New York General Sessions.

PEOPLE ON MY COMPLAINT, VERSUS

Fred. L. Hochstetter.

As complainant in the above case, I beg to recommend the defendant to such leniency and clemency as the Court and District Attorney may see fit to show; but I expressly assert that my reasons for so doing are not controlled by any advantage to myself.

My reasons for wishing to withdraw the above complaint I beg to give as follows:

The defendant being of highly respectable family from Germany and highly recommended to me has never before committed an offence against the law, as stated to me by mutual friends, who know his family in Europe. He at once readily acknowledged his guilt and restored the money which he purloined. If it had not been in the form of assumption that it was all his, to my opinion to withdraw my complaint, and thus have him set free, I would never have caused his arrest. I am fully satisfied that he had no intention whatever to do me a permanent injury and is not such a person as would deserve so severe a punishment for his unpremeditated action as the law prescribes. — Being but five weeks in this country without employment he was afflicted with an attack of Dysphtheria but a couple of days before, for which he had to engage a doctor, and I am sure that this contributed much if not all to his committing the fault. — Besides this I wish to add, that my own allowing him the opportunity of seeing the pocketbook and the secret spring drawer in which it was kept, might have proved a great temptation to one whose sickness aggravated his discouragement in not being able to find employment.

0715

The People vs. John Hurley Court of General Sessions, Part I.
Before Recorder Smyth. June 27. 1883.
Indictment for grand larceny in the first degree.
Charles Deidrich, sworn and examined, testified I live No 18 St. Mark's Place. I am a waiter at Coney Island, I was going home on the morning of June 20. and I sat down in Tompkins Square about 20 minutes between one and two o'clock in the morning. I had 50, 25, 10 cents, a couple of pennies, a knife and a bunch of keys, altogether about the value of five dollars. I lost them. The prisoner cut my pants here first (showing the hole in the pocket of his pantaloons); he got the money, and the second cut was right here. I grabbed the man and he ran away. Two policemen, one from Tenth and the other from Seventh St. went after him. Then he ran in a bush, and the policeman over there held him fast and fetched him to the station house; he says, "Is that the man?" I said, "yes" that is the man that cut my pants. There is no mistake about it; that is the man. He ran away and I followed him and halloed for the police; he 'caught' him in a bush.

0769

Cross Examined. What time did you leave the Island that night? Eleven o'clock. How did you come ~~up~~? I came first with the train and afterward by the Seventh street boat, East River. Where did you get out? I went through the Park in 8th St. What time did you reach the Park? Between one and two o'clock. Eleven o'clock was the last train from Coney Island. Did you come on that train? Yes sir. What ferry did you come over? The Seventh street ferry on the East River side of the city. You walked along and you sat down at Tompkins Park? Yes sir. Was it a fine night? Yes sir. You drink beer? Yes sir, some times, I drank a couple of glasses of beer from six to eleven o'clock. Did you walk direct from the ferry boat to the Park? Yes sir. What did you do where you got to the Park? I was tired, I worked that day very hard. I dozed in the Park. At the time I woke up I saw the prisoner. There was two of them; they ran away. First he stood; and I held him fast and I ran after him. I felt the prisoner and I grabbed him. He cut the pocket of my pantaloons. I saw him when he gave me the second cut. The pocket was turned inside out. Here is the pocket (showing it) I had no watch. After you grabbed hold of him did you look in his face? Yes sir. What did you do then? I held him fast and halloed for help, "watch." I got help from both sides. Here is a policeman over there who collared him, he got him out of the bush, he saw him coming, there was three or four shots fired off. I told the officer it was this man who robbed me. It is not my habit to sit in the Park nights. I had been there 20 minutes. Patrick Cox, sworn. I am an officer of the 17th Precinct. I arrested the prisoner upon the night of the 20th of June at Lampkins Park. I saw the complainant there, he made an outcry. I followed him. I was on Avenue B and Seventh St and I heard an outcry on the other side of the Park, and the next thing I saw two men running towards me; the officer on Avenue A fired a shot and when they 'seen' me running for them they turned and run back to a clump of bushes in the Park and they got into the bushes. There was a kind of a fog that morning, and the officer, who was an old man, did not keep the guard exactly on the other side and one of the men got away. I don't know anything about the taking of the property. John Hurley, sworn and examined in his own behalf, testified. I was boarding at 310 Eighth St. between Avenues C & D. It is three blocks from Tompkins Square Park. On the evening of the 20th of June I was at the London Theatre and got out at 12 1/2 o'clock. I went home, the door was locked, I could not get in, I went over and sat in the Park. Two young men came along side of me and sat down. As they were sitting down they came and said, "young fellow you had better get away from there. There is a policeman coming along there and he will chase you. I had no idea, I ran, I give in to that. The policeman came, I thought it would be better for me to stand because I did not do anything. I never saw the complainant before. I did not take any property from him. I was not with any person that did take the property. A young man named Billy Smith was with me at the Theatre. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty of grand larceny in the first degree.

0770

0771
