The People
 John Griffin & Peppre Recorder Smythe. Jan. 26. 1882.
 Indictment for grand larceny.
 Peter Malraison, sworn. I live at 14 South Fifth Avenue, am in the wine business, on the night of the 11th of this month I had a hogshead of Bourdeaux claret wine in front of my store door at 8 1/2 o'clock; its value was seventy dollars; it belonged to me. I missed it on the 11th of January. I found the wagon three doors from my place and the wine on it. A boy called me and told me the wine was gone. I was at my supper, I ran out and shouted for the thief. Emile Grange is the name of the boy. I shouted "thief" and turned the corner of Third St. there was nobody any more on the wagon and I brought the wagon back in front of my place and the wine was on it. I saw two people on the wagon when it was being driven away. I could not identify any one on the wagon because their backs were to me. Cross Examined. The policeman took the horse and wagon and wine to the stable.
 I bought the wine of Cassart & Co. 25 South William St. the wine was delivered that evening the expressman brought it and left it on the sidewalk. the barrel contained about sixty gallons; it was a cheap wine.

Ernie Grange sworn. On the 11th of this month I was living at 222 Thompson St. I know Mr. Mahraison. I was at his house half past eight in the evening and told him about the wine being stolen. I saw a barrel of wine in front of his store. I saw Griffin push it away from the door first, then he whistled and four more jumped off and rolled it towards the wagon. The wagon was at the corner of Third St. and South Fifth Ave. and then they lifted it in the wagon; while they were near the corner I went down and told Mr. Mahraison; he came out just then and turned the corner. As soon as they lifted the wagon they drove off. When they came down first there were seven or eight men, they came from up town and rode down South Fifth Avenue. Some of the others came and helped the prisoner, whom I recognized; they rolled it towards the wagon and they all put it in, there were about three in the wagon when it drove off and the others ran with the wagon.

Cross Examined I was across the street playing and they came down singing and whistling. That is what attracted our attention; we stopped playing. I was at the corner of West Third St. when I first saw them. Griffin jumped off the wagon and went to look if there was a policeman and whistled a certain way. Griffin were a Derby hat, a ^{blue} single coat, and black pants.

I did not know him before. Griffin was arrested about seven minutes after I saw the wine put on the wagon. It was dark at the time but not so very dark. I was on one side of the street and they were on the opposite side of South Fifth Avenue. As soon as they came down singing we stopped playing. We looked at them. I said, "They are going to steal that wine." Griffin when he jumped off the wagon gave the barrel of wine a kick and sent it from the door. I walked past Griffin and was near him. There was not a lamp near but there was light in the stores. I can positively say the prisoner is one of the men. I did not see him the night he was arrested but I saw him in Court the next afternoon. William Rice, sworn and examined, testified. I live at 24 South Fifth Avenue. I know the boy who was just examined. I saw four men jump off the wagon and one stayed on the wagon and then some of them rolled a barrel of wine. They backed the wagon and they put the wine on the wagon. I saw the barrel in front of the complainant's place.
I would not know any of the men. As soon as they got into the wagon it was drove around West Third St. I heard Mr. Malraison cry, "Stop thief" I stood on the corner of West Third St. and saw the wagon there; it was the same wagon I saw the wine put into. I did not see anybody jump out of it. Mr. Malraison took the wagon with the wine it around by the store; the policeman took the wagon and drove it up to the Station house. I did not hear anybody whistle in the street. I would not know any of the men that I saw rolling the barrel. Thomas Scullion sworn. I am a police officer of the Fifteenth Precinct. Sergeant Smink arrested the prisoner. I was with the Sergeant going through South Fifth Ave., when I heard the cry of "Police" on the 11th of Jan., after 8 o'clock. I ran towards West Third St. and a lot of small boys pointed out two young men, I had a slight hold on one, I missed my foot, I was trying to catch the other. John Griffin was about ten feet from me looking at me when I pulled this other fellow along to get hold of Griffin. He (Griffin) went up West Third St. and the other fellow broke away. The Sergeant I believe caught Griffin in Hooster St. and fetched him to the station house I did not get the other man. I went back and found the horse and wagon and barrel of wine in front of Mr. Mahaison's door, who claimed the wine. There was no owner for the horse and wagon for several days afterwards. Mr. Crowe in Varick St. said he lost a horse and harness, the complainant identified the wine as his and it was returned to him. Charles Golden swore that he saw a young man about as tall as Griffin move a hogshead of wine away from in front of the complainant's place. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

0916
