My dear Sir:- In the case of Alfred Halliday which is to be brought before you tomorrow I have carefully investigated the surrounding circumstances and the antecedents of the defendant. He seems to have been a young man of good character who has in an unfortunate moment yielded to temptation. He is deeply penitent of his wrong and has suffered and must still suffer severely from the consequences of his misstep.

In the application that will be made to your judicial discretion for a suspension of sentence, I beg to most heartily and earnestly urge.

The undersigned gladly testifies to the general good character and integrity of Mr. Alfred Huldiday, a member of undersigned's old Regiment (22^d N. Y. S. M.) and whose conduct up to the time of his present trouble has been most exemplary, leading to the belief that he must have been sorely tempted, and in a moment of weakness destroyed his previous good character.

His family is respectable, and feel the disgrace keenly, and the writer knows that the young man's punishment is complete now when he realizes the pain he has brought to a fond mother's heart.

The writer feels that this is a case where justice may well be tempered with mercy, and earnestly prays that whatever can be done to mitigate punishment in this case will be done.

I have the honor to request that you will temper justice with mercy in the case of Ex
Sergeant Alfred Halliday of this command.

His uniform attention to duty while a member of the Regiment and the services performed during the recent tour

convinced that clemency on your part would

Sir.

I would most respectfully request that you will deal leniently with Ex Sergeant Alfred Halliday, who for the past seven years has performed 100% duty as a member of my Company in the 22nd Regiment; during this period he has occupied various positions of trust and responsibility within the organization and never has been found wanting

During the recent tour of active service in Buffalo, he was always one of the first to volunteer for any dangerous duty and won the respect and admiration of his officers as well as the love of his comrades.

To have lost all this and
to have the knowledge that it can never be regained in this life, seems to me to be a punishment too awful to contemplate.

It is for his widowed mother and innocent sisters, whom the weight of his disgrace has all but crushed,
that I implore you to temper justice with mercy.

I saw the crowd collecting, and went over. There was a cry of Police. I arrested Hannigan, and he said I want that other man arrested. They were not drunk: though they may have been drinking. Hannigan wanted to quarrel on the way to the Station House. ~~Dooley~~ said at the Station House I asked Hannigan him "what he did with the knife" he said he didn't have any knife. I asked him what he stabbed Dooley with and he said "You find out". I went back to the house. Miss Coyle told me she saw him ^{Hannigan} throw something down stairs. I started to go down and found the fork (now here) there was then blood on it.

Miss Coyle and Mrs Wright both saw the fork with the blood on it.

I boarded at 1760 - 3rd Ave. It was about 8 o'clock when Haingan came in. He was intoxicated. I was not intoxicated, had part of two pints of beer from the time I left work. I knew him before; he said "I have more money than you or". He said to Mrs Curley "your name isn't Mrs Curley anymore, its Mrs Dooley". He called a whore or. I told him not to insult the woman: we had some words and then went up on the roof and had a fight. I came down and went into Moore's apartments and staid there for about a half an hour. I thought he had gone away and started to go up to where I was boarding. He met me at the head of the stairs, I did not see him until he was right on top of me. I think he came from the water closet, at the end of the hall. I was cut on the head, I could not see what he had in his hand, he got me under his arm, and stuck me in the breast twice. I then got ~~run down stairs~~ away and stood in the back hall - way and let him pass

New York, DeOctober 3rd 1892.

APPEARANCES: For the People Assistant District Attorney V. M. Davis.

For the defendant Mr. John E. Brodsky.

THOMAS J. M OONEY, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 537 East 17th street in this city. I have a stable at 509 east 19th street. I own several horses. On the 22nd of September I hired a horse out to the street cleaning department of this city. The horse was taken from the stable at about half past five in the morning. It was to be returned that night but when the time came the horse was not brought back. The next day my foreman brought the horse to my stable. The next morning I saw this defendant in the police Court under arrest. The horse that was brought back to the stable was the same horse that was hired out by me to the street cleaning department. I made a complaint against Harrington.

ADOLPHUS G. DONCOURT, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

2

I am a police officer attached to the 23rd precinct in this city . I arrested the defendant Kane. I found him in the company of Harrington on the southern Boulevard near 135th street. I saw Kane and Harrington talking, Harrington was leading the horse and wanted to go through 145th street; this defendant Kane says "No, come this way; it is darker". That conversation attracted my attention to the men and I wanted to know why they desired to go where it was dark. This was at nine o'clock at night. I saw them turn the corner of 145th street and Tinton avenue. I started and followed them about two blocks and when I caught up with them I found this defendant on the side of the road lying down pretending to be asleep. The horse was there and so was Harrington. I asked Harrington whose horse it was and he said it was his. I told the two men they would have to go to the station house with me and explain the possession of the horse. Harrington says to me, pointing to Kane "You will have to wake him up". I woke the defendant Kane up. He asked me what I wanted and I said they would both have to come to the station house. Kane said he had never seen Harrington before . I am positive that I saw the two of them together, and that I overheard the conversation between them which I have stated . I believe the defendant Kane was only feigning sleep. I told Kane that the story would not go, that I had seen him about ten minutes before that wide awake turning the corner; he denied that and again said that he had never seen Harrington before. I took the two men and the horse to the station house . The horse was afterwards identified by a man from the complainant's stable as the property of Mr. Mooney.

I had a further conversation with Kane and he told me that the collar and bridle might be some where near 146th street and Brook avenue in a saloon. I went to a saloon but did not find it there . Harrington told me that the horse belonged to the street cleaning department and that he had taken it. He has since that time pleaded guilty in this court.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

Kane at all times denied having any connection with this crime, with the stealing of this horse. The part of the city where I found these defendants is in an unfrequented part, where there are not many houses. I state positively that I got enough of a glance at the face of the defendant Kane to identify him as the man who passed me at the corner . I will swear that he was feigning sleep at the time I woke him up. I saw Kane lay his head down as I approached the men . I did not have any trouble at all in arousing him . I did not lose sight of the men for more than five or ten seconds.

GEORGE METZEL, a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I am a peddler and live in 145th street . I saw the defendant Kane about two weeks ago at my place. He was alone. It was about nine o'clock at night. He had a horse with him; he tried to sell it to me . I did not see anybody with him at the time.

MARGARET MILLER? a witness for the People, sworn, testified:

I live at 452 Roberts avenue. That is one block from Tinton avenue. Two men came to my house about two weeks ago one night and tried to sell me a black horse. The defendant looks something like one of the men, but I am not sure it is him. This was half past eight at night.

D E F E N C E

THOMAS KANE, wife defendant, sworn, testified:

I live at 311 East 103rd street in this city. I am a plasterer by occupation. I did not know Harrington before my arrest. At the time I was arrested by the officer up in that neighborhood I was lying asleep on the side of the road. I did not see Harrington before that time on that evening. I had nothing to do with the stealing of that horse, and know nothing about it. It is not true, as the officer, said that I asked Harrington to go to a darker street. I did not have any conversation with Harrington on that evening as I never met him before. The first I knew of Harrington was when the officer woke me up.

CROSS EXAMINATION:

I am not a friend of Harrington. I never knew him. I have been twice convicted of crime before. I was once in the penitentiary for being drunk with a wagon. I did not steal the wagon. I was charged with stealing it; it was found with me; I did not steal it; I was drunk. I have been arrested twice for drunkenness and fined. I had no conversation with the officer on the way to the station house.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the 2nd degree.

Affidavit—Larceny.

City and County } ss.
of New York,

of No. 112 Chrystie Street, aged 37 years,
occupation tailor being duly sworn,

deposes and says, that on the 18 day of Sept 1892 at the City of New York, in the County of New York, was feloniously taken, stolen and carried away from the possession of deponent, in the day time, the following property, viz:

One gold watch of the value of fifty six dollars

the property of

deponent

and that this deponent

has a probable cause to suspect, and does suspect, that the said property was feloniously taken, stolen from his person and carried away by

Charles Harris and Frank Coleman (both now here) who were acting in concert one with the other for the reason that on said date deponent was in Bell Street and had the said watch in the lower left hand side pocket of his vest then on his person. Deponent felt a tug at his vest and immediately saw the defendant Harris ring said watch from his chain - as deponent caught hold of said Harris - he the said
Harris passed the said watch to the defendant
Coleman. Whereupon deponent charges the defendants Harris and Coleman with Larceny from the

in the City and County aforesaid the said being a dwelling-house

three stories & cellar and which was occupied by deponent as a dwelling house and in which there was at the time a human being, by name Mary Granschfelt, & Lizzie Tracy, were BURGLARIOUSLY entered by means of forcibly opening a screen, from the stoop on the 7th day of September 1882 in the Day time, and the following property feloniously taken, stolen, and carried away, viz:

one silver-watch, two silver holders with case, two razors, one cigar case all together of the value of about twenty dollars

the property of

and deponent further says, that he has great cause to believe, and does believe, that the aforesaid BURGLARY was committed and the aforesaid property taken, stolen and carried away by

Deponent
John Carvey

for the reasons following, to wit: That at about the hour of three o'clock P.M. Officer Michael Quinn of the 32nd Precinct Police, was informed by Jacob Young 123 Stillett Street, that he saw the defendant jump from the second story window of said house, the officer immediately arrested the defendant, searched him and found a portion of the stolen property, which the defendant identifies as that which was feloniously taken stolen and carried away by the defendant. Wherefore defendant asks that the defendant may be dealt with according as the law directs.
