw, I went up to the Station House and reported.

Cross Examined. This was between six and seven, it was getting dark; there were a godd many people around when the officer had Slattery; his wife wanted to take her husband away, I only saw Walsh throw one stone. I saw the officer make an attempt to strike Walsh with the club but Walsh held it with his hand.

Micheal Welsh sworn. I am a brick-layer and live at 1144 First Avenue, I was on the Avenue that night when the officer was arresting Slattery, I looked out of my window and saw the officer with Slattery and his wife and Walsh, he has hold of Slattery and then as the stone was thrown he gave him over to another officer an went back for Walsh and grabbed hold of him and brought him along; the stone was thrown by Walsh but whether it struck O'Brien or not I could not swear, Walsh tried to run away and pulled the clu from the officer, I heard O'Brien saying, dam it let the club go, what business have you got with it. He would not let the club go and they shoved back and forth and both of them fell in 63rd Street. O'Brien was bleeding pretty lively. The other officer was coming down and at 61st Street there was a kind of a riot. Officer Sullivan and another officer ran as fast as ever they could to assist O'Brien. Cross Examined. I did not see Slattery and his wife come out of the house, I saw them going down on the sidewalk, I did not see either of them bleeding, I did not pay any attention to that, there was such a crowd I could not see anybody. That was the first time I had ever seen Walsh. The Officer never attempted to strike him while I was there, I watched everything out of my own window. They may have quarreled before but of course I did not see it.

John D. Sullivan sworn. I am a police officer connected with the 28th precinct, I was going home to my supper on this night about half past six on Sunday evening, when I saw a crowd in 64th Street below First Avenue, I did not pay much attention to it at the time because it is nothing unusual to see a crowd around that neighborhood, I came down in 65th Street and heard there was an officer getting killed down First Avenue, I ran down and followed up the crowd; between 60th and 61st Streets there was five or six men standing in a group on the sidewalk, there was one man in the party in his shirt sleeves and he was speaking very loud denouncing the action of the officer and saying that he would like to get at him and do so-and-so to him. Somebody from the party was passing by and spoke up to me, Sullivan, that fellow is after firing a stone at O'Brien. I don't know anything about the arrest of Walsh and Slattery and his wife, I saw the in the Station House, I saw Officer O'Brien too, his nose was cut and the back of his head was cut and bleeding.

Cross Examined. Slattery appeared to be drunk, there was blood on Slattery and his wife, I did not notice the cuts on Slattery's head.

The Case for the Defence. Pater Dunn sworn. I am a black smith and remember this difficulty. On that afternoon Mr and Mrs. Slattery were sitting in the house together, there are three new buildings going up there, Walsh was there and Mr Slattery came out, Mr O'Brien struck Mr Slattery without the least provocation at the outside of the door on account of a little previous racket they had. Mr Slattery picked up his hat and when he was picking it up O'Brien caught him by the shoulder and he shoved him towards the door and at the same time struck him on the shoulder twice before he got to the hallway, first with his hand and then with the club and when he got him inside the door he struck him on several occasions. His wife appealed to him not to strike him any more, I went in the room and came out, I was afraid of the man, I asked him for God's sake not to strike the man any more, he cut him on the side of the head with the club, if Mr. Slattery had got it with full force it would have killed him dead. Why didn't it kill you? Because my arm fired it off, he meant well enough; he banged around right and left; there was three or four of us in the house besides Mr and Mrs. Slattery; we had to retreat into the room afraid of being killed; he clubbed Mrs. Slattery unmercifully on the head. When O'Brien was leaving the house he was not cut any more than I am at the present time but Mr and Mrs. Slattery were but unmercifully. Do you know where the officer was hit? No sir, I did not leave the house, I was looking for my shoe and couldn't find it, I wanted to go to the Station House, I live in the house, I did not see Mr or Mrs. Slattery strike the officer.

Cross Examined. I have been working about seventeen years, the stone-cutters are on a strike now and I have not been working for two weeks, I was convicted and in prison for a month. I was in Mr Slattery's house this Sunday there were in the hallway Mr Walsh and his sister, myself, Mr and Mrs. Slattery and the two children. At the time the officer came in the room Mrs. Slattery, M5 Walsh, his sister and myself were in there, the officer said nothing when he came in the room, Slattery was outside of 412 getting clubbed. This was on the ground floor front opening on the street, I could see this clubbing and his wife too. From the time the officer struck him it was only about a minute until they were in the hallway. When I saw Slattery he was picking up his hat and the officer caught him by the shoulder, the officer dragged him inside the room and struck him. It was last February that I got a month on a charge of petty larceny, I have never been arrested before but have worked seventeen years. Did you see Mr. Slattery or Walsh drinking on the street? No, Mr. Slattery lives on the ground floor and there is no necessity for him to go outside to drink. I did not see Mrs. Slattery commit any violence on the officer, I did not see her have a frying-pan in her hand; she threw up her hands to try and protect her husband from the officer asking him for God's sake to desist, I do not know how many times the officer struck her, she was dragged out of the house all blood; they were brought to the station house but I did not go outside. I am certain that Mrs. Slattery did not assault the officer.

Jeffrey Monohue sworn. I am a laborer and work for the right corner of 63rd Street and the Boulevard, I live in 48 64th Street. I saw the first part of the trouble between the officer and these people, I saw Mr. Slattery come out of his house and saw Officer O'Brien about twenty feet or so from his own door, he asked Slattery where he was going? He said I am going down towards the river; with that O'Brien hauled off and gave him a chuck and said, go on you loafer. Slattery said, I aint no loafer. With that the officer followed him up and hit him with the left hand all the time until he went to his door. The wife was standing at the door and she caught Slattery and held him when O'Brien was pegging him all the time; she got him inside the door; with that O'Brien followed him up and got ready his culb; they got in the door someways and I saw Slaterry and the wife come out in the hall a while after in gores of blood. I did not see Slaterry or Walsh drinking beer outside.. I know Slaterry for, two or three years and never knew him to be ar ested, he has always worked, I did not see Walsh there, I am sure the officer struck first.

Cross Examined. I live the third house from Slaterry. I know him going back and forward, he does not visit me or I him, I do not know whether he is a drinking man or not, he seemed to me to be sober this evening. I was about twenty feet away when I heard this conversation between Slaterry and the officer. I had been sitting there half an hour, the firststhat that the officer gave Slaterry knock- ed off his hat, Slaterry stooped down to pick up his hat, and the officer followed him up to his door, Slaterry made no resistance, I did not see Mrs. Slaterry doing anything.

peter Walsh sworn. I am t wenty-one years old and am a coach driver, I have never been arrested before, I did not throw a stone at the officer, I did not stand in front of a door in First Avenue drinking beer. I was in 64th Street between First Avenue and the Boulevard between the hours of half past six and seven o'clock when Officer O'Brien came down to 64th Stree into a vacant lot, I was talking to a friend of mine by the name of Billie Sheahan. With that Mr. Slaterry went over to O'Brien and whatever he said to him I don't know, I saw the officer hit Mr. Slaterry, I says to myself I will walk away out of the street to keep out of trouble. In doing so I walked to the corner of 61st Street and First Avenue, I stood till Officer O'Brien came down to First Avenue, he transfered Mr Slaterry over to another officer. O'Brien hit him on the back of the head and on the top of the head and kicked him. He said, I will walk along peaceably and quietly if you don't kick me. Going down First Avenue he hit me with a club between 61st and 62nd Streets on the jaw bone, I was bleeding in the Station House. I did not hit the officer, I did not see Mr or Mrs. Slattery hit the officer. Cross Examined. I drive a hack coach for myself No. 482, the last time I drove it was about two months ago, I have done nothing since, I have apartments in Mr Slattery's house, I have never been in trouble before, I did not throw a stone that day at anybody, I did not have hold of the officer's club and I did not wrestle with the officer.

Patrick Slattery sworn. I live at 410 64th Street. I am a boatman, this happened on Sunday, I was working the day before for Mr Dwyer a Stevedore, I was arrested about thirteen years ago for being tight and that is all. The defendant is my wife, we are married a little over six years and have two children, I have known this officer about three or four months, he broke my finger one night before this; my brother-in-law and I had a few words and the officer came down the street and hit me with a club and broke my finger. On this day in question I was not outside drinking beer, there was no difficulty at all, I was going down towards the river, I asked the officer a civil question, he hauled off at me in a minute and said, you God damned bummer, get out of here, he clubbed me over into my own door, my wife got hold of me, he clubbed me into the room, he pulled out a pistol and said, you son of a b-- - I will shoot you. Did you seize a stone and strike the officer with it? No sir, I never lifted a hand to him, he took me to the Station House, my wife followed me and after I was locked down she was locked down too, my wife did not assault him, she did not have a frying-pan in her hand while this trouble was going on in the house, she could not have time to get the frying-pan from the time the thing happened; my wife did not make any assault upon the officer while he was in the house; she said, for God's sake don't kill my husband; he hauled off and hit her several times with a club and said, You God damned bitch. Cross Examined. I have not been in the penitentiary or the State Prison, I was not convicted on the 20th of March 1880 by Judge Wandell for drunkenness and disorderly conduct. About thirteen years ago I was not in jail at all, I was let go at the time for being tight, I was not exactly arrested, I went into the Station House myself and was kept there, I drink a little off and on. On this afternoon I spoke to the officer first about turning my wife off the stoop and not letting her sit with the young ones, I said, Mr O'Brien what hard feelings have you against my wife and children, you turn them in every time you come along. He hit me with his fist first in the mouth, he did not knock me down, I done nothing, I stood still and he hit me with the club across the legs, arms and head, he backed me up into the house, I was about twenty or twenty-five feet away from the house when he commenced to strike me; my wife was at the stoop, he clubbed me into my room and then he clubbed my wife there, I could not tell how many times he clubbed me, I never lifted a hand to him, he took me out in the street and my wife followed, when he got down the street he must have been hit on the head, I seen him when he came back with the other prisoner, he was bleeding, there was a little stain of blood on the back of his collar, there was a stone fired at him at the time he had hold of me, he let me go, and gave me to another officer. I was not hit with any stone.

Cornelius J. Kane sworn. I am an officer in the Superior Court, I know Walsh personally about a year and a half, I know him by reputation a great while longer, his father and mother are relatives of my wife; his father always spoke well of him, he never worked for anybody but his father; his father left him some coaches at his death and he not having experience enough to transact the business, they passed away out of his control, I had been promised a position for him on the Second Avenue Railroad, I never heard anything against his character for peace and quietness.

Annie Slattery sworn. I am the wife of one of the defendants and have been married going on six years. On this day I did not see my husband do anything, but I saw O'Brien strike him with a club, I saw O'Brien driving my husband into the door, I rushed out to him, O'Brien followed him inside the rooms and clubbed him, I caught hold of my husband by the shoulders and said, Officer O'Brien don't kill my husband. I did not touch or assault the officer, I did not have a frying pan in my hand that day, I was not doing anything to the officer only trying to save my husband from him clubbing him. He called me all the names that ever came into his head. The officer struck me twice upon the head and he struck me on the back, I gave him no provocation, I followed my husband down to the Station House to see whether he would be locked up or not. The officer told the Captain or the policeman down there who was asking what was the matter, he turned around and swore that I struck him with a frying-pan, there was blood on my face and cuts, my husband was all covered over with blood too, I have never been arrested in my life before, I have a nursing baby on my breast..

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty against Patrick Slattery and Patrick Walsh and acquitted Annie Slattery.

Edmund Sorlin

} Two Cases.

City and County of New York, ss: John Schmittle
being duly sworn deposes and says: I am the person upon whose complaint
the prisoner herein was arrested. I have known said ~~prisoner~~ Edmund Sorlin during about two years last past as a young medical student who had come to this county to complete his medical studies,
and have always known him to be a person of quiet demeanor and of temperate habits and excellent character. During the past year he has been my room mate and I know from the letters he has received from his parents who reside in Paris and from my own correspondence with his parents that they are highly respectable and honorable.
I know that at the time he stole my bank book he was sorely in need of money and anxious to reach home and find the cause of the cessation or delay in remittances
from his parents, and I believe, as he states,
that it was his serious intention to return
to me the money stolen immediately upon his arrival out of resources which I am satisfied are at his command there.

He made an effort to avoid arrest and has voluntarily ~~done~~ everything in his power to enable me to realise the utmost towards making good my loss, out of the money or other valuables in his possession or control at the time of his arrest, and he has further more taken the steps necessary to make good very shortly the difference between the amount stolen and that which is now in the hands of the property clerk, concerning which he has given me his certificate in writing that it is all mine or purchased with my money and that he desires the same to be surrendered to me.

Wherefore, believing that the same would be in conformity with the interests of justice and the future well fare of this young man, I pray and beseech for him the mercy of the Court.
