OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK,

against

Lawrence Cadigan

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment, accuse

of the CRIME OF SELLING INTOXICATING LIQUORS AND WINES AS A BEVERAGE ON SUNDAY, committed as follows:

The said

Lawrence Cadigan
late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the first day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, at the City and County aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, with force and arms, certain intoxicating liquors and certain wines, to wit: One gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whiskey, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain intoxicating liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell as a beverage to one

Eugene D. Collins and to certain other persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

SECOND COUNT—

And the Grand Jury aforesaid by this indictment further accuse the said

Lawrence Cadigan
of the CRIME OF KEEPING OPEN ON SUNDAY a place licensed for the SALE OF STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS, WINES, ALE AND BEER, committed as follows:

The said

Lawrence Cadigan
late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, being then and there in charge of and having the control of a certain place there situate, which was then duly licensed as a place for the sale of strong and spirituous liquors, wines, ale and beer, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did not close and keep closed, and on the said day the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did then and there open, and cause and procure, and suffer and permit, to be open, and to remain open, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

against

Thomas Carlile

The said

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the first day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, at the City and County aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, with force and arms, certain intoxicating liquors and certain wines, to wit: One gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whiskey, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain intoxicating liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell as a beverage to one

Peter August

and to certain other persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

of the CRIME OF KEEPING OPEN ON SUNDAY a place licensed for the SALE OF STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS, WINES, ALE AND BEER, committed as follows:

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, being then and there in charge of and having the control of a certain place there situate, which was then duly licensed as a place for the sale of strong and spirituous liquors, wines, ale and beer, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did not close and keep closed, and on the said day the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did then and there open, and cause and procure, and suffer and permit, to be open, and to remain open, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

TESTIMONY.

Officer George Connor 11th Precinct being sworn says: On March 15/88 about 2.50 PM. I was on Stanton St when I was informed that a woman had been murdered at 47 Stanton St. I went there and got in by the window. I went up stairs and found the deceased Mrs Carlin lying on the floor dead. As I went up stairs the prisoner Fernando Carlin came to the door. I placed him under arrest and asked him why he had assaulted the deceased. He said "She wanted me to kill her and I killed her" I then took him to the Station House and I now charge him with having caused the death of the deceased Mrs Carlin.

 Inside at #7 Stanton Street. On the 15th of March about 3 o'clock ^{P.M.} I was hanging clothes on the line on our back stoop. I heard a scream from the 1st floor back room. I looked in the direction and saw the prisoner pull the deceased from a chair at the window He struck her several blows & I went to the window and rapped on the pane telling him to stop beating the deceased & he paid no attention & we & I then ran down to our back basement and told my aunt of the affair & she immediately sent for a policeman & Mr. Haberacht and two gentlemen came in and stood at our basement door to protect us in the event of ^{the prisoner} attacking us. The prisoner & the deceased were very peaceable and never heard them quarreling.
 I identify the prisoner Caroline ^{a foreigner} who struck the deceased with a hatchet.

I reside at 161 Eldridge Street at the present time. At the time of the occurrence I lived at 47 Stanton Street on the first floor front rooms. On the 15 of March about 2:30 o'clock I opened my door and heard a scream. I looked out and saw the prisoner pulling the deceased by the hair. He was standing in his doorway & the deceased was screaming as he dragged his wife into the room & I heard the prisoner say three times "Now die" & I also heard the blows & then I put on my shawl and went down to the landlady. This is all I know.

Officer George Connor of the 11th Precinct being deposed says: On the 15th of March in the afternoon about 3 o'clock I was going through Stanton street & saw a crowd standing up at about 47 Stanton I made inquiries & was informed that there was a man killing his wife.
 Myself and Officer Brennan went into the house & raised the basement window.
 We went into the rooms and searched them but we could not find the man who did the shooting. We went upstairs and we found the prisoner standing inside the door of his own room.
 We placed him under arrest and asked why he had assaulted his wife. He replied that the deceased wanted him to kill her and I killed her. We then brought him to the station house. The prisoner was perfectly sober though slightly nervous when we came in & we found the one in a bed room lying under the deceased's head.

Court of General Sessions of the Peace of the City and County of New York.

The People of the State of New York
against Ferdinand Carolin.

The Grand Jury of the City and County of New York, by this indictment accuse Ferdinand Carolin of the Crime of Murder in the first degree, committed as follows:

The said Ferdinand Carolin, late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the fifteenth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand and eight hundred and eighty-eight, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms in and upon one Bridget Carolin in the peace of the said People then and there being, wilfully, feloniously, and of his malice aforethought, did make an assault and he, the said Ferdinand Carolin, her the said Bridget Carolin with a certain hatchet which he the said Ferdinand Carolin in his right hand then and there had and held in and upon the face, head neck, breast and chest of her the said Bridget Carolin, then and there wilfully, feloniously, and of his malice aforethought did strike, cut, wound and fracture, giving unto her, the said Bridget Carolin, there and there with the hatchet aforesaid, in and upon the face, head, neck, breast and chest of her the said Bridget Carolin, divers mortal wounds and fractures, of which said mortal wounds and fractures, she the said Bridget Carolin then and there died.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid do say: That the said Ferdinand Carolin, her the said Bridget Carolin in the manner and form and by the means aforesaid, wilfully, feloniously and of his malice aforethought, did kill and murder, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Second Count

And the Grand Jury aforesaid by this indictment further accuse the said Ferdinand Carolin of the same Crime of Murder in the first degree, committed as follows:

The said Ferdinand Carolin late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the said fifteenth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and eighty-eight, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the said Bridget Carolin, in the peace of the said People then and there being, wilfully, feloniously, and with a deliberate and premeditated design to effect the death of her the said Bridget Carolin, did make another assault, and the said Ferdinand Carolin, her the said Bridget Carolin, with a certain

Carolin in his right hand then and there had and held, in and upon the face, head, neck, breast and chest of her, the said Bridget Carolin then and there wilfully, feloniously, and with a deliberate and premeditated design to effect the death of her the said Bridget Carolin did strike, cut, wound and fracture, giving unto her, the said Bridget Carolin, then and there, with the hatchet aforesaid, in and upon the face, head, neck, breast and chest of her, the said Bridget Carolin, divers mortal wounds and fractures, of which said mortal wounds and fractures, she the said Bridget Carolin, then and there died.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid do say: That the said Ferdinand Carolin, her the said Bridget Carolin, in the manner and form, and by the means aforesaid, wilfully, feloniously and with a deliberate and premeditated design to effect the death of her the said Bridget Carolin, did kill and murder, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Third Count

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment further accuse the said Ferdinand Carolin of the same Crime of Murder in the first degree, committed as follows:

The said Ferdinand Carolin late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the said fifteenth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand, eight hundred and eighty-eight, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the said Bridget Carolin, in the peace of the said People then and there being, wilfully, feloniously, and of his malice aforethought, did make another assault, and her the said Ferdinand Carolin, her the said Bridget Carolin, with a certain hatchet, which he the said

 the face, head, neck, breast and chest of her the said Bridget Carolin, then and there wilfully, feloniously and of his malice aforethought, did strike, cut wound and fracture; and the said Ferdinand Carolin her the said Bridget Carolin, with both the hands, feet, and knees of him, the said Ferdinand Carolin, in and upon the face, head, neck, breast and chest of her
 wilfully, feloniously, and of his malice
 aforethought did strike, beat, kick, press, squeeze, wound and fracture, giving unto her the said Bridget Carolin, then and there, as well as with the hatchet aforesaid, as also by the striking, beating, kicking, pressing, squeezing, wounding and fracturing, of her the said Bridget Carolin with the hands, feet and knees of him the said Ferdinand Carolin, in manner aforesaid, in and upon the face, head,
 neck, breast and chest of her the said Bridget Carolin, divers mortal wounds, fractures, bruises and contusions, of which said mortal wounds, fractures, bruises and contusions, she the said Bridget Carolin, then and there died.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid do say:

That the said Ferdinand Carolin, her the said Bridget Carolin, in the manner and form, and by the means aforesaid, wilfully, feloniously, and of his malice aforethought, did kill and murder, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

Fourth Count.

And the Grand Jury aforesaid, by this indictment, further accuse the said Ferdinand Carolin of the same Crime of Murder in the first degree, committed as follows:

The said Ferdinand Carolin, late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards to wit: on the said fifteenth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, at the City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, in and upon the said Bridget Carolin in the peace of the said People, then and there being, wilfully, feloniously, and with a deliberate and premeditated design to effect the death of her, the said Bridget Carolin, did make another assault, and the said Ferdinand Carolin, her the said Bridget Carolin, with a certain hatchet which he the said

threw and there had and held, in and upon the face, head, neck, breast and chest of her,
aforethought, did strike, cut wound and
fracture; and the said Ferdinand Carolin,
her the said Bridget Carolin, with both
the hands, feet, and knees of him, the said
wilfully, feloniously, and of his malice
aforethought did strike, beat, kick, press,
squeeze, wound and fracture, giving unto
there, as well as with the hatchet aforesaid, as also by the striking, beating,
him the said Ferdinand Carolin, in manner aforesaid, in and upon the face, head,
neck, breast and chest of her the said
Bridget Carolin, divers mortal wounds,
contusions, she the said Bridget Carolin,
then and there died.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid do say:

 the face, head, neck, breast and chest of her, the said Bridget Carolin, then and there wilfully, feloniously, and with a deliberate and premeditated design to effect the death of her the said Bridget Carolin did strike, cut, wound and fracture; and the said Ferdinand Carolin, her the said Bridget Carolin, with both
 the hands, feet and knees, of him the said
 face, head, neck, breast and chest of her the said Bridget Carolin, then and there wilfully, feloniously, and with a deliberate and premeditated design to effect the death of the said Bridget Carolin, did strike, beat, kick, press, squeeze, wound and fracture, giving unto her the said Bridget Carolin then, and there, as well with the hatchet aforesaid, as also by the striking, beating, kicking, pressing, squeezing, wounding
 Carolin, with the hands, feet and knees of him the said Ferdinand Carolin, in manner aforesaid, in and upon the face, head, neck, breast and chest of her, the said Bridget Carolin, divers mortal wounds, fractures, bruises and contusions, of which said mortal wounds, fractures, bruises and contusions, she the said Bridget Carolin then and there died.

And so the Grand Jury aforesaid, do say: That the said Ferdinand Carolin, her, the said Bridget Carolin, in the manner and form and by the means aforesaid, wilfully, feloniously, and with a deliberate and premeditated design to effect the death of her the said Bridget Carolin, did kill and murder, against the form of the Statute in such Cases, made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

late of the City of New York, in the County of New York aforesaid, on the nineteenth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, at the City and County aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, with force and arms, certain intoxicating liquors and certain wines, to wit: One gill of wine, one gill of brandy, one gill of rum, one gill of gin, one gill of whiskey, one gill of cordial, one gill of bitters, one gill of ale, one gill of porter, one gill of beer, one gill of lager beer, and one gill of a certain intoxicating liquor to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, unlawfully did sell as a beverage to one

and to certain other persons whose names are to the Grand Jury aforesaid unknown, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.

of the CRIME OF KEEPING OPEN ON SUNDAY a place licensed for the SALE OF STRONG AND SPIRITUOUS LIQUORS, WINES, ALE AND BEER, committed as follows:

late of the City and County aforesaid, afterwards, to wit: on the day and in the year aforesaid, the same being the first day of the week, commonly called and known as Sunday, being then and there in charge of and having the control of a certain place there situate, which was then duly licensed as a place for the sale of strong and spirituous liquors, wines, ale and beer, with force and arms, at the City and County aforesaid, the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did not close and keep closed, and on the said day the said place so licensed as aforesaid unlawfully did then and there open, and cause and procure, and suffer and permit, to be open, and to remain open, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York and their dignity.
