The People
vs
John

Count of General Sessions. Part I Before Recorder Smyth. March 25. 1892.

Indictment for grand larceny second degree Mary J. Wharton, sworn and examined.
I live at 251 Beeker St. and on the 8th of Feb.
I was in the same place. I have known the defendant eight years; he was employed by me as press man; he was working in my printing office that day. I had sixty five dollars in those premises. I put it in a little closet up by the top ceiling, and I was by the back window. I heard him slip off the chair. I saw him with the money tied up in a linen cloth and he ran out of the door with it. My son was down stairs cutting paper. The defendant went towards Sixth Avenue. My son came up in the back door as he went out of the front and I shouted to him quick that he had stolen my money. My son went after him right away, but he could not find him and he then went to the station house. I saw the defendant afterwards in the Police Court. My son got an officer and had the defendant arrested. The money was not found in his possession. The money was taken about twelve o'clock at noon.
Cross Examined. The defendant worked for us by the job; he was waiting then for a job.

I put this money in the closet the day before the defendant took it. There was a patent latch on the closet door and I locked it.

I said to the defendant, "Where are you going?" He said, "I will be back in a minute." There was sixty five dollars taken. I did not send the defendant out that day to collect a bill amounting to $2.25 to a certain place in Nassau St. for printing, and my son did not send him to my knowledge.

John P. Wharton, sworn and examined: I live at 251 Bleecker St. and am engaged in the business of job printing with my mother. I saw the defendant on the 8th of February at my office at nine o'clock in the morning; he was working there; the money was lost about twelve o'clock. I was in the basement cutting paper at the time, and as I came up stairs with the paper he was going out of the door. I says to him, "Hold on Billy, where are you going? This job is ready." He said, "I am just going to get lunch, I will be back in five minutes, and slammed the door, and went out. My mother said, "I believe he has got that money." She looked in the closet and she said, "yes, he has got it, go after him." I ran out and went to Sixth avenue. I could not see him anywhere. Then I went to Police Headquarters. The defendant never came back. I left a description of him. The next time I saw the defendant was two weeks or sixteen days after on the Bowery Sunday evening - not in the Bowery, Bleeker street near the Bowery. I grabbed hold of him. He said, "you are just the fellow I want to see." I say, "you are just the fellow I want to see, I will keep you, I have got you." I held on to him. I gave a boy a quarter to go and get a policeman, and the policeman came. It was not Officer Armstrong. He had been looking for him. It was a policeman in uniform. When he was spoken to about the sixty five dollars in money which was taken he only said, I was crazy, he kept saying that in the street and in the station house: "you are crazy, I know nothing about the money."

By the Court. You are not crazy? No sir, not in the least. I do not occupy the whole house No 257 Bleeker st; only the store and basement. I know the money was rolled up in a piece of red linen or muslin and put on the top shelf of the closet.

Cross Examined. I know you are eight or ten years.

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

I was on friendly terms with him. He ran a printing press when he came to me. He had been working for me two months and I intended that he should keep working right along; he has been working for me off and on for the last five years. He has collected money for me occasionally during that time. I gave him no order on the day this money was stolen to collect a bill for me. How long a time elapsed between the time when this man left the place and you were informed by your mother of the loss of the money? Not five minutes. I went out after him as quick as I could get my hat and coat on. There was only 15-cents due him for the work he had done. He told me he was going to dinner when he went out. He did not tell me he was going down town to get a steady position. I held the defendant ten or fifteen minutes till the officer came. He did not make any outcry or try to get away from me. I only employed another man beside the defendant. There was no person in the store while I was down in the basement. I could not remember how many men came in and out. My mother missed the money immediately after he went out.

Hugh J. McGrade, sworn and examined. I am connected with the Tenth Precinct and arrested the defendant on the complaint of John Wharton. I arrested him in Elizabeth st. near Bleeker on the 21st of February 20 minutes after six in the evening. Wharton had hold of him. I took him to the Tenth Precinct station house; the defendant did not say anything to me in the way to the station house. Wharton said he wanted the defendant arrested for stealing sixty five dollars from his shop 251 Bleeker st. He said that Wharton was crazy, that he knew nothing about his money.

Cross Examined. No boy called me. I came where Wharton had hold of the prisoner. I did not have any conversation with the prisoner at the time. He said that Wharton was crazy, that he did not know anything about his money.

William Young, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. I am 24 years old and am married. I have been stopping in different lodging houses. My regular business is waiting on steamboats. I have been working for Mr. Wharton off and on for seven years. At times I was entrusted with sums of money to collect and I always brought them back. I was left many a time in the store alone. I went to work for Mr. Wharton on Monday. I forget the date.

POOR QUALITY
ORIGINAL

I think it was the 8th ~~of~~ ^{February} and I ran off a thousand handbills and he told me to take them to an auctioneer in Bleeker St and to collect $2.50, which I did and brought it down to him to the store. Then I says to him, "John, it is almost twelve o'clock," and he says, "I am going down stairs to get some paper, will you wait a little while?" I said, "yes," he went down stairs to get some paper. The whistle blew twelve o'clock, and I sung out to Wharton, "I am going to dinner." He said, "All right." I stepped out in the back yard and came in again and put on my undercoat and overcoat. As I was going out he started to go up the steps to come out. He says, "Don't be all day; hurry back." I says, "I might have to go down town." So I started out and went to Jones' restaurant and there ate my dinner. From the restaurant I came down to Franklin and Chamber sts. to see a friend of mine, George Herbert.
He told me I could probably get steady work on an elevator. I don't know anything about the stealing of this money. Mr.
Wharton had me arrested on Sunday. Then he told me about the money I said, "You must be crazy. I don't know anything about your money." I saw the young man Herbert at his place of business No. 99 Franklin St., he was running an elevator. I was with him about two hours. I had no money at that time when I went to see him. I asked him for money. He said he did not have any that day.

POOR QUALITY

Cross Examined. I have been convicted of crime before. I was supposed to steal a coat. I pleaded not guilty and was tried and convicted. I was not guilty. I did not steal sixty five dollars. I heard Mrs. Wharton say that I did. I did not hear her halloo after me when I went out. I did not go into the street rapidly. I did not tell her son that I was going to lunch. I did not tell him I would be back in five minutes. I told him I might be back. I did not say positively I would be back. I was doing a job that day. I had a thousand more to run off. I had completed one thousand. I got 15 cents from Mr. Wharton for my lunch. I borrowed it from him because I had no money in my pocket. I did call to Mr. Wharton that I was going to lunch. I went first to the back room to the toilet. There was two weeks elapsed between the time I was charged with running off with this money and the time of my arrest.

I was two weeks without work, but I borrowed money from my friends. I was convicted six years ago; that was for taking a coat from Dr. Pyper in Second Avenue. I gave Herbert sworn and examined. I received a subpoena a few moments ago and I came here in response to it. I came from my work. I know Wm. Young about fifteen years; on the 8th of February I saw him at my place of business; he came to me while I was running an elevator; he talked with me and asked me for the loan of a couple of dollars. He said he had not any money, and I had none. I guess it was a quarter or half past one o'clock.

Cross Examined: I saw him several days before the 8th of February. I believe it was on Tuesday if I am not mistaken. If I told you ~~that~~ the 8th was on a Monday what would you say to that? I must be mistaken. You are not positive as to what day it was when he asked for that loan? No sir, that is all I know about the case. On this same day that you had seen the defendant did he tell you that he had been to another place to try to get other employment? Yes. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the second degree.

Dear Judge

When I left Every Market there was a case still pending where the prisoner was committed for $4 to await result of injuries. I do not remember the name.
I failed to endorse on the paper the request for you to proceed with the $4. In order that there may be no mistake and that the Dept may not be unnecessarily reticent I would ask you to attend to the case
