Dear Sir:

I have always been diffident about thrusting my troubles upon the notice of others but as you spoke of seeing the District Attorney in reference to my case I take the liberty of mentioning a few of the facts connected therewith. I was arrested on December 19th 1883, the next day upon my examination all charges that could by any possibility be made against me were preferred. The papers, complaints and all the evidence against me were at my request sent to the Court of General Sessions. Upon these papers an indictment for petty larceny was found upon which I was acquitted upon January 29th after a trial which occupied the time of the Court for the larger portion of two days. After my acquittal the District Attorney stated that the evidence would be stronger than could be presented on other cases. The Judge (who was upon the point of discharging me) remanded me until some action was taken. Three other indictments were found and upon March 6th I was acquitted upon one and the others were dismissed. Upon motion of the District Attorney the Judge stated that he was obliged to remand me. Two more indictments were found and although I have twice been to Court have never succeeded in having a date fixed for trial. My trouble originated from the fact that I was from home and engaged in a business for which I was not adapted. I certainly never intended to do wrong for independent of the punishment and disgrace all crime is totally repugnant to my nature. My confinement is particularly irksome as I have a wife and child in Philadelphia who are left entirely upon the little she can earn for support. Anything you can do looking towards my speedy trial will be remembered with gratitude by

Yours with respect

March 6', 1884.

Gunther K. Ackerman, of No. 112 Johnson Street, Brooklyn, in the State of New-York, makes the following statement: I am the business manager of the New-York "Star" newspaper, published in the City of New-York. In the early part of 1883 George D. Domsler, in company with two other persons made an arrangement to take one page of advertising space in said paper, agreeing to pay therefor the sum of $420 in weekly instalments of $30 per week, the said advertisement to be published in said paper when the whole sum of $420 had been paid. The said Domsler and his associates gave references, Domsler's reference being a Philadelphia lawyer, and the references of the others being New-York business men. The references of Domsler's associates were called upon and they reported "All right". In less than two weeks Mr. Domsler dispensed with his associates and ran the whole business himself. Domsler then called upon various business houses in the City of New-York, among them being Jordan and Moriarty, furniture dealers, of No. 160 Chatham Street, in said City, Cowperthwait and Company, also furniture dealers in the same street, S. H. Everett, hotel keeper, also in the same street, several brewers and other business men, collecting from them various sums in amount from two to five dollars each. At no time did Domsler keep the contract before specified nor pay any money to the New-York "Star", excepting a check for three dollars, which was made payable to the order of the New-York "Star", but retained all the amounts so collected for his own use. Domsler called at the Star office several times for the way purpose of making excuses. I believe that he collected from these parties sums of money aggregating the sum of One hundred dollars. He was enabled to collect these sums ~~by falsely~~ of money by representing to these various business men that he was authorized to solicit advertisements for the New-York "Star", which said advertisements were to be published in a special page of said paper having a special heading.

Ambrose Theebly called and sworn for prosecution deposes

Q.1 ^{and says:}
By Mr. Brie: What is your name, age, residence and occupation.

A Ambrose Theebly, aged 17 years, reside at 307 East 113th Street,
New York City, and am a brick-layer.

Q.2 Do you know Miss Mary
O'Connor,

A Well, I am acquainted with her.

Q.3 Do you know Mrs. Dowdell
the defendant.

A I do not know her by name.
I know the defendant who is in Court.

0171

Q. 4 Do you know the premises
28 Varrell St. in the city of New York.

A Yes, sir.

Q. 5 Do you know of a wall extending from the rear of those premises to close up to the house 19 Beach St.

A Yes, sir.

Q. 6 Did you ever work as a brick-layer on that wall.

A Yes.

Q. 7 When was that.

A Well, I don't remember the exact date. It was about four weeks ago. I worked six days on the wall. It ended ~~at~~ about four weeks ago.

Q. 8 What did you do on that wall.

A I built up several holes that were knocked out of the wall.

0172

Q. 10 Who employed you to do that.

A John Treedy, my father. Who is a mason and builder.

Q. 11. State as near as you can, whether all those holes were giving daylight through the wall.

A yes, all that I worked on.

Q. 12 What part of the gable wall on the adjoining house was opposite these holes.

A The windows.

Q. 13 While you were working there, did you see this lady, the defendant.

A yes, sir.

Q. 14 Did she say anything to you

A yes, she said she would throw a kettle of boiling water on me, and all the bricks I laid there she would fire on top of me.

0173

Q. 15 Did you make any reply to her statement that you have just given?

A. No, sir.

Q. 16 Where was the defendant when she made this statement to you.

A. She was standing at one of the gable windows of the other house, ~~looking through~~

Q. 17 Looking through one of the holes in the wall.

A. Yes, sir.

Q. 18 You say you worked there about six days.

A. Yes, sir.

Q. 19 While you were working there, were any of the bricks being pushed out or any part of the wall bulged out.

A. There was one part, one small hole down stairs made by knocking three ~~to~~ bricks out of the wall, while I was working there.

0174

Q. 20 Did you fix that
A I fixed it; that was the second time I fixed it.

Cross-examined by Mr. Walsh.

Q. 21 How long have you been a bricklayer.

A Three years.

The wall was 16 inches thick down stairs and 12 inches above. It was 8 inches on top. There were three holes knocked out near the top.

Q. 22 There was only one hole knocked out while you were working there.

A Yes.

Q. 23 What part of the wall was that.

A On the first floor; the wall there was 16 inches thick.

0175

Q. 24 How many bricks is that.

A Taken endways it is 2 bricks thick; when taken sidewise it is four; the bricks are supposed to be eight inches long.

Q. 25 How you think it possible to get a stick to go through a 16 inch wall to so as to make a hole in it.

A Yes, if when the mortar was fresh. But you would have to knock out the bricks.

Q. 26 Then, would it ~~be~~ be impossible to get a hole an inch or half an inch in circumference without knocking out the bricks.

A Yes.

Q. 27 Suppose the mortar were well settled, could you get a hole in the wall an inch thick with a stick.

A Not unless you drilled it with a chisel or drill.

Q 28 How often do you lay courses level in a wall 40 feet high, as a general thing.

A All the courses are supposed to be level.

Q 29 Granting that the bricks were fresh put up, they were wet or moist as you call it, that the mortar was fresh and the courses level, would not a stick shoved through the wall be apt to disturb the bricks.

A It might disturb some of them.

Q 30 How wide were the joints in this wall.

A Between a half and three quarters; some were an inch but not many of them.

Q 31 Would a stick an inch in diameter pass through the joints without removing the brick where the break occurred while you were there.

A No, sir.

0177

Q. 32 Do you know who owns 19 Beach St.

A No, sir.

~~Do not~~
Q. 33 Did ~~not~~ you see Mrs. Dowdell shove any of those bricks out yourself.

A No, sir.

Re-direct

Q. 34 If mortar were fresh, could you shove any sharp instrument through a 16 inch wall that has been just made.

A If the lower course were laid level you might shove it through the joint

Q. 35 Could you shove a sharp instrument through a 12 inch wall, through the mortar composing the joint.

A Yes, if it were fresh and the lower course were laid level.

Q. 36 Might then you shove a

stick pointed, if it were narrow enough, through the fresh mortar in the same way that you would use a sharp instrument as you have stated.

A. Yes if the stick were strong enough and the bricks and mortar wet, and the course were laid level.

Q. 37 At what distance from the ground did the 12 inch part of that wall begin its elevation.

A. About 10 feet.

Re-cross

Q. 38 Was the hole that was made while you were there, above or below ten feet.

A. Below.

Q. 39 Were the courses where the break was made while you were there, laid level.

A. They were.

Q. 40 Are you sure of that.

A. Yes, sir.

0179

Q 41 Was this wall a common brick wall
A yes, sir.

Q. 42 ~~Is it~~ Are the joints in a common brick wall always larger than the joints in a front wall.
A yes, sir.

Q. 43 Will not the joints in a common brick wall usually average or do they not frequently average $\frac{3}{4}$ of an inch in thickness
A yes, sir

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself. at the time I made the complaint I thought that the defendant intended to steal my money but have since learned and I believe that the said John Dwyer went away on a spree and that he had no idea of stealing the money. Deponent further says that he gave him the five hundred and fifty dollars for the purpose of buying a Liquor Store and that they were to be partners in business and the said John Dwyer went and myself went and paid forty dollars on the place and I did not see him for some time afterwards

City & County of New York :-

Andrew McKeever being duly sworn says:- I reside and am employed in Sweeny's Hotel. I have known John Dwyer the defendant about 8 weeks and was introduced to him through a mutual friend, said Dwyer has a Liquor Saloon at 1266 - 1st Avenue. About the 3rd day of March 1884 I called at his saloon to enter into partnership with said Dwyer in the liquor business. Mr. Dwyer said he knew of a good store to let on 2^d Ave. bet. 70th & 71st Sts. we went together to look at it and found the rent to be $30 pr. month & $10 commission to agent for 1 years lease. We then went to the bank & drew out $600. We then went to Cleary's in New Bowery dealer in Saloon fixtures for the purpose of buying fixtures and we made arrangements to meet said Cleary the following morning at the store on Second Ave. I then gave Mr Dwyer $100. he gave $40 to the agent, we visited several saloons and partook of several drinks of intoxicating liquors and we arrived at Dwyer's saloon about 11 or

0231

11.30 that night. We had one drink & then went up stairs and stayed up a short time & then returned to the barroom and remained there until about 3 or 4 o'clock in the morning and drank off and on with Mr Dwyer, and while there I gave said Dwyer $500 I understood for safe-keeping until the following morning, Mr. Patrick Baker was present at the time. I then went to bed. We were both of us considerably under the influence of liquor at the time. I did not see Dwyer the next morning when I inquired for him and did not see him again until ^{the 20th} arrested. A portion of the $500 was to be used in the partnership business. When I saw him again he was arrested, he promised to pay me all back again and has subsequently made full restoration.

John Dwyer being duly sworn says:- I reside at 1266 - 1st Ave and am engaged in the liquor business at that place.
I have heard read the foregoing affidavit of Mr. McKeever and know the same to be true down to the time of the return to my saloon at ^{about} 11 o'clock that evening.
We were both intoxicated and stayed in the saloon until about 5 o'clock in the morning.
During the night said Andrew McKeever gave me some money, I can't say how much.
I understood portion of it was to be used in the partnership business to be entered into between us. About 6 or 7 o'clock ⁱⁿ the morning I went down town to the Bowery and went into a saloon and fell asleep, I was either robbed of or lost the money. Several days thereafter I was arrested. I had no intention to commit a crime.

On or about the 4th of March ^{between} ~~about~~ 2 and 2 1/2 o'clock in the morning I went to the saloon of Mr Dwyer, and found both Mr Dwyer and Mr McKeever there, they were both drunk. I had been there a short time when Mr McKeever said to Mr Dwyer that he had lost $350 up stairs. Mr Dwyer asked whether he had given it to his wife, he said "no." Mr McKeever then searched his pockets and then pulled a bag out and said he had got it. Mr McKeever then counted out seven 50 dollar bills and gave them to Mr Dwyer. I heard no other conversation except as above stated and that they had hired a stove. I stayed there until 5 o'clock, and during the time we had several drinks. Mr McKeever got sick and vomitted, I left both there at 5 o'clock.
