Prior to the arrests which were made herein I was never before arrested nor charged with an offence of any kind whatever.

In my said business I have invested over twenty five thousand dollars, and I have now let portions of said building to tenants who now occupy the same.

During the past thirty four years I have always obtained a license to sell liquors in my said place, and since my arrest here in I have not sold nor permitted to be sold any liquors of any description.

I was advised that the performances of musical selections was not prohibited by the statute, but since I have been informed to the contrary I have desisted from giving any musical performances in said place, and the same is now solely used as a refreshment and dair room and billiard parlor, and the same is now conducted in an orderly manner.

I annex hereto and make part of this affidavit a petition signed by many of my neighbors fully bearing me out in my assertions as to the propriety of the conduct of my place of business.

I also annex hereto several letters of the Sisters of Mercy commending me and my said place of business.

I have always endeavored to obey the laws, and the violations of the law which are complained of were committed without any intent to transgress.

of No. 43 Maddington Street, aged 24 years, occupation Seaman being duly sworn, deposes and says, that on the 11th day of March 1887, at the City of New York, in the County of New York, Amelia Stockwell who is the lawful wife of this deponent, did unlawfully take unto herself another husband, she well knowing at the time that this deponent was living: for the reasons following, to wit: On the 16th day of July 1885 this deponent was married to said defendant by a Minister at 123 Greenwich Street, deponent has since been informed as per annexed certificate that the said defendant did unlawfully take unto herself another husband whose name is John St. Orest, she having seen and conversed with this deponent on the 10th day of March 1887 the evening before the second Marriage took place.

 Wherefore deponent charges the said defendant with unlawfully marrying another person, she

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Frank Hoet,

Burglary 3d Deg.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

Since making my complaint I have discovered that the Defendant was heretofore borne a good character and has never been charged with any offense previously - Defendant was under the influence of Liquor when he took my clothing and from my investigation of his habits and character I am satisfied if sober he would not have taken my property - As there was a bill on the house I furnished Rooms to let and as I am informed Defendant came into the house looking for a room I am safe in saying he did not come there to steal - If I am allowed to withdraw my complaint I think it will save Defendant's future
