City & County of New York ss:

That Robert L. being duly sworn says he is attorney for defendant herein. which is an indictment for Burglary in the 2^d Deg and Receiving Stolen Goods.

That defendant was placed on trial last September and after a protracted trial in which he produced an alibi witness and other witnesses in corroboration and a witness to character, the jury after remaining out about 4 hours disagreed standing he is informed sip to sip with no hope of agreement.

That defendant immediately there after tried to find out a day fixed for trial again from the District Attorney but could not.

That without warning this case was placed on today's calendar & defendant just brought the fact the morning that there are the above witnesses.

CITY AND COUNTY }
OF NEW YORK, } ss.

THE JURORS OF THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, in and for the body of the City and County of New York, upon their Oath, present:

That Stephen V. R. Young and Charles S. Storms each late of the First Ward of the City of New York, in the County of New York, aforesaid on the twenty eighth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ~~eighty~~ eighty, at the Ward, City and County aforesaid, with force and arms, on the day and year last aforesaid, with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud one Michael Walsh did then and there feloniously, unlawfully, knowingly, and designedly, falsely pretend and represent to Michael Walsh that, a certain instrument and writing, to wit, an order for the payment of money, of the kind known as a Bank Check, which the said Stephen V. R. Young and Charles S. Storms then and there presented and delivered to the said Michael Walsh and which said Bank check is in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

New Jersey N: - Jersey City Feb 28 1880
Second National Bank
Pay to S. V. R. Young — or order eight ————— Dollars
$ 8 00/100 C. S. Storms was a good and valid order for the payment of eight dollars eight dollars in money, and of the value of

; and that a sum of eight dollars in money belonging to the said Charles S. Storms was then in the possession of the Second National Bank of Jersey City and that said sum of money was then payable and could be paid by the said Second National Bank of Jersey City on the credit and account of the said Charles S. Storms whenever an order in writing, signed by the said Charles S. Storms authorizing the said Second National Bank of Jersey City to make such payment should be presented at the place of business of the said Second National Bank of Jersey City and that a certain Bank check, in the proper handwriting of him the said Charles S. Storms and which said Bank check was addressed to the said Second National Bank of Jersey City at the place of business of the said Second National Bank of Jersey City at Jersey City and which said Bank check purported to be an order upon the said Second National Bank of Jersey City to pay to the said Charles S. Storms and to any endorsee of the said Charles S. Storms the sum of eight dollars in money, was a valuable security, to wit, an order for the payment of eight dollars in money, and of the value of eight dollars -

And the said Michael Walsh then and there believing the said false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid by the said Stephen V. R. Young and Charles S. Storms and being deceived thereby, was induced, by reason of false pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, to deliver, and did then and there deliver to the said Stephen V. R. Young and Charles S. Storms a certain sum of money, to wit the sum of eight dollars in money and of the value of eight dollars of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property and effects of the said Michael Walsh and the said Stephen V. R. Young and Charles S. Storms did then and there designedly receive and obtain the said sum of money to wit the sum of eight dollars in money and of the value of eight dollars

 of the said Michael Walsh
 of the said Michael Walsh by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, and with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud the said Michael Walsh of the same.

Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Bank Check which the said Stephen V. R. Young and Charles S. Storms then and there presented and delivered to the said Michael Walsh was not a good and valid order for the payment of eight dollars in money, nor was the same a good and valid order for the payment of any sum of money whatever.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, there was not then and there the sum of eight dollars in money belonging to the said Charles S. Storms in the possession of the said Second National Bank of Jersey City
 nor was there then and there any sum of money whatsoever belonging to the said Charles S. Storms in the possession of said Second National Bank of Jersey City

And Whereas, in fact and in truth, the said sum of money was not then payable and could not be paid by said Second National Bank of Jersey City on the credit and account of the said Charles S. Storms whenever an order in writing signed by the said Charles S. Storms authorizing such payment to be made should be presented at the place of business of the said Second National Bank of Jersey City, nor would the said Second National Bank of Jersey City pay any sum of money whatsoever upon such order so signed by the said Charles S. Storms as aforesaid.

And Whereas, in truth and in fact, the said Bank Check in the proper handwriting of the said Charles S. Storms was not an order to pay to the said Charles S. Storms or any endorsee of the said Charles S. Storms the sum of eight dollars in money, nor was the same a valuable security, of the value of eight dollars in money, nor was it of any value whatever;

And Whereas, in fact and in truth, the pretences and representations so made as aforesaid, by the said Stephen V. R. Young and Charles S. Storms to the said Michael Walsh was and were in all respects utterly false and untrue, to wit, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid.

And Whereas, in fact and in truth the said Stephen V. R. Young and Charles S. Storms well knew the said pretences and representations so by him made as aforesaid to the said Michael Walsh to be utterly false and untrue at the time of making the same.

And so the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oath aforesaid, do say, that the said Stephen V. R. Young and Charles S. Storms by means of the false pretences and representations aforesaid, on the day and year last aforesaid, at the Ward, City, and County aforesaid, feloniously, unlawfully, falsely, knowingly and designedly, did receive and obtain from the said Michael Walsh a certain sum of money, to wit, the sum of eight dollars

of the proper moneys, valuable things, goods, chattels, personal property, and effects of the said Michael Walsh with intent feloniously to cheat and defraud him of the same, against the form of the Statute in such case made and provided, and against the peace of the People of the State of New York, and their dignity.

BENJ. K. PHELPS, District Attorney.
