v.

Frank White.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE.

The prisoner is indicted for keeping a disorderly house on February 13, 1886, at Nos. 254, 256, 258 and 260 West 18th Street, known as the West Side Sporting House. The facts appear in the testimony.

EVIDENCE FOR THE PEOPLE.

FRANK G. BARKLEY: - Is an officer of The New York Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. In conjunction with Officer Becker, went to the premises on the evening in question at 8.45 P.M., where he was subsequently joined by Officer Knoll of the Society. A special attraction had been announced for the evening, and the room was crowded with perhaps 200 persons, chiefly young men ranging from 17 to 30 years of age. Beer was being freely served, and witness and his associates readily obtained beer, whiskey and gin as ordered. As the evening advanced the crowd became boisterous, there was much profanity and quarelling, and several fights occurred between spectators, in which the defendant Frank White interfered. There were about 10 girls in the room, ages ranging from 17 to 20 and one of perhaps 25. These girls behaved very indecently and indulged in lewd conversation, sat on the laps of young men and allowed themselves to be handled improperly; smoked cigarettes and were profane and obscene. A part of the evening's entertainment consisted of a boxing contest between an athletic young man and an older man who was apparently quite intoxicated. They were not equally matched, and the elder man was knocked down, falling heavily, but immediately picked up by the seconds, put on his feet and "time" called. He was again knocked down and again set up. Once he was struck and wheeled around in such a manner as to fall forward heavily and on his face. He was picked up and called to go on, but he could not, and settled in a chair behind the screen, used as a dressing room, completely used up and his face covered with blood. This exhibition was greatly cheered by the crowd. About 11.15 P.M. Officers Eugene Collins and McKinry of the 10th Precinct, assisted by a platoon from the 16th Precinct, arrested two girls and some twelve boys, and the defendant Frank White, and took them to the 16th Precinct Station. The crowd soon left the place with few exceptions. While witness was talking with one of the older girls, she took him by the arm and asked him if he "wouldn't like to get his gun off on her," or "couldn't he get his gun off on her." The officers left the place about midnight and went to the 16th Street Station House.

The People
 vs. William Williams } Court of General Sessions. Part I Before Judge Curing.

Friday, February 19, 1886. Jointly indicted with Andrew Stone for robbery in the first degree.
 John McCloskey sworn. I was in New York on February 9th. I met Williams in West Forty Third street about two o'clock in the afternoon. I was going down Forty Third street where I work at ice in the summer time; the prisoner took me inside in a club room by the arm. I objected to going and when I got in there was another man there and they asked me if I had any money. I gave him 25 cents; after that when I went in I sat on a chair, I got kind of dizzy.
 The prisoner and Stone got hold of me and they got me in a room where they keep coal. I got hit on the top of the head. They took my overcoat and inside coat and left me in my sleeves and took my pants off; the prisoner attempted to commit sodomy on me;
 the other man held on to my two arms while I was in there. They took off my overcoat by force; it was worth five dollars. I believe it was the prisoner took off the overcoat; the other man hit me and knocked me down. I had a couple of drinks, I was not very drunk, I knew what I was doing. I was about half drunk. Cross Examined
 I am about twenty three years old and was born in New York. I work for the last five years at ice in the summer time and at whatever I can get in the winter. This winter I worked at making brooms in 40 East Houston St. This occurrence took place about two o'clock in the afternoon, it was after dinner anyhow. I did not have more than two or three drinks; the first drink I had was about two fingers of whiskey after breakfast. I got my breakfast in a sheet I don't know the name of and at a restaurant I never was at before. I slept the night before in a lodging house on Sixth Ave. and the night before that at 40 East Houston St. where I board and work. I slept in the lodging house because I was locked out of Houston St on Monday night; the rules are there that you must be in at half past ten. I got there five minutes after that and the place was locked and I could not get in. I had not been drinking heavily the night before. I got the next drink that morning up town in Twenty Seventh St. and Tenth Avenue that was mixed ale, and the third drink I got in the same place; that was all I remember to have drunk. I was half drunk when I got to the clubhouse. I guess I am over twenty one years old; I did not vote at the last election; this is the first time I was ever in the Club House. I did not know it was a clubhouse before I went in. It has a stove and chairs and table around which young fellows sit in the evening I know the man the club is called for, Johnny Hanley and I know Swyer and Devlin. I don't know how long it has had an existence. I know Hanley since I was a boy and I went to school with Devlin. I only know these three young men. They put me in the bed room where they keep coal - the prisoner and Stone; there was no light there. I resisted and pulled back. I wanted to go down to see a party where I was going to work. I think Williams asked me if I had any money and I gave him a quarter. I have known Williams a good while, some years. I don't know whether he was sober or not. I sat over by the window and dozed off and was dozing 20 minutes or half an hour. I did not fall out of the chair. They each took me by the arm and brought me to this coal hole. I don't know who knocked me down, it was all dark there and I fell on the coal. They took off my shoes and tried to take off my pants. Stone knelt down on my two arms and the prisoner tried to commit sodomy. They took the over coat and everything off me and went out. I was not very sensible after I got hit. Williams helped to take the coat off; they used me pretty hard. My under coat was taken off me but it was given back to me. Some young man went in and got my hat, coat and shoes and brought them into the street. I don't know who that young man was. I was so excited. I never saw him before nor since. I went out from the club room to get a policeman and when we got back there was no body in it; it was coming on dark when I got out. I do not know what time it was.

0523

John Kennedy, sworn and examined in his own behalf testified. Officer, what precinct do you belong to? The twenty second. Did you arrest Williams, the man at the bar? Yes sir. When and where? On the 10th, about half past ten o'clock close on to eleven. You know nothing more than you arrested him for this alleged robbery? No sir, I arrested him on this man's complaint. On the complaint of the last witness? Yes sir. By the Court. Did you tell the prisoner what you arrested him for? Yes sir. What did he say? He denied it.

There was no testimony offered by the defendant.

The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of assault in the third degree.
