The People
 James M. ^{McRae}
 and William Cochran } Court of General Sessions Part 7 Before Judge Cowing June 8. 1882 Indictment for burglary in the first degree and petty larceny James H. Reeson, sworn and examined, testified. I keep an employment office at 247 Seventh Avenue, I have been there going on two years; on the night of the 17th of May the window in the back part of my house was broken, a window which leads into a hall bedroom; they got in on the fire escape and broke a pane of glass. I missed two pillows and a clock. I saw this property at 12 o'clock.
 My wife made up the bed and she came for me to fasten the window down. I left my desk and went and fastened it down myself because we had been robbed before. The pillows were worth two dollars and a half each and. That was all the property I missed the last time. I saw the tall prisoner MacRae standing on the corner in the afternoon, but I cannot tell the hour, he is in the habit of frequenting there because there is a lager beer saloon underneath me. I did not see Cochran around the neighborhood that day or evening. Cross Examined. The window was opened by breaking a pane of glass and putting the hand in. I know there was no pane of glass broken before, for the landlord had just repaired the house. Daniel Sellers sworn I am working in a liquor store and am a baker by trade; on the 14th of May I was employed by Mr. Leston, a Frenchman at 247 Seventh Ave. where the last witness lives. I know the two defendants I saw them on the street, the same place where I am working, I see them almost every day in the week. These two whitemen and a colored man were together on the night of the 14th of May - the whitemen were in front and the colored man was in the back yard. The colored man slung two pillows in the back yard and the whitemen received them. I did not know who the property belonged to, I let them pass by. I did not see any clock. The big man had a red pillow and the little fellow had a pillow with a blue stripe; when they got on the street the little fellow walked away with the two pillows and the big man walked away by himself; this was on 21st St. and Seventh Ave. The pillows I had seen in the possession of the prisoners I never saw before; the colored man was in company with the two whitemen all that evening from 8 o'clock. The colored man got the pillows from Mr. Reeser's window.

0015

James MacRae sworn and examined. I was standing in Twenty fifth st. and Seventh ave. on the corner with Mr Cochrane speaking to him when this colored man came along, he had two pillows with him, one was red top and one was blue stripe. He says to me, Hallo, take a walk. So I walked as far as Twenty eighth st. and Seventh ave and had a drink with him. After that he left me; That is all I know of the pillows. I was arrested on Saturday; That was three days after it happened. When I was arrested I told about this colored man. I live home with my mother. I have not been working at present. I worked for a French man who keeps a furniture truck. I have been moving furniture around the first of May. Cross Examined. The boy's first name is "Jim". I knew him to work for a lady of the name Mrs. Doll. I don't know where he got the pillows from. I did not know they were stolen; he did not hand one of them to me; he did not say anything to me about where he got the pillows; The colored man took the pillows with him; he never let them out of his hands. Cross Examined. I merely said to the officer I did not commit the burglary. I stated to the officer that I had no knowledge of the matter whatever I live at 31 West Twenty Eighth St. I might have been out of employment six months. I have been working around doing odd jobs moving furniture.

William Lockman sworn and examined, testified I was standing on the corner of Twenty fifth St along with James MacRae and this colored man came up to us and asked us to take a walk up the Avenue and have a drink. He went up as far as 28th St. and he left us and we came right back again. I don't know the colored man's name, only James is his last name. I don't know where he got those pillows from. I had no conversation with him about them. I never had them in my possession; he tells what is not true. Cross Examined. I am a bricklayer. I worked in King St. before the first of May for George Barlow; MacRae and I had been together a little over half an hour standing on the corner of Twenty fifth St. and that are. It might have been six or seven o'clock; MacRae and I had not been in the habit of frequenting this place 207 Seventh Avenue. I do not know this man

Sellers have been arrested for being intoxicated but never for any crime. Johanna MacRae, the mother of MacRae, testified that he lives home with her and that he always brought his wages home.

James Van Beman, brother-in-law of the prisoner, testified that he knew him to be an honest young man.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of burglary in the second degree!

 Before Judge Geldersleeve, May 31, 1882.
 Indictment for burglary in the third degree

Edward Cole, sworn and examined, testified: Where do you live? No 178 1/2 Christie St. What business are you in? Provisions. You keep a stock of provisions in your store? Yes sir.
 Upon the night of the 20th of May did you fasten up your place? It is the store of George K.
 Medary. You are a clerk in the store of Mr.
 Medary? Yes sir. Did you fasten up the place at night? Yes sir, I did. Where is Mr. Medary's store situated? No 21 Spring St. Was there any property in it? Yes sir. What night was it you fastened it up and that you found it broken open the next morning, did you find it broken open the next morning? I found the glass broke and the shutter nailed on. What night was that, the 20th of May? The 20th of May of this year? Yes sir. Did anybody sleep in the store? No sir. Will you just describe to the jury how the window was broken, the shutter of the window was broken? I cannot say how it was broken. Describe the way in which you found it? I found the pane broke and the shutter nailed on. Had the shutter been removed? It must have been removed.

the way in which you found it was it the way in which you left it the night before? No sir.
 In what way does the shutter fasten, by a slide?
 No sir, it fastened with a screw inside.
 Instead of it being screwed inside you found it nailed? Yes sir. There was nobody living in the store to attend to it at night? No sir. What property was in there? A stock of provisions.
 Was anything taken? No sir. Do you know anything of these young men being connected with the burglary of your own knowledge?
 No sir, not of my own knowledge. Cross Examined. What time did you leave the store the night before? Ten o'clock. Were you the last to leave there? Yes sir. You put up the shutters?
 That is, the men put them up and I fastened them. You fastened the shutter? Yes.
 There was nothing taken from inside the place, nothing stolen? No sir.
 Edward Maynard, sworn and examined, testified. Are you a police officer? Yes sir.
 Of what district? The Fourteenth Precinct.
 Were you on duty upon the night of the 20th of May? Yes sir. Do you know Mr. Medary's store in Spring St? I do. Do you know anything of these three young men, prisoners at the bar here being connected with breaking into this sure, now tell us all you know about it? There was four young men there, they were in pairs together. McDonald and another one Griffin and Sweeney was together. McDonald with another one pulled the shutter off and broke the glass. I was standing about 75 or 80 feet from him. I stepped out in the middle of the street and rapped. McDonald ran about a block and a half up the street, was pursued and caught by another officer. The party that was with McDonald ran into the hallway and these other two boys followed him. I stopped at the hallway door two or three minutes afterwards and those two boys came out of the hallway again. This was about 2 o'clock in the morning. Was there any property taken? No sir. What did they say when you arrested them? Sweeney and Griffin said they had nothing to do with it and said they did not know anything about it. Had you made any charge against them at the time? I asked them what they wanted to do at the window. They said they had nothing to do with it; they said they were trying to get into an eating saloon. McDonald asked to be let go. That is all I know about it; the fourth party escaped - the one who was with McDonald. I did not see Sweeney.

and Griffin speak to McDonald or O'Brien. (McDonald's name is O'Brien) Cross Examined. This was about two o'clock in the morning, it was pretty dark. I did not arrest McDonald myself, he ran away, I saw his back when he was running. I arrested Sweeney and Griffin in the hallway. There is a restaurant next to this house. When you arrested them did not Griffin and Sweeney tell you they were down stairs to see a cook and take you down to see the cook? The cook told me they tried to get in the back door and he would not let them. They took you down to show you where the cook was? Yes sir, took me to the front door. I cannot say exactly that it was very dark that morning. You did not see Griffin and Sweeney touch anything or do anything? No sir, they only ran as soon as the glass was broke. They ran in the hallway. I knew McDonald before this and I knew the others by sight. I recognized McDonald and Griffin. I was not positive about him. I saw Griffin and Sweeney standing four or five feet from the window and they ran away together. They got in the hallway as quick as they could. Officer Hoden arrested McDonald.

McDonald pleaded guilty to an attempt at burglary in the third degree and was sentenced to the State prison for two years.

The jury rendered a verdict of not guilty in the case of Sweeney and Griffin.

A Stock of Provisions of about the value of ten thousand dollars the property of George K Meady and in care and charge of deponent and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property attempted taken, stolen, and carried away by John Mc Donald, John Sweeney and James Griffin (all now here) and an other person not arrested for the reasons following, to wit;

that deponent was informed by Officer Edward S Maynard that at or about the hour of two o'clock on said night he said officer saw said defendants standing in front of said premises and saw said Mc Donald remove a shutter from the show window and heard the crash of the breaking of the pane of glass in said show window and then said defendants ran away Wherefore deponent charges said defendants with acting in concert with each other in attempting to burglariously enter said premises and attempting to take steal and carry away the aforesaid property
