Whereas this meeting has heard the presentation of the members of the British Parliament upon the subject of their "address to the President and Congress of the United States" in favor of a treaty with Great Britain, "which shall stipulate that any differences arising between the two governments which cannot be adjusted by diplomatic agency shall be referred to arbitration."

Resolved, That the chairman of this meeting appoint a committee of five, of which he shall be a member.

First- To urge our government to formulate such a treaty at as early a date as practicable.

Second- To request Congress to pass a law convening a convention of the nations of North and South America and such others as may choose to join therein, to form an International Court of Arbitration, which will command the respect of the civilized world, and to provide sufficient funds to carry out this proposed law with appropriate dignity.
